"Flexible scheduling" will be used in Weeks 11-18. Additionally, in Weeks 5-10, flexible scheduling may be used in no more than two weeks. In Weeks 5-17, the schedule lists the games tentatively set for Sunday Night Football on NBC. Only Sunday afternoon games are eligible to be moved to Sunday night, in which case the tentatively scheduled Sunday night game would be moved to an afternoon start time.

1:25 p.m.

at Los Angeles Rams

For Week 18, the Sunday night game will be announced no later than six days prior to January 9. The schedule does not list a Sunday night game in Week 18, but an afternoon game with playoff implications will be moved to that time slot. Flexible scheduling ensures quality matchups in all Sunday time slots in those weeks and gives "surprise" teams a chance to play their way into primetime.

Flexible scheduling will not be applied to games airing on Thursday or Monday nights.

DENISE DEBARTOLO YORK & JOHN YORK

CO-CHAIRMEN

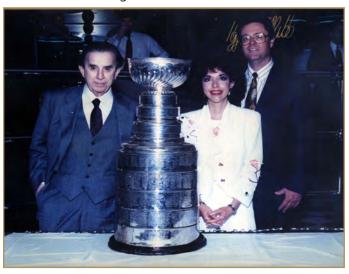

Denise and John York bring long and distinguished careers in sports and business to their roles as Co-Chairs of the San Francisco 49ers, where they combine their passion for building a championship team with their commitment to being the best possible business partners and community citizens.

A FORTY-FOUR-YEAR LEGACY IN BUSINESS AND PROSPORTS

Since Denise's father, Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., purchased the 49ers in 1977, she has been an integral part of four decades of 49ers football, including 47 playoff contests and five Super Bowl victories. Earlier in her career, Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team. Under her leadership, the Penguins were revitalized and transformed into a championship team, winning the organization's first Stanley Cup in 1991. In doing so, she became just the third women to have her name engraved on hockey's famed championship trophy.

A successful entrepreneur, John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing. John, a noted pathologist, began his business career in 1982 as Founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, Ohio. From three employees, he molded the company into a 500-person operation with facilities in three states before selling the company to Corning, Inc., in 1993.

As co-chairs of the 49ers, Denise and John provide the resources and guidance to uphold the 49ers celebrated history and oversee the team's relationship with the Commissioner of the National Football League and other team owners.

THE YORKS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee.
- John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee. He is also a member of the League's Audit, Health & Safety Medical and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman.
- The 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers and the 49ers Foundation were previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Sports Philanthropy.
- For the past 30 years, the 49ers Foundation has educated and empowered Bay Area youth through a host of innovative, community-based strategies. The 49ers Foundation has distributed more than $50 million back into the community.
- In 2014, the 49ers were among the first professional sports organizations to develop and deliver STEAM learning concepts for youth with the launch of the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's Stadium.
- The ongoing commitment to promote education is also demonstrated in the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI), a collaborative education venture in cooperation with Chevron, the Santa Clara Unified School District and the Silicon Valley Education Foundation. The SLI program provides over 300 hours of rigorous STEM curriculum to cohorts of 60 high-achieving 7th through 12th graders each year from Cabrillo Middle School and Santa Clara High School.
- In 2020, Denise and John's impact on Bay Area youth reached another milestone. This year's SLI graduating class is the first cohort to complete the program from start to finish, with 100 percent of the senior class graduating in May and heading off to four-year universities.
- The SLI program has also garnered several awards including the California School Board Association's highest honor, the Golden Bell award for Expanded Learning and Engagement.
- Denise served as President of the Pittsburgh Penguins hockey team and became just the third woman to have her name engraved on the Stanley Cup.
- John spent years as Senior Vice President/Director of Racing Operations for the DeBartolo Corporation, instituting programs designed to enhance the fan experience and raise the profile of thoroughbred horse racing.
- John began his business career in 1982 as Founder of DeYor Laboratories in Youngstown, OH.

TAKING A LEADERSHIP ROLE IN THE NFL

Denise and John's dedication to the sport of football extends to the top levels of the NFL.

Denise is an active member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame Committee, where she helps to oversee the League's ongoing support of the museum that pays tribute to the triumphs of professional football's greatest stars, including 28 legendary members of the San Francisco 49ers.

John is Chairman of the NFL's Health & Safety Advisory Committee, which was established in 2011. He is also a member of the League's Audit, Health & Safety Medical and International committees, the latter of which he previously served as Chairman. Under his leadership, the 49ers became the first team to play a regular season game outside the borders of the United States, taking on the Arizona Cardinals in front of 100,000 fans at Azteca Stadium in Mexico City. Under his direction, the League expanded its presence abroad with regular season games at Wembley Stadium in London, England. San Francisco has played in London twice, defeating the Denver Broncos in 2010 and the Jacksonville Jaguars in 2013.

CELEBRATING THE TEAM'S LEGENDARY HISTORY

Denise and John have played a pivotal role in fostering tremendous relationships with former players and coaches to help celebrate more than seven monumental decades of 49ers football. Over the past decade, Denise and John have brought back every Hall of Fame enshrinee from the 49ers to be honored for their tremendous contributions to Bay Area sports.

Levi's Stadium opened in 2014 with one of the premiere features of the venue being the 49ers Museum, which houses the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame. The two-level, 20,000 square foot space is dedicated to showcasing the past, present and future of the 49ers organization and its commitment to education and innovation.

Under the guidance of Denise and John, the team hosts its annual alumni weekend event to give all players who have donned the red and gold throughout the team's history a chance to catch up with old friends. They have also worked with players like Joe Montana and the late Dwight Clark, and the members of the 1981 49ers defense to re-enact and commemorate some of the team's most famous plays such as "The Catch" and the goal line stand that propelled the team to its first Super Bowl victory. As the team said goodbye to Candlestick Park in 2013, the 49ers commemorated many great memories by honoring the Top 10 moments in the storied history of the venue by welcoming back the alumni who helped make them all possible.

ENHANCING THE FAN EXPERIENCE

Denise and John are dedicated to embracing the passion of 49ers fans everywhere. They are committed to giving fans an opportunity to experience the excitement of 49ers football year-round, and have made it their mission to embrace the Faithful as family.

Levi's Stadium is the culmination of their vision to create an unparalleled game day experience for 49ers fans. The venue not only provides fans the ultimate place to enjoy 49ers football, but it also plays host to a number of world-class sports and entertainment events throughout the year. Through the integration of innovative technology, sustainable practices and groundbreaking design elements, Levi's Stadium accurately reflects the best of the Bay Area while bringing fans closer to the game.

Visitors to Levi's Stadium immediately notice wider, open concourses that look back into the lower bowl so fans don't miss a minute of the action while waiting for food. A significant increase in the number of points of sale for concessions and merchandise and in the number of restrooms was done to limit congestion. From their seats, and visitors can marvel at more than 19,000 square-feet of video board space. Those who visit the NRG Solar Terrace on the roof of the stadium's suite tower are treated to unbelievable views, while being shaded by 49 solar panel arrays that helped make the venue the first stadium home to an NFL team to open with LEED Gold certification. Levi's Stadium is also the first home of a NFL team to earn dual LEED Gold certifications, achieving its second distinction for operations and maintenance of an existing building in 2016.

Levi's Stadium features three signature locations - The 49ers Museum, Michael Mina's Bourbon Steak and Bourbon Pub restaurants, and the 49ers Team Store. Packaged with the venue's special events programs, these elements make Levi's Stadium a year-round destination.

Levi's Stadium garnered international recognition by receiving the prestigious honor of Sports Business Journal's 2015 Sports Facility of the Year and the 2015 Sports Venue of the Year at the StadiumBusiness Awards in Barcelona, Spain. The venue has also received several recognitions from the sustainability industry - including the 2017 StadiumBusiness Environmental Award - for its environmentally friendly design and operations plan, both of which were mandated by the York family.

MAKING A DIFFERENCE IN THE LIVES OF OTHERS

Under the leadership of Denise and John, 49ers Community Impact and the 49ers Foundation are recognized among the most impactful in all of professional sports. The 49ers were named the 2017 ESPN Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year and the 2017 Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. The 49ers were also previously recognized as Beyond Sport's 2015 Sport Team of the Year for Outstanding Philanthropic Sports Organization and the 2013 winner of the prestigious Robert Wood Johnson Foundation Steve Patterson Award for Sports Philanthropy.

For the past 29 years, the 49ers Foundation has educated and empowered Bay Area youth through a host of innovative, community-based strategies, including direct programming and supporting the 49ers Academy, Fresh Lifelines for Youth, City Year of San Jose, and Tipping Point. The 49ers Foundation has distributed over $50 million back into the community. The York family believes that, if a child can learn to learn, they will continue to educate themselves for the rest of their lives.

In 2020, Denise and John's impact on Bay Area youth reached another milestone. This year's graduating class is the first cohort to complete the SLI program from start to finish, with 100 percent of the senior class graduating in May and heading off to four-year universities. to four-year universities. Many of the students intend on pursuing STEM-related degrees, achieving the York's goal to create educational opportunities for youth to pursue their passions. The SLI program has also garnered several awards including the 2019 California School Board Association's highest honor, the Golden Bell award for Expanded Learning and Engagement.

Football has been in the York family for over 40 years and 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank, a direct service program of the 49ers Foundation, is the evolution of the family's continuing efforts to promote health and wellness through the game of football. 49ers PREP is more than just football, it's the 49ers Foundation's boots-on-the-ground approach to serving Bay Area youth through sport. The direct impact of 49ers PREP can be seen in the over 100,000 participants who have engaged in their free in-school programming since 2014. 49ers PREP offers more than 200 non-contact, co-ed football camps, clinics and events to kids of all ages, teaching the importance of health and wellness. 49ers PREP additionally launched a free flag football program for girls and boys ahead of the 2018 season. As 2020 forced business to go virtual, 49ers PREP shifted their X's and O's to a virtual playing field. Online 49ers PREP Flag Football Certification Courses were created to help leagues stay up to date on safety guidelines. To date, over 300 coaches, referees and league commissioners have participated in the program. Furthermore, the team developed a novel Virtual Fitness Program to help young people stay active and fit during the pandemic, which has impacted over 69,000 Bay Area youth. The goal set forth by the York family - unaltered by the pandemic - is to continue to teach more children the importance of teamwork, goal-setting and how to live a healthy lifestyle in a fun, safe and educational environment.

In recognition of their community involvement, Denise and John have been honored with a number of accolades including the Children Discovery Museum's Legacy for Children Award, City Year's Service Leadership Award, Silicon Valley Exemplary Community Leadership Award by Silicon Valley FACES, Outstanding Corporate Philanthropy Award at the Catholic Charities/Catholic Youth Organization's Loaves and Fishes Dinner, and annual inclusion on the Top Corporate Philanthropists list for the San Jose/Silicon Valley Business Journal.

Through the York's family foundation, an excess of $3 million over the past three years has been donated to support programs under the broad categories of Education and Literacy, Religious (multi-denominational), Underprivileged, Healthcare, Elderly, Diversity (including ethnic, LGBTQ+, gender and others).

Within the 49ers Foundation's direct programming, 49ers EDU is a direct reflection of the York family's passion and commitment to providing and improving educational opportunities for young people in the Bay Area. The program provides myriad opportunities to engage learners, teachers and families in standards-aligned and community-building educational programming-all free of charge. In 2014, the 49ers were among the first professional sports organizations to develop and deliver STEAM learning concepts for youth with the launch of the Denise De-Bartolo York Education Center at Levi's Stadium, and the corresponding field trip program that welcomes students through its doors. When operating, the STEAM Field Trip program offers free on-site STEAM education programming for students in grades K-8 by integrating innovative concepts that support classroom learning in the community and beyond. In response to the COVID-19 pandemic, 49ers EDU unveiled several new virtual offerings including the 49ers EDU Digital Playbook (in English and Spanish), the Digital Playbook Review Series, and the Virtual Lesson Series. To date, 49ers EDU virtual offerings have impacted nearly 55,000 students across 96 school districts.

Since its inception, 49ers EDU has engaged more than 300,000 students in STEAM conversations through its standards-aligned field trip program - at no cost. The mission of 49ers EDU is simple: to show students and teachers in kindergarten through eighth grade that education can go beyond textbooks and traditional lessons, and to light a fire for young people for STEAM concepts, so they have a stronger proclivity to pursue these subjects throughout their education. Fortified with a team of dedicated educators, 49ers EDU teaches students the principles of STEAM through something they love -- football. The program also hosts a professional development program for teachers and has a family learning series that brings parents and kids together to explore STEAM. In addition to welcoming students and educators to Levi's Stadium, the 49ers EDU team developed the Virtual Lesson Series, where on-staff educators virtually visit real classrooms to lead a STEAM lesson. This program was designed in response to the COVID-19 pandemic and effectively brings the Levi's Stadium field trip experience directly to classrooms across the state.

The ongoing commitment to promote education is also demonstrated in the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI), a collaborative education venture in cooperation with Chevron, the Santa Clara Unified School District and the Silicon Valley Education Foundation funded by the 49ers Foundation. The SLI program provides over 300 hours of rigorous STEM curriculum to cohorts of 60 high-achieving 7th through 12th graders each year from Cabrillo Middle School and Santa Clara High School. Each student selected into SLI gains access to the six-year program, which is meant to strengthen students STEM related skills to prepare them for eventual entry to top-tier colleges. In fall 2016, the program expanded to Santa Clara High School (SCHS) and now serves over 360 students from 7th through 12th grade.

Their passion for community involvement extends beyond the Bay Area as well. John has been honored with Loyola University's Stritch Medal – the highest honor awarded by the school – for his ongoing contributions to his alma mater. The couple was honored with the Youngstown Hearing and Speech Center's Great Communicators Award in recognition of their philanthropic leadership. They continue to support the Boys and Girls Club of Youngstown, Making Kids Count and the Mahoning Valley United Way, while also being intimately involved with the Edward J. DeBartolo Memorial Scholarship Foundation, which awards college scholarships to deserving Youngstown area high school seniors.

Denise continues to provide mentoring and tuition assistance for at-risk youth throughout all levels of education. This past year, along with her usual contribution, Denise "adopted" Williamson Elementary School in Youngstown through the United Way Success after Six program, and her donation sponsored the after school program. She also works with the local food bank and supports Rescue Mission, Akron Children's Hospital Mahoning Valley, Easterseals, Beatitude House, Youngstown Neighborhood Development, Angels for Animals, YWCA Scholarship Program, Women in Entrepreneurship Program at Youngstown Business Incubator and made a substantial contribution to the new Youngstown State University Veteran's Resource Center. Over the last few years, and again this year, Denise has been the sponsor of the Ohio Nonviolence Week in conjunction with the Simeon Booker Courage Award. Denise is also passionate about cancer-related causes, including The Serenity Garden at the Joanie Abdu Comprehensive Breast Care Center.

Through the guidance and leadership of Denise and John, the 49ers organization has been highly regarded for its corporate philanthropy. In 2019, players volunteered 900 hours of their time across 412 events, serving 136 organizations that benefited over 6,000 youth. In addition to players, 49ers staff and family donated over 2,000 hours to better their surrounding communities.

PUTTING FAMILY FIRST

Though Denise and John have accomplished much in their professional careers, they first define themselves as husband, wife, and parents.

Their eldest son, Jed, now carries on the family's legacy -- begun by his grandfather Edward J. DeBartolo Sr., his Uncle Eddie DeBartolo Jr., and his parents -- by serving as CEO of the 49ers. Their twin daughters, Jenna and Mara, have worked in the Napa Valley wine industry for several years and are active participants with the 49ers Community Impact efforts. Their son, Tony, was an entrepreneur whose true passion lied in philanthropy, which led him to support a number of non-profit efforts and work closely with incarcerated youth. The York children share their parents' passion for community service and are very active in the 49ers Foundation. Denise and John, have two grandchildren, Jaxon and Brixton, the sons of Jed and his wife, Danielle.

17TH NFL SEASON × 17TH WITH 49ERS

BUILDING A CHAMPIONSHIP TEAM

As chief executive officer of the San Francisco 49ers, Jed York oversees all aspects of the organization. Now in his 17th year with the team and 12th as CEO, York has been a driving force behind the 49ers success on and off the field during that time. York recognizes and shares the ongoing passion of the team's faithful fans.

During York's tenure, the team has experienced great success having won three NFC West Division titles (2011-12 & 2019), advanced to four NFC Championship Games (2011-13 & 2019) and two Super Bowls (Super Bowl XLVII & Super Bowl LIV). His strong leadership was also instrumental in providing the team and its fans a state-of-the-art new home. On April 19, 2012, the Santa Clara Stadium Authority broke ground on Levi's Stadium and enlisted the 49ers to manage the construction process, which achieved a ribbon cutting just two years later.

Designed to set a new standard for the stadium experience, Levi's Stadium has become known as one of the most iconic sports and entertainment venues in the world. The building has garnered international acclaim having been named 2015 Sports Venue of the Year by the Sports Business Journal and Venue of the Year at the 2015 StadiumBusiness Awards in Barcelona, Spain. Leveraging technology and sustainability, Levi's Stadium has also generated international acclaim for its environmental responsibility. For its green innovation – inclusive of being the first NFL stadium to twice be LEED certified – Levi's Stadium was named the 2016 Green Sports Alliance Environmental NFL Innovators of the Year and the 2017 StadiumBusiness Awards Environmental Stadium of the Year.

In its first seven years of operation, Levi's Stadium has already successfully hosted an NFC Championship game, Super Bowl 50, WrestleMania 31, the Copa America Centenario and CONCA-CAF Gold Cup, the 2015 NHL Stadium Series, the International Championship Cup featuring soccer powers such as Manchester United and FC Barcelona, multiple Pac-12 Football Championship Games, and stadium concert tours headlined by Beyoncé and U2. The venue also hosted the 2019 College Football Playoff National Championship Game.

RECOGNIZING THE 49ERS FAITHFUL

A 49ers fan since birth, York recognizes that the success of the 49ers hinges on the team's faithful fans, and he is committed to honoring them for their passion and enthusiasm. Most recently, York recognized the unique opportunities Levi's Stadium presented the team and its fans, and he directed the organization to capitalize.

YORK'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- During his tenure, the 49ers have won three NFC West Division titles (2011-12 & 2019), advanced to four NFC Championship Games (2011-13 & 2019) and two Super Bowls (Super Bowl XLVII & Super Bowl LIV).

From the time Levi's Stadium was just a concept, creating the ultimate game day experience for 49ers fans was at the core of the York family's vision. The unique approach taken to designing the venue and bringing that vision to life incorporated one of the Bay Area's most notable natural resources – innovative technology. As York has repeatedly stated, Levi's Stadium may not be the biggest stadium, but it will be the smartest.

With technology woven into its backbone, the building not only allows visitors to customize their own individual experience through the use of the Levi's Stadium App, but it is also able to seamlessly evolve throughout the decades to come. In addition to groundbreaking design elements that bring fans closer to the game, the venue is a showcase for the region's sustainable efforts and world-class wine and cuisine. Fans have also come to recognize Levi's Stadium as a year-round destination that features a restaurant headlined by an award-winning chef and a museum dedicated to honoring the team's storied history, while also using football as a means to educate Bay Area youth.

Under York's leadership, the team established the Edward J. De-Bartolo, Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame in 2009, to commemorate the significant accomplishments of some of the team's biggest stars and key contributors. Named for his grandfather and the beloved patriarch of the 49ers, the Hall of Fame automatically inducted those 49ers greats that have either had their jersey numbers retired by the team or have been inducted into the Pro Football Hall of Fame. York, shortly thereafter, announced the Hall of Fame's inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr., who was enshrined during the 2009 season. The 49ers Hall of Fame now has a home inside the 49ers Museum at Levi's Stadium.

Also located inside the 49ers Museum is the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center, which provides learning platforms that connect, inspire and engage 60,000 K-8 Santa Clara and greater Bay Area students annually. Featuring content-rich lessons in science, technology, engineering, art and mathematics, the highly interactive center promotes physical activity and valuable life skills. Since the program's inception in 2014, the program has provided trajectory and mindset-changing experiences to more than 300,000 participants.

CARRYING ON THE FAMILY'S LEGACY

York's roots with the 49ers run deep. He is the oldest child of Denise and John York, the co-chairmen of the team. York's uncle and godfather, Eddie DeBartolo, also known to fans as "Mr. D", has long served as a mentor.

York began his career as a financial analyst at Guggenheim Partners, a diversified financial services firm. He worked in the firm's New York office in several areas, including private wealth management, hedge funds risk analysis, and collateralized debt obligations. York currently serves on three key committees, Stadium, Media O&O (NFL's owned and operated media businesses) as well as Fan Engagement and Major Events, assigned to address facets of National Football League business.

Born and raised in Youngstown, OH, York was a student athlete at Cardinal Mooney High School where he was captain of the baseball team as well as student body president. After high school, York decided to carry on a family tradition by attending the University of Notre Dame, where he earned a degree in both finance and history. York was a member of Phi Alpha Theta, the National History Honors Society.

York credits his parents, his uncle Eddie, and his grandfather Edward DeBartolo, Sr. as being positive role models and for teaching him character values such as integrity, a strong work ethic, and respect for others. He is pleased to carry on his family's commitment to community by serving as a board member at Tipping Point Community, Chegg, Dignity Health Foundation, Bay Area Council, Silicon Valley Leadership Group, Operation HOPE, as well as the University of Notre Dame Advisory Council.

Besides his tremendous passion for the 49ers, York enjoys traveling, fishing, and playing cards, which he learned from his grandfather.

Jed lives in the Bay Area with his wife, Danielle, and two sons, Jaxon and Brixton.

JOHN LYNCH

GENERAL MANAGER

20TH NFL SEASON (15 PLAYING/5 FRONT OFFICE) * 5TH WITH 49ERS

One of the most respected players to ever play the game of football, and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2021, John Lynch is in his fifth season as the team's General Manager following a 15-year playing career and more than eight seasons as an NFL analyst. In August of 2020, Lynch signed a multi-year contract extension with the 49ers.

Since coming to San Francisco, Lynch has been vigilant in seeking and acquiring the players that embody the team's culture on the field and in the community. While working hand-in-hand with head coach Kyle Shanahan and the coaching staff, Lynch and his personnel staff continue to add players through all available avenues. Following a 13-3 regular season record and a trip to Super Bowl LIV, Lynch was named the 2019 Executive of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after his third season as the team's general manager.

Lynch and the 49ers, along with the entire NFL, went into the 2021 offseason facing a new challenge with a reduced salary cap. San Francisco navigated the adjustment and retained core players who played vital roles for the team. The team was able to re-sign All-Pro T Trent Williams to six-year extension and Pro Bowl FB Kyle Juszczyk to a five-year deal, while also re-signing key pieces of their defense with DL D.J. Jones, CB Emmanuel Moseley, S Jaquiski Tartt, CB Jason Verrett and CB K'Waun Williams. Additionally, the team was able to sign All-Pro C Alex Mack, who is a member of 2010's All-Decade Team, along with DL Samson Ebukam. The 49ers also acquired the number three overall pick in the 2021 NFL Draft from the Miami Dolphins, which was used to select QB Trey Lance.

In 2020, San Francisco signed TE George Kittle to a five-year extension and re-signed a pair of key pieces of their defense in DL Arik Armstead and DB Jimmie Ward. Lynch and his staff then addressed the departures of key veterans, with the selection of first-round draft choices, DT Javon Kinlaw and WR Brandon Aiyuk, and the acquisition of All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection, Trent Williams, in a draft-day trade with Washington. That season, Lynch and the 49ers leadership steered their way through the COVID-19 pandemic, a situation that included the relocation of the team's football operations to Arizona for the final month of the season.

Following the 2018 season, Lynch continued to improve the 49ers roster through trades, free agency and the 2019 NFL Draft. The offseason started with the 49ers acquiring DL Dee Ford via trade and signing him to a five-year contract followed by the signing of free agent LB Kwon Alexander. The 49ers added eight players to the roster during the 2019 NFL Draft, including DL Nick Bosa with the second overall selection, who went on to be named the 2019 AP NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. Lynch continued to add to the roster during the season as the 49ers acquired WR Emmanuel Sanders via trade, a move that proved integral to the team winning the NFC Championship.

In 2018, Lynch bolstered the 49ers offensive line with the additions of C Weston Richburg through free agency and T Mike Mc-Glinchey in the first round of the 2018 NFL Draft. Richburg went on to start 15 games at center while McGlinchey started all 16 games at right tackle and earned All-Rookie Team honors from the Pro Football Writers of America and ESPN. San Francisco also selected LB Fred Warner in the third round of that year's draft. Warner would later become AP First-Team All-Pro and earn his first selection to the Pro Bowl following the 2020 season.

In his first season with San Francisco, Lynch brought in several key players through free agency, including K Robbie Gould and FB Kyle Juszczyk, who impacted the team immediately. Gould led the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and a career-high 145 points and Juszczyk was selected to the Pro Bowl. That year's NFL Draft saw San Francisco select TE George Kittle in the fifth round, as Kittle has since earned First-Team All-Pro honors (2019), been selected to two Pro Bowls (2019-20) and set the then-NFL record for the most receiving yards by a tight end at the time with 1,377 in 2018.

Garoppolo, who was traded to San Francisco on October 30, 2017, started the final five games of the season and posted a 5-0 record while setting the franchise record for most passing yards in the first five starts with the team (1,542 yards). Lynch joined the 49ers in February of 2017 after serving as a color analyst for FOX Sports from 2009-16. In his final season of 2016 with FOX, he manned the number two broadcast crew alongside play-by-play announcer Kevin Burkhardt.

Prior to his time at FOX, Lynch constructed one of the all-time great NFL careers while with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1993-2003) and the Denver Broncos (2004-07). He was a Buccaneers team captain as the squad achieved the crown jewel of team sports, a victory in Super Bowl XXXVII, and has been inducted into the Ring of Honor in both Tampa Bay and Denver.

Lynch attended Stanford University where he excelled in both football and baseball. On the football field, he earned Second-Team All-American and First-Team All-Pac-10 Conference honors as a senior, while playing for Hall of Fame head coach Bill Walsh. Lynch was later selected in the third round (82nd overall) of the 1993 NFL Draft by Tampa Bay. Following his career on the diamond for the Cardinal, he was selected in the second round (66th overall) of the 1992 Major League Baseball Draft by the Florida Marlins.

In addition to his stellar play on the field, Lynch is also a pillar of the community. He and his wife, Linda, formed the John Lynch Foundation, which is committed to inspiring young people to become leaders through scholarship, sport participation and community involvement. The Foundation is committed to developing leaders by encouraging dreams, providing programs that assist and motivate, and recognizing achievement and excellence.

SALUTE TO SERVICE AWARD NOMINEE

O SERVICE

One of the most respected players to ever play the game of football, and a member of the Pro Football Hall of Fame's Class of 2021, San Francisco 49ers General Manager John Lynch has a longstanding appreciation for the United States military.

As someone whose grandfather and great uncle volunteered for the Army the day after the deadly attacks on Pearl Harbor in December 1941, Lynch has the utmost respect for our military service men and women and has committed time and resources towards supporting the United States Armed Forces for decades.

Since 1998, Lynch has frequented various Air Force bases and military hospitals to personally thank those serving in the military, including MacDill Air Force Base in Tampa, FL, Walter Reed Hospital in Bethesda, MD, and various visits to Fort Carson and Peterson Air Force Base in Colorado. In 2002, the John Lynch Foundation hosted the 'Salute the Stars & Stripes' fundraiser honoring then United States Army Commander of U.S. Central Command Tommy Franks.

"Through my foundation, we've been involved in military appreciation for a long, long time," said Lynch. "Military appreciation is so important to me, because we understand that the unbelievable freedoms, ideals and realities that make America – in my mind – the greatest country in the world are given to us because a lot of people sacrificed for them. To me, no one does so more than the military."

During his last season playing in the NFL (2007), Lynch hosted troops from Buckley Air Force Base (Aurora, CO) during the Denver Broncos training camp at Dove Valley. He visited with and shared a meal with military personnel who had either recently returned from serving in Iraq or were preparing for overseas deployment.

Lynch's military appreciation continues to this day. Every year since 2011, he has hosted military families at the annual Lynch Christmas Party in Colorado and during his inaugural training camp as 49ers general manager, Lynch hosted service men and women during the team's Military Appreciation Day.

Using the Bay Area as inspiration, the club focused on bringing technology, sustainability, and culture to the stadium experience. His leadership was critical during the club's transition from Candlestick Park to Levi's Stadium, as he set the vision and hired many of the current executive team members. He also played a critical role on the small team that founded and incubated VenueNext, a technology company that is setting new standards for the live event experience.

Leeds United completed its 16-year climb back to the top level of English soccer in 2020, earning automatic promotion back to the Premier League by winning the Championship outright. The club fell just shy of promotion in 2019, the first year of 49ers Enterprises' involvement with Leeds United, advancing to the Championship playoff semi-final match.

Marathe was named the Chairman of USA Cricket in October 2018 and moved quickly to ensure USA Cricket earned recognition by the International Cricket Council (ICC) as the organization's 105th member and develop a world-class T2O professional cricket league in the United States.

Marathe is also the co-chair of the NFL's Future of Football committee.

A native of Saratoga, CA, Marathe's passion for the 49ers was instilled at a very young age. As an avid Bay Area sports fan, he has rarely missed any 49ers games since he was six years old. Marathe's Bay Area roots run deep, having received his bachelor's degree with high honors from the Haas School of Business at the University of California-Berkeley and his MBA from Stanford University's Graduate School of Business.

TECHNOLOGY

Levi's® Stadium is a showcase for innovation in the Silicon Valley through partnerships with local, national and international technology providers that help deliver world-class Wi-Fi capability, mobile connectivity, IPTV, digital displays, HD scoreboard and video displays, and paperless ticketing.

- Levi's® Stadium's innovation extends all the way to its own app. The 49ers App is the best way to access, manage and scan your tickets and parking passes. Guests can easily transfer tickets to friends and family with a few taps. You can also watch live streaming games (in market and Primetime games only) and access exclusive content, breaking news, and interactive fan experiences.
- XFINITY by Comcast provides free Wi-Fi to guests throughout the stadium. When a fan is in their seat, they are never too far from a Wi-Fi signal thanks to the venue's ground-breaking infrastructure of Internet access points strategically positioned beneath seats throughout the seating bowl — one access point for every 100 seats.

NETWORK INFRASTRUCTURE

- Over 400 miles of data cable connects the stadium, including 70 miles of cable to support Wi-Fi.
- More than 12,000 physical network ports have been installed.
- Levi's® Stadium features a backbone of 40Gb/s of available Internet bandwidth, easily scalable to event attendance, which is four times greater than the standard for NFL stadiums recommended by the National Football League for 2017.
- The stadium contains more than 1,300 Wi-Fi access-points supporting 2.4 and 5GHz channels and the most current Wireless standards including 802.11ac; Wi-Fi is accessible in every location and free to all.

IN-STADIUM "BROADCAST"

- The in-stadium "Broadcast" rivals that of a Network TV broadcast, featuring 19 stadium cameras (seven operated cameras, seven PTZ cameras and five 8K cameras). The stadium has the ability to share camera feeds with the broadcasting TV network. At least six different replay angles can be viewed at any given time. The game day production team consists of 50-plus people.
- In 2020, the 49ers and Levi's® Stadium unveiled the first-ever 8K video replay system presented by Foxconn Industrial Internet (Fii). Thanks to five 8K cameras (capturing 120 frames per second) positioned around the stadium, the incomparable new replay system provides views of all goal lines and sidelines that can be zoomed in on without pixilation or motion blur. A true technological feat, the 49ers new video replay system is able to ingest the highest amounts of data for any existing stadium to produce video in 8K. This data is sent to the Levi's® Stadium scoreboard control room, the hub of the system, where the gameday production team is able to route and distribute the signals to different areas of the stadium. Most importantly, those areas include the two 200x48 foot video boards which can make even the smallest on-field details crystal clear.
- The stadium is equipped with two HD 13 video boards at the North and South ends of the stadium that measure 200 feet by 48 feet, producing more than 19,000 square feet of viewing space. They are among the largest in the NFL. The boards also feature tremendously sharp, cutting-edge LEDs. The boards can be sectioned and layered in order to show multiple pieces of content simultaneously. The result is producing two shows simultaneously, an A show and a B show, to maximize fan engagement.
- 2200 4K screens are connected to the stadium's IPTV system, which allows for incredible flexibility and customization throughout the venue. Content includes menu boards, game broadcasts, statistics and other important information as deemed necessary.

SUSTAINABILITY

In August 2014, Levi's® Stadium became the first professional football stadium to open with LEED Gold Certification for New Construction, the recognized standard for measuring sustainability for design and construction. Less than two years later in July 2016, Levi's® Stadium continued to set benchmarks as the leading sports venue in sustainability by achieving LEED Gold Certification for Operations and Maintenance of an Existing building – making it the first-ever NFL stadium to be LEED Gold certified under the two respective rating systems.

The stadium is designed to reduce energy demand and generate more electricity annually, via on-site photovoltaic (PV) systems, than is consumed during the 10 scheduled 49ers games each season.

SUSTAINABLE DESIGN ELEMENTS

- NRG, the exclusive sustainable power provider of the San Francisco 49ers and Levi's® Stadium, installed a number of state-of-the-art solar elements that account for 1,162 SunPower photovoltaic panels throughout the venue.
- The NRG Solar Terrace, the venue's 27,000-square-foot "green roof," is located atop the stadium's SAP Tower which houses a majority of the venue's 173 suites. This living roof features 16 species of vegetation native to the Bay Area to lower the building's cooling and heating needs by regulating ambient temperatures in SAP Tower.
- In 2016 Levi's® Stadium partnered with Farmscape California's largest urban farming company to bring the first-ever rooftop farm to an NFL stadium: The Faithful Farm. The nearly 9,000 sq. ft. rooftop farm located on the NRG Solar Terrace supports nearly 40 rotational crops including tomatoes, summer squash, peppers, eggplants herbs and more generating an annual yield of more than 7,500 pounds, all of which are harvested and used for dishes served at Levi's® Stadium. Excess produce from the Faithful Farm also contributes to the stadium's humanitarian efforts with Hunger at Home and the Salvation Army, helping to provide healthy, vegetable-based dishes to individuals in need.
- Electrical vehicle charging stations (NRG EV Charging Stations) are located on the west side of the stadium to power maintenance and operations electrical vehicles year-round. NRG is currently building the nation's first comprehensive, privately funded electric vehicle charging network and the charging stations are available to Levi's® Stadium guests on event days.
- The playing field is surrounded by a 23,000-square-foot artificial turf track that reduces watering needs by approximately 20 percent and reduces the amount of natural grass needed for each field resurfacing.
- The stadium's sustainable initiatives also include public transit access (Caltrain, ACE & Capitol Corridor - VTA, Amtrak), convenient bicycle parking and a walking path from the San Tomas Creek Trail.
- Construction materials utilized contained more than 40 percent recycled content overall, based on cost. More than 75 percent of construction waste was recycled and diverted from landfills.
- Three SunPower solar array-covered bridges, the NRG Energy Bridges, are the first of their kind in the NFL.

SUSTAINABLE STADIUM OPERATIONS PROGRAMS

- The Solid Waste Management Reduction Program is a comprehensive waste diversion program that is striving for netzero landfill. All garbage, recycling and compostable materials from inside the venue and the surrounding parking areas are sorted on-site and placed into compactors to be processed.
- The Building Management System allows the venue to conserve energy usage through HVAC monitoring, lighting distribution and the use of automatic sensors.
- The Preventative Maintenance Program tracks all equipment and systems to enact their manufacturer's recommendations and scheduled preventative plans.
- The Ongoing Commissioning Program ensures that the venue operates under the LEED existing building guidelines for new projects and build outs.
- The Green Cleaning Program ensures that the janitorial contractor, ABM, uses sustainable green certified products for all cleaning essentials and equipment.
- The Sustainable Purchasing Program for ongoing consumables, foodstuffs, durable goods ensures that local, organic, recycled and compostable items will be purchased from yendors.

- The Integrated Pest Management Program uses only green-materials pest eradication products.
- The Indoor Air Quality Management Program consists of perpetual monitoring of indoor air quality based on the LEEDapproved HVAC system.
- The Landscape Management Program includes using native, drought-resistant plants that are hydrated with 100 percent recycled water.
- The Exterior Hardscape Management Program utilizes cleaning equipment when washing the exterior skin of the building and sidewalks. All organic materials collected are composted.
- The Energy Metering & Benchmarking Program utilizes a comprehensive, live-time electrical metering building management system, that allows the stadium to load-shed as needed through the use of motion sensors and pre-programmed computer BMS control.
- The Recycled Water Program is setting a new standard for stadiums. Recycled water accounts for about 85 percent of all water used in Levi's® Stadium and is used for playing field irrigation, the "green roof," flushing toilets, and cooling tower make-up water.

SANTA CLARA COMMUNITY ASSET

Owned by the Santa Clara Stadium Authority, Levi's® Stadium has served as a valuable asset to the Santa Clara community since opening in 2014. The 49ers and its stadium management company take great pride in making the venue accessible to everyone beyond the 68,500 people who are able to attend 49ers games 10-12 times per year. Levi's Stadium annually hosts more than 60,000 Bay Area youth each year for the 49ers EDU STEAM Field Trip program and the venue's community room is available for private event bookings by any Santa Clara organization.

COVID-19 VACCINATION SITE

• Throughout 2020 and into 2021, the COVID-19 pandemic halted the world in its tracks. Professional sports, usual models of perseverance and strength, were also forced to surrender to the deadly virus; however, large sports venues like Levi's® Stadium stepped up in a significant effort to defeat COVID-19. In February 2021, after playing an entire NFL season without a single fan in attendance at Levi's® Stadium, the 49ers partnered with the County of Santa Clara to transform Levi's Stadium into the largest COVID-19 vaccination site in California. The site was operated by the County of Santa Clara Health System, while the Levi's® Stadium Operations team assisted with pulling off the major logistical feat of administering 15,000 shots per day. As of June 2021 when the vaccination site closed, the 49ers and Santa Clara County had administered over 350,000 vaccine shots.

VOTING CENTER

In September 2020, the 49ers announced a multi-lateral partnership to make Levi's® Stadium a voting center for the November 3rd general election in conjunction with the organization's ongoing voter awareness initiatives. The team and stadium joined California Secretary of State Alex Padilla, the Santa Clara County Registrar of Voters, More Than A Vote, and founding partner Levi's® to ensure Santa Clara County residents had a safe and easily accessible location to drop off their ballots, participate in early voting or vote in-person on election day. The operations took place with the SAP Tower atrium while free parking was provided directly outside the stadium. During the early voting period, Santa Clara County totaled over half a million votes, doubling the number of votes cast during the same period in 2016. 49ers Executive Vice President and Stadium General Manager Jim Mercurio - a sports business executive for nearly 30 years - said managing the voting center in 2020 was one of the most fulfilling projects he has ever been a part of.

STADIUM DESIGN

- Featuring over 45,000 seats, Levi's® Stadium's lower bowl is one of the largest in the NFL (roughly two-thirds of stadium capacity). The seating is designed this way to bring the majority of fans closer to the field.
- · The design also eliminates the traditional club mezzanine level, which brings fans sitting in the upper deck lower to the field.
- The location of Levi's® Stadium offers convenience to patrons in both access and parking. There are 13 freeway interchanges located near the stadium's site, which means fans have ample access points to the freeway.
- There are more than 20,000 parking spaces located within a short walking distance from the stadium. Tailgating is an integral part of the game day experience in Santa Clara and Levi's® Stadium provides the most diverse tailgating lineup in the NFL with access to the multifaceted Faithful Mile presented by Global Syn-Turf, the all-inclusive Red Zone Rally at Great America Pavilion and the upscale, members-only Michael Mina Tailgate located within the Bourbon Steak and Bourbon Pub restaurants.

PLAZAS

• The main entry, Intel Plaza at the northwest corner of the stadium, is open to the public year-round and provides direct access to the Levi's® Stadium Fanwalk and the 49ers Team Store presented by Visa. In the northeast corner, Toyota Plaza is the main entry for guests of Michael Mina's Bourbon Steak & Bourbon Pub restaurants and the 49ers Museum presented by Foxconn Industrial Internet. Dignity Health Plaza, featuring the Dignity Health Kids' Zone, at the southwest corner of the stadium is another primary entry gate for fans and media on event days.

CONCOURSE

- Concourses at Levi's® Stadium are among the widest in the NFL and have more than 600 individual concessions points of sale, allowing for easy pedestrian access and creating a more pleasant, less congested atmosphere around vendors. The Upper Concourse Level offers access to all 300 and 400 level seating.
- Concourses also feature open field views so fans can watch the game even while they purchase refreshments and navigate the building.
 Coined in 2018, the term "Levi's® Loud" has become synonymous with the thunderous roar of the Faithful as they create the ultimate

PARTY DECKS

 Expansive party decks featuring both concessions and specialty food and beverage stands are located under each scoreboard. The Pepsi Fan Deck above the north end zone and Bud Light Patio above the south end zone are available year-round and offer a unique stage for many types of events.

STADIUM TRADITIONS

FOG HORNS

- Levi's® Stadium is home to two fog horns. The first is atop the north video board that sounds 90, 60 and 30 minutes prior to team intros, as well as other key moments - prior to kickoff, at the beginning of the second half, and of course on every 49ers touchdown and field goal.
- The second fog horn is located adjacent to the Gold Mine fan supporters section, on the main concourse atop the Dignity Health Plaza, located near Gate C. Since the inaugural season at Levi's® Stadium, the pregame act of energizing the fog horn to start the game has become a beloved tradition. Celebrities, alumni and other notable figures and special guests are invited to take part in sounding the fog horn right before kickoff and to start the second half.

LEVI'S® LOUD

Coined in 2018, the term "Levi's" Loud" has become synonymous with the thunderous roar of the Faithful as they create the ultimate home field advantage at Levi's" Stadium. It's not enough to simply get loud on third downs or big defensive plays, the Faithful get "Levi's" Loud" and take their passion and enthusiasm to another level.

49ERS EDU & THE DENISE DeBARTOLO YORK EDUCATION CENTER

The 49ers EDU program is committed to education and innovation and has served over 300,000 participants at the end of its seventh year in operation, plus thousands more with virtual programming. The program is unique in many ways, but perhaps the most compelling is the fact that the program is funded by the 49ers Foundation and completely free to its participants. This program is not only unrivaled in the NFL, but in all of professional sports. The Denise DeBartolo York Education Center is a four classroom learning venue, including the state-of-the-art Chevron STEM Zone, housed in Levi's® Stadium. In its inaugural year, the 49ers Denise DeBartolo York Education Center consisted of only one innovative and creative space located inside the 49ers Museum. With the STEAM program's popularity, increasing demand, and ownership's commitment to providing accessible STEAM programing, the 49ers expanded their learning venue outside the museum and into the stadium. The additional space can be used as one classroom or be divided into three separate learning venues designed to seamlessly mirror the aesthetic of the original classroom and its intent to drive student-centered learning.

INSPIRE THROUGH EDUCATION

49ers EDU provides learning platforms that connect, inspire, and engage students in grades K-8. Our programming uses football as a platform to:

- Teach content-rich lessons in Science, Technology, Engineering, Art and Mathematics (STEAM)
- · Ingrain invaluable life skills
- · Encourage physical activity

THE CURRICULUM

As one of the first professional sports organizations to dedicate a full in-house STEAM program for K-8 students, the 49ers EDU team is constantly evolving and enhancing students' experiences to reflect the most relevant concepts to support classroom learning. By working closely with a board of local advisory educational partners, all programs have been specially aligned to state Common Core and Next Generation Science standards that promote leading instructional practices. Additionally, the 49ers EDU program curricula:

- Aligns to National & California Common Core and Next Generation Science Standards.
- Engages students in a variety of student-centered and technologyrich learning experiences that can be adapted to various development levels and learning audiences.
- Integrates STEAM learning through project-based activities that transfer student knowledge and skills to real-world problems.
- Aligns to 21st Century Learning Skills (Critical Thinking, Problem-Solving, Communication, Collaboration and Creativity).
- Drives student interest and understanding of STEAM concepts.

KYLE SHANAHAN

HEAD COACH

18TH NFL SEASON × 5TH WITH 49ERS

Kyle Shanahan was named the 20th head coach of the San Francisco 49ers on February 6, 2017. Shanahan signed a multi-year contract extension with the 49ers on June 15, 2020.

The 2020 San Francisco 49ers were led by AP First-Team All-Pro and Pro Bowl selection LB Fred Warner, who registered a team-high 125 tackles to go along with 1.0 sack, two interceptions, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and six passes defensed. San Francisco had two additional players selected to the Pro Bowl in FB Kyle Juszczyk, who set career highs in carries (17), rushing yards (64) and rushing touchdowns (two) while adding 19 receptions for 202 yards and tied his career high with four receiving touchdowns, and T Trent Williams, who started all 14 games in which he appeared after the team acquired him in a trade with The Washington Football Team in the offseason.

San Francisco's offense also featured rookie WR Brandon Aiyuk, who led the team with 60 receptions for 748 yards and five touchdowns to go along with six carries for 77 yards and two touchdowns on the ground. Aiyuk became the first rookie to lead the team in receptions and receiving yards since WR Gene Washington in 1969. His 60 receptions were the second-most by a rookie in franchise history and his 748 receiving yards were the third-most by a rookie in franchise history. WR Kendrick Bourne set career highs in receptions (49) and receiving yards (667), while TE George Kittle added 48 receptions for 634 yards and two touchdowns. RB Jeff Wilson Jr. led the team with career highs in rushing attempts (126), rushing yards (600) and rushing touchdowns (seven), while also adding 13 receptions for 133 yards and three touchdowns. RB Raheem Mostert also notched 104 carries for 521 yards and two touchdowns on the season.

The 49ers defense allowed 314.4 yards per game, ranking fifth in the NFL, while allowing just 207.9 passing yards per game, which ranked fourth in the league. On the ground, the defense allowed 12 rushing touchdowns on the season, which was tied for the fourth-fewest in the NFL. San Francisco's defense also ranked fourth in the NFL in 3rd-down defense (35.5 percent allowed) and three-and-out drives forced (41).

Along with Warner, the 49ers defense featured DL Kerry Hyder Jr., who led the team with a career-high 8.5 sacks while also adding 49 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and one fumble recovery. Rookie DT Javon Kinlaw tallied 33 tackles, 1.5 sacks, three tackles for loss, one interception (returned for a touchdown) and four passes defensed. LB Dre Greenlaw notched 83 tackles, seven tackles for loss, 1.0 sack and one pass defensed. The secondary was led by DB Jimmie Ward, who registered 71 tackles, two forced fumbles and four passes defensed, and CB Jason Verrett, who tallied 60 tackles, two tackles for loss, two interceptions and seven passes defensed.

SHANAHAN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In 2019, Shanahan was named Coach of the Year by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101.
- Shanahan led the 49ers to a nine-win improvement from 2018 to 2019 which was the largest win improvement from one season to the next in franchise history.
- Shanahan was named Assistant Coach of the Year by the Associated Press, Coordinator of Year by Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America in 2016.
- In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), Shanahan's offense has ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained.
- Shanahan was 26 years old when he was named the wide receivers coach of the Houston Texans, becoming the youngest position coach in the NFL at that time. At 28 years old, he was named the offensive coordinator of the Texans and was the youngest coordinator in the NFL.
- Shanahan served as a ball boy for the 49ers when his father, Mike, was the offensive coordinator for the team from 1992-94. Mike helped guide the 49ers to a 49-26 victory in Super Bowl XXIX.

In 2019, he was named Coach of the Year by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101 after leading the 49ers to a 13-3 regular season record, the NFC West Division Title and an appearance in Super Bowl LIV. San Francisco's nine-win improvement from 2018 to 2019 was the largest win improvement from one season to the next in franchise history. The 49ers became one of three teams since the NFL switched to a 12-team playoff format in 1990 to finish 4-12 or worse one season followed by earning the number one seed in its conference the next season (1999 St. Louis Rams & 2016 Dallas Cowboys).

San Francisco's offense in 2019 ranked first in the NFL in rushing touchdowns (23), second in points per game (29.9) and rushing yards per game (144.1) and fourth in total offense (381.1 yards per game). The 49ers finished the regular season with 479 total points, tied for the second-most in franchise history and the most since 1994 (505). San Francisco also had 13 different players with at least one touchdown reception on the season, which tied the NFL record for the most players with a touchdown reception in a single season.

QB Jimmy Garoppolo completed 329 of 476 attempts (69.1 percent) for 3,978 yards and 27 touchdowns with a passer rating of 102.0, earning Comeback Player of the Year honors from Sporting News. His 69.1 completion percentage in 2019 ranked tied for fourth in the NFL (min. 200 attempts) and his 27 passing touchdowns ranked tied for fifth. TE George Kittle's game continued to improve as he was named Associated Press First-Team All-Pro, PFWA All-NFL and All-NFC and was selected as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Kittle led the team with 85 receptions for 1,053 yards and five touchdowns. He became just the fifth player in franchise history, and the first tight end, to have multiple 1,000-yard seasons, joining WR Jerry Rice (12), WR Terrell Owens (5), WR Anguan Boldin (2) and WR John Taylor (2). Rookie WR Deebo Samuel registered 57 receptions for 802 yards and three touchdowns while also adding 14 carries for 159 yards (11.4 average) and three touchdowns. His 57 receptions and 802 receiving yards each ranked second among all rookies in franchise history. The 49ers ground attack featured three players with 500-or-more rushing yards in a single season (RB Raheem Mostert - 772; RB Matt Breida - 623; RB Tevin Coleman - 544) for just the second time in franchise history (1954 - three players).

On the defensive side of the ball, the 49ers ranked second in the NFL in total yards allowed per game (281.8), the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco ranked first in the NFL in passing yards allowed per game (169.2), the fewest passing yards allowed per game in the NFL since 2009 (NYJ - 153.7). It marked the first time San Francisco led the NFL in passing yards allowed per game since 1987 (165.6). The 49ers ranked tied for second in the NFL in third-down percentage allowed (33.3) and tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48.0), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51.0). San Francisco also ranked seventh in both opponent completion percentage (61.3) and opponent quarterback rating (83.0).

Rookie DL Nick Bosa, who played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, 9.0 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed, was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News, PFWA and Pepsi. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl. With DLs Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (9.0), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four-or-more players with 6.5-or-more sacks in 2019. LB Fred Warner started all 16 games and led the team with 118 tackles, while also adding 3.0 sacks, one interception (returned for a touchdown), three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery and nine passes defensed. Rookie LB Dre Greenlaw played in all 16 games (10 starts) and tallied 87 tackles, 1.0 sack, one interception and two passes defensed as he was named to the PFWA All-Rookie team. The secondary was led by CB Richard Sherman, who registered 57 tackles, three interceptions (one returned for a touchdown) and 11 passes defensed and was named Associated Press Second-Team All-Pro.

During his second season at the helm of the 49ers, the 2018 team overcame adversity early in the season after top free agent acquisition RB Jerick McKinnon tore his ACL prior to Week 1, as did starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo in Week 3, putting an end to both of their seasons. Despite the setback, Shanahan, his coaches and the young core of the team stepped up to the challenge and endured the ups and downs of the season. Second-year TE George Kittle set an NFL record for most receiving yards by a tight end in a single season (1,377) while recording the most yards after catch by any player in the NFL since 2010 (870). Kittle earned AP Second-Team All-Pro honors, as well as his first Pro Bowl selection, after his historic season. Following injuries to both Garoppolo and QB C.J. Beathard, undrafted QB Nick Mullens was able to fill the void and excel for San Francisco's offense after being promoted to the active roster from the team's practice squad on September 26. Mullens started the final eight games of the season and accumulated the fourth-most passing yards by a quarterback in his first eight career games since 1970 (Patrick Mahomes, KC; Andrew Luck, Ind.; Cam Newton, Car.). On the defensive side of the ball, DL DeForest Buckner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance after leading the pass rushing unit with a career-high 12.0 sacks, which was the second-most among NFL DTs and the fourth-most by a member of the 49ers since 2000.

In his first season as head coach, Shanahan led the team to a 6-10 record, which was a four-game improvement from the previous year. After a difficult stretch to start the season, the 49ers won six of their final seven games, including victories in five-straight games to close out the season. With six wins on the season, San Francisco set the NFL record for the most wins by a team in NFL history that started 0-9. The 49ers closed the season as one of the hottest teams in the NFL, posting a perfect 5-0 record in December. San Francisco was the only team in the league to have a perfect record over the last month of the regular season as Shanahan became the fourth rookie NFL head coach in franchise history (Buck Shaw - 1950; Frankie Albert - 1956 & George Seifert - 1989), and the first in the NFL since Tony Sparano in 2008, to go undefeated in the month of December.

San Francisco's offense reached new heights under Shanahan in 2017. The 49ers ranked 12th in the NFL, averaging 349.2 yards per game, the highest output by the team since 2012 (361.8 - 11th). The team also finished the year with 3,925 net passing yards, the most in a single season since 2000 (4,239). QB Jimmy Garoppolo, who went 5-0 as a starter and engineered four, second half comeback wins, set the franchise record for most passing yards in his first five starts. QB C.J. Beathard set the single-season franchise record for attempts (224), completions (123) and passing yards (1,430) by a rookie quarterback. The offense also featured WR Marquise Goodwin who set career highs in both receptions (56) and receiving yards (962), as well as Pro Bowl selections for FB Kyle Juszczyk (second) and T Joe Staley (sixth).

Defensively, San Francisco battled through multiple injuries that left several key 49ers on the Injured Reserve List early in the season, but the 49ers defense improved as the season progressed. Over the final six weeks of the season, San Francisco held opponents to an average of 87.7 rushing yards per game while allowing 100 rushing yards just once in that span. The defense was led by DL DeForest Buckner who tallied 61 tackles and tied for second on the team with 3.0 sacks. The defense also had good productivity from rookies, including DL Solomon Thomas, who led the team with 10 tackles for loss while notching 3.0 sacks, and CB Ahkello Witherspoon, who tied for the team lead with two interceptions.

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2017. K Robbie Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers – 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing only 4.2 yards per return.

Prior to being named head coach of the 49ers, Shanahan had 15 seasons of coaching experience at the NFL level, including nine as an offensive coordinator for the Atlanta Falcons (2015-16), Cleveland Browns (2014), Washington (2010-13) and Houston Texans (2008-09). In six of his nine seasons as an offensive coordinator (2008-09, 2012-13 and 2015-16), Shanahan directed an offense that ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in yards gained.

Following the 2016 season, Shanahan was named Associated Press Assistant Coach of the Year, Coordinator of the Year by Sporting News and Assistant Coach of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America after a record-setting performance by the Falcons offense en route to capturing the NFC South division title and an appearance in Super Bowl Ll. Under Shanahan, the 2016 Falcons set franchise records in yards per game (415.8), points scored (540), net passing yards per game (295.3) and average yards per play (6.7).

Atlanta QB Matt Ryan, who was named Associated Press Most Valuable Player, Associated Press Offensive Player of the Year, Most Valuable Player/Offensive Player of the Year by the Pro Football Writers of America and FedEx Air Player of the Year, threw for a single-season franchise record and career-high 4,944 passing yards and 38 touchdowns, ranking second in the NFL in both categories, in 2016. He led the NFL with a passer rating of 117.1 on the season and threw a career-low seven interceptions. WR Julio Jones recorded 83 receptions for 1,409 yards (17.0 average) and six touchdowns in 14 games played. His 1,409 receiving yards were the second-most in the NFL that season. Both Jones and Ryan earned Associated Press First-Team All-Pro and 2017 Pro Bowl honors.

On the ground, Atlanta averaged 120.5 rushing yards per game and tallied 20 rushing touchdowns in 2016. RB Devonta Freeman registered 227 carries for a career-high 1,079 yards and 11 touchdowns, on his way to earning his second-consecutive Pro Bowl appearance.

In Shanahan's first year in Atlanta, the Falcons offense ranked seventh in the NFL, averaging 374.1 yards per game, ranked sixth with a 273.7 passing yards per game average and led the league in time of possession (32:19) in 2015. Julio Jones led the NFL with a career-high 1,871 receiving yards, while notching a career-high 136 receptions to share the League high with the Steelers WR Antonio Brown. Jones' receiving yards marked the second-highest total in a single season in NFL history, behind WR Calvin Johnson's 1,964-yard performance in 2012.

Shanahan joined the Falcons after spending 2014 as offensive coordinator of the Cleveland Browns. That year, his offense averaged 324.6 total yards and 108.0 rushing yards per game. Under Shanahan's direction, RBs Isaiah Crowell and Terrance West combined to rush for 1,280 yards on 319 carries (4.0 average), while WR Andrew Hawkins posted career highs in receptions (63) and receiving yards (824).

Prior to his stint in Cleveland, Shanahan spent four seasons (2010-13) as offensive coordinator of Washington. In 2013, Washington finished ninth in the NFL in total offense (369.7) and fifth in rushing yards per game (135.3). Second-year QB Robert Griffin III threw for 16 touchdowns and a career-high 3,203 passing yards, while WR Pierre Garçon set a franchise record and led the NFL with 113 receptions for a career-high 1,346 yards. RB Alfred Morris also rushed for 1,200-or-more yards for the second-consecutive season (1,275).

Washington won the NFC East division championship in 2012 as they became the first team in NFL history to register 3,400-or-more passing yards (3,422) and 2,700-or-more rushing yards (2,709) in the same season. Washington led the NFL, averaging 169.3 rushing yards per game and finished second in rushing touchdowns (22). Griffin won the 2012 Associated Press Offensive Rookie of the Year Award after setting NFL rookie records in passer rating (102.4), interception percentage (1.27), and rushing yards by a rookie quarterback (815). He completed 258 of his 393 passes (65.6 completion percentage) for 3,200 yards and 20 touchdowns. Fellow rookie Alfred Morris ranked second in the NFL with a single season franchise-record 1,613 yards and 13 touchdowns.

In 2011, Shanahan worked with QB Rex Grossman, who finished with the second-best statistical season of his career, having thrown for 3,151 yards, 16 touchdowns and a career-high 57.9 completion percentage. WR Santana Moss also had his best professional season in 2010 under Shanahan, notching a career-high 93 receptions for 1,115 yards and six touchdowns.

Before joining Washington, Shanahan spent four seasons (2006-09) with the Houston Texans, including the final two as the team's offensive coordinator. In 2009, he worked with QB Matt Schaub, who registered career highs in completions (396), completion percentage (67.9), passing yards (4,770), touchdowns (29) and passer rating (98.6). His completions and passing yard totals led the NFL that season. Additionally, WR Andre Johnson led the NFL in receiving yards in both 2008 (1,575) and 2009 (1,569) and led the NFL with 115 receptions in 2008. TE Owen Daniels registered career highs in both receptions (70) and receiving yards (862) with Houston in 2008. Shanahan spent his first season with Houston (2006) as the team's wide receivers coach and moved to coach the quarterbacks in 2007 prior to his promotion to offensive coordinator in 2008. He broke into the NFL with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers in 2004 where he served as an offensive quality control coach for two seasons (2004-05). His first coaching experience came as a graduate assistant at UCLA in 2003.

Born December 14, 1979, in Minneapolis, MN, Shanahan played wide receiver at Duke University before transferring to the University of Texas in 2000, where he spent two seasons. He and his wife, Mandy, have three children – Stella, Carter and Lexi. Shanahan's father, Mike, who served as the 49ers offensive coordinator from 1992-94, was the head coach of the Denver Broncos (1995-2008) and Washington (2010-13), where he accumulated an overall win total of 178 victories (eight postseason), including victories in Super Bowls XXXII and XXXIII.

RICHARD HIGHTOWER

SPECIAL TEAMS COORDINATOR

15TH NFL SEASON × 6TH WITH 49ERS

Richard Hightower is in his 15th season in the NFL and fifth as the 49ers special teams coordinator. He returned to San Francisco in 2017 after previously serving as assistant special teams coach with the team in 2015.

From 2017-20, the 49ers kicking unit ranked tied for second in the NFL in made field goals (124) and fifth in field goal percentage (88.6). In addition, San Francisco's punt coverage ranked second over that timespan, holding opponent punt returns to an average of 6.2 yards per return (Ind. – 5.7).

In 2020, Hightower helped P Mitch Wishnowsky record the ninthmost punts inside the 20-yard line (25) in the NFL while finishing in the Top 12 in both net (41.6, 12th) and gross (46.9, 11th) average. K Robbie Gould converted 19 of 23 (82.6 pct.) field goal attempts and earned NFC Special Teams Player of the Week honors in Week 12.

In 2019, Hightower led the 49ers special teams unit that had an average starting field position of the 32.1 yard line in 2019, ranking second in the NFL (NE - 32.7). San Francisco also held opponents to an average starting field position of the 24.7 yard line, which ranked seventh. K Robbie Gould connected on 23 of 31 field goal attempts and finished the season with 110 points, marking his third-consecutive 100-or-more point season with the 49ers. He was also named Special Teams Player of the Month for December for the third-consecutive season since joining the 49ers in 2017. Rookie P Mitch Wishnowsky registered a 44.9 punt average which ranked second among all rookies in franchise history (min. 20 punts). WR Richie James Jr. ranked seventh in the NFL in punt return average (8.0) and 10th in kickoff return average (21.4).

Under Hightower's tutelage in 2018, San Francisco's special teams units flourished. K Robbie Gould set the 49ers single-season franchise record for field goal percentage (97.1), as he connected on 33 of 34 field goal attempts and finished the season with 126 points. He also set the franchise record for most consecutive field goals made (33) and finished the season connecting on each of his final 23 attempts. Gould was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December and was a two-time recipient of the NFC Special Teams Player of the Week Award (Week 2 & 15). Rookie WR Richie James Jr. was named All-NFC kick returner by the PFWA as he averaged 25.2 yards per kickoff return, which ranked seventh in the NFL. James Jr. also registered the team's first kickoff return for a touchdown (97 yards) since 2011.

In 2017, the 49ers special teams units excelled under Hightower's guidance. In his first season with the 49ers, veteran K Robbie Gould had a career year, leading the NFL with a career-high 39 made field goals and finishing third in the NFL with a career-high 145 points. Gould's 39 made field goals were the second-most in a single-season in franchise history (K David Akers – 44 made field goals in 2011) and tied for the third-most in a single-season in NFL history. P Bradley Pinion set a career high with a 41.3 net punting average and the punt coverage unit ranked second in the NFL, allowing 4.2 yards per return. The 4.2 opponent punt return average was the eighth-best in the NFL since 2001.

As an assistant special teams coach with Chicago in 2016, the Bears kickoff coverage team finished seventh in the NFL in opponent drive start average. Deonte Thompson led the NFL in kickoff returns with 35 and ranked second with 810 yards. Punt returner Eddie Royal scored on a 65-yard touchdown on Monday Night Football against the Philadelphia Eagles, while Sherrick McManis led the Bears in special teams tackles and finished top 10 in the NFL, recording 13 stops.

In 2015, Hightower first joined San Francisco as an assistant special teams coach. That season, Hightower helped the 49ers punt coverage unit rank eighth in the NFL allowing just 6.4 yards per return, while working with rookie P Bradley Pinion. K Phil Dawson was 10th in the NFL with an 88.9 field goal percentage (tied for the fourth highest percentage of his 17-year career at the time).

Hightower spent the 2014 season working on offense in Cleveland assisting the wide receivers after working as an assistant special teams coach for four seasons in Washington (2010-13). With Washington, he worked under longtime special teams coordinator Danny Smith. Hightower also spent two seasons (2012-13) as the assistant defensive backs coach with Washington. Over his four seasons in Washington, they ranked third in the NFL in kickoff coverage, allowing just 21.2 yards per return, including leading the league in 2010 and 2011. Hightower's coaching on special teams helped Lorenzo Alexander lead the NFL with 21 special teams tackles en route to being named the NFC's special teams player in the Pro Bowl, in 2012. Hightower was also instrumental in the development of first-year kicker Kai Forbath, who broke an NFL record by hitting his first 17 field goal attempts and led the NFL with a 94.4 field goal percentage.

As assistant defensive back coach, Hightower helped the unit rank sixth in the NFL in interceptions (37) and tied for second in the NFL in interception returns for touchdowns (seven) over the two-year span. DeAngelo Hall led the NFL in defensive touchdowns (three). In 2012, Washington ranked first in the NFC in passes defensed and had four returned touchdowns.

From 2006-08, Hightower was on Houston's coaching staff as a coaching assistant (2006-07) before being elevated to special teams assistant (2008). In Houston, he served under widely respected then-special teams coordinator Joe Marciano, who had more than 30 years of experience coaching special teams at the time. In 2008, Houston was 11th in the NFL in kickoff coverage (22.3 yards per return). The 2019 Giants defense was led by LB Markus Golden, who signed with the team as a free agent and registered a team-high 10.0 sacks. Golden became the first Giants player to reach double-digit sacks in a season since 2014. In Bettcher's first year with the Giants in 2018, the defense improved in total yards allowed, rushing yards allowed and passing yards allowed from the year prior. That season, S Landon Collins and LB Olivier Vernon were each selected to the Pro Bowl.

Bettcher joined the Giants after five seasons with the Arizona Cardinals (2013-17), including three as the team's defensive coordinator (2015-17). As defensive coordinator, the Cardinals finished the 2015 season ranked fifth in the NFL in yards per game allowed (321.7), second in 2016 (305.2) and sixth in 2017 (310.9). Arizona also finished those seasons ranked in the top 10 in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game [sixth in 2015 (91.3); ninth in 2016 (94.9); sixth in 2017 (89.6)]. From 2015-17, the Cardinals led the NFL by allowing 3.67 yards per rushing attempt and third in the league by yielding an average of 4.99 yards per play. Arizona also had the fourth-most takeaways (82) and tied for fourth-most defensive touchdowns (11) over that same span.

In 2017, Arizona's defense ranked fourth in the NFL yards per play allowed (4.9) and third in rushing yards per attempt allowed (3.5). The Cardinals led the NFL with 48.0 sacks that year, with OLB Markus Golden (12.5) and Jones (11.0) each reaching double-digit sacks, marking just the third time in team history (1983-84) the Cardinals had multiple players with 10.0-or-more sacks in a season. DT Calais Campbell led the defensive line with 8.0 sacks, marking his franchise-record seventh season with at least 6.0 sacks.

In Bettcher's first season as defensive coordinator in 2015, Arizona ranked seventh in points allowed per game (19.6), as the Cardinals also registered 33 takeaways, ranking second in the NFL. Peterson, Campbell and S Tyrann Mathieu were selected to the Pro Bowl and Peterson and Mathieu were both named Associated Press First-Team All-Pro.

Bettcher was hired by the Cardinals as their outside linebackers coach in 2013. That season, Arizona finished with 47.0 sacks and allowed just 84.4 rushing yards per game, ranking first in the NFL. OLB John Abraham was selected to his fifth Pro Bowl after registering a team-high 11.5 sacks. In 2014, Bettcher worked with LB Alex Okafor, who finished with 8.0 sacks in just 13 games played. Arizona's defense allowed an average of 18.7 points per game, ranking fifth in the NFL and gave up 20-or-fewer points in 13 games. The Cardinals allowed fewer than 300 points (299) in a season for the first time since 1994 (267).

Bettcher first entered the NFL in 2012 as the special assistant to Indianapolis Colts head coach Chuck Pagano and then Bruce Arians, who served as interim head coach for 12 games while Pagano was receiving treatment for leukemia and was later named 2012 NFL Coach of the Year. Bettcher worked with the Colts outside linebackers, as LB Robert Mathis earned his first Pro Bowl selection at that position, and his fifth Pro Bowl selection of his career.

Before joining the Colts, Bettcher spent nine years coaching at the collegiate level. In 2011, he served as linebackers/special teams coach at the University of New Hampshire, where he coached the NCAA FCS leading tackler and 2011 Buck Buchanan Award Winner, given to the FCS National Defensive Player of the Year, LB Matt Evans. Bettcher coached defensive ends and special teams at Ball State University in 2010, where he helped tutor DE Robert Eddins, who led the team in sacks and earned Second-Team Mid-American honors.

Bettcher served as a defensive assistant/defensive graduate assistant at the University of North Carolina from 2007-09, working with linebackers and special teams and helping the 2009 Tar Heels finish sixth in the nation in overall defense. At UNC, Bettcher worked with DL Robert Quinn, who was later drafted 14th overall in the 2011 NFL Draft, to go along with LBs Bruce Carter and Quinton Coples. He went to North Carolina after spending the 2006 season as a defensive graduate assistant at Bowling Green State University, working with the secondary and special teams units.

BRIAN FLEURY

OFFENSIVE QUALITY CONTROL

9TH NFL SEASON × 3RD WITH 49ERS

Brian Fleury is in his third season with the 49ers and second as an offensive quality control coach. He spent the 2019 season as a defensive quality control coach with the team. He joined San Francisco after spending the previous three years with the Miami Dolphins as the team's football research analyst (2016) and director of football research (2017-18).

In his roles with the Dolphins, Fleury worked closely with defensive coordinator Matt Burke to help prepare for upcoming opponents and follow NFL trends. He assisted the team's defensive backs in 2018 after assisting the defensive line in 2017 and linebackers in 2016.

Fleury joined Miami from the Cleveland Browns, where he was the team's outside linebackers coach in 2015 and assistant linebackers coach in 2014. In 2015, OLBs Armonty Bryant (5.5) and Christian Kirksey (3.5) set career highs in sacks. In his first season with the Browns, Fleury helped coach Paul Kruger to the most productive season of his career, as he set career highs in tackles (53), sacks (11.0) and forced fumbles (four). Kruger's 11.0 sacks tied for the fifthmost in team history at the time and were the most by a member of the Browns since 2006. In addition, the Browns finished second in the NFL with 21 interceptions, while also finishing tied for fourth in takeaways (29).

Prior to his time in Cleveland, Fleury spent the 2013 season as a quality control coach for the Buffalo Bills, working with the line-backers. He helped develop rookie LB Kiko Alonso, who registered 159 tackles, four interceptions, 2.0 sacks, four passes defensed, two fumble recoveries and one forced fumble and was named PFWA NFL Defensive Rookie of the Year. The Bills set a franchise record with 57 sacks, the second-most in the NFL in 2013. Buffalo's defense also finished 10th in the NFL in total defense (333.4 yards per game).

Before Buffalo, Fleury spent four seasons (2009-12) at Towson University where he served as the special teams coordinator/defensive backs coach. He helped the team achieve top-10 national rankings in kickoff return yardage (24.28 yards per return) in 2011 and punt return defense (3.46 yards per return) in 2010. Towson won the Colonial Athletic Association (CAA) in 2011 and earned a share of the conference title in 2012.

Fleury was an assistant at Sacred Heart University for four seasons, spending one year (2005) as secondary coach and the following three (2006-08) as defensive coordinator. In 2008, the Pioneers posted an 8-3 record, which ranked as the third-highest win total in the history of the school. Fleury began his coaching career as an intern and graduate assistant at the University of Maryland from 2003-04. In 2003, the Terrapins went 10-3, earned a victory in the Gator Bowl and finished 17th in the nation in the final poll.

Fleury began his collegiate career at Maryland before transferring to Towson, where he played quarterback for four years (1999-2002) and earned a degree in sport management from the school in 2002. He and his wife, Natasha, have one daughter, Nadia.

CHRIS FOERSTER

OFFENSIVE LINE

29TH NFL SEASON × 7TH WITH 49ERS

Chris Foerster is in his fourth season as an offensive line coach with San Francisco. He previously served as the team's offensive line coach from 2008-09 and 2015. Foerster spent the 2020 season as the 49ers assistant offensive line coach after serving as a consultant with the 49ers for two seasons (2018-19).

In 2020, the 49ers offensive line was anchored by All-Pro T Trent Williams, who named to his eighth Pro Bowl, and G Laken Tomlinson, who started all 16 games. The 49ers offense averaged 370.1 yards per game (118.1 rushing yards; 252.1 passing yards) and ranked tied for 10th in the NFL with 19 rushing touchdowns.

Prior to returning to San Francisco, Foerster spent two seasons (2016-17) with the Miami Dolphins as the run game coordinator/offensive line coach (2017) and offensive line coach (2016). In 2016, the offensive line was critical to Miami's four-win turnaround from 2015. After starting the season 1-4, the Dolphins won nine of their final 11 games to earn a playoff berth and their first winning season since 2008. During those 11 games, the team's offensive line helped the Dolphins rank third in the NFL with 132.9 rushing yards per game and tied for third with just 13 sacks allowed.

In 2014, Foerster's unit assisted RB Alfred Morris to reach 1,000 yards for the third consecutive season (1,074) and earned a trip to the 2015 Pro Bowl. His offensive line aided one of the NFL's top rushing attacks during the 2012-13 seasons as well. Washington ran for a league-leading 4,873 yards in that two-season span and was one of only two teams to average at least five yards per carry across those two years (5.01). In 2013, Foerster's unit powered Washington to the fifth-most rushing yards in the league (2,164) and helped the team rush for 2,000 yards in consecutive seasons for the first time since 2005-06. Those seasons led to Pro Bowl honors for T Trent Williams, the first two of his career.

In 2012, Foerster led a unit that helped Washington rush for a team-record 2,709 yards, ranking first in the NFL in that category for the first time since 1933. The team's offensive line was a major part of Washington's first NFC East Championship since 1999, blocking for the team's young backfield that featured rookie QB Robert Griffin III and rookie RB Alfred Morris. Morris set a new single-season team high in rushing yards with 1,613, while Griffin III led all quarterbacks with 815 rushing yards that season.

Foerster helped groom two rookies as starters in 2011, as undrafted free agent T Willie Smith and seventh-round pick G Maurice Hurt started a combined 11 games for Washington in Weeks 9-16. The offensive line featured 10 different starting combinations that season. During the 2010 season, Foerster's offensive line featured four new starters that helped Washington lead the league in receptions of 50-or-more yards (nine).

Prior to joining Washington, Foerster spent two years (2008-09) working with the offensive line of the 49ers. In 2008, he was originally brought on as co-offensive line coach before being named offensive line coach in Week 8 of the season. In 2009, Foerster's unit helped RB Frank Gore rush for 1,120 yards, his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season. Gore set a career high with 10 rushing touchdowns that season and was selected to the Pro Bowl. During his time with San Francisco, he also assisted in the development of perennial Pro Bowl T Joe Staley.

From 2005 to 2007, Foerster was the offensive line coach and assistant head coach for the Baltimore Ravens. Under Foerster, 2013 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee T Jonathan Ogden made the Pro Bowl in all three seasons. In 2007, RB Willis McGahee rushed for 1,207 yards, the second-highest total of his career, and earned a trip to the Pro Bowl. In 2006, the Ravens offense set team records for fewest sacks allowed (17) and most wins in a season (13) with Foerster

Before joining the Ravens, Foerster was the offensive coordinator for the Miami Dolphins (2004), tight ends coach for the Indianapolis Colts (2002-03) and offensive line coach for the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1996-2001). While in Tampa Bay, Foerster helped three players make a combined five Pro Bowl appearances – C Tony Mayberry (1997-99), C Jeff Christy (2000) and G Randall McDaniel (2000). As the assistant offensive line/tight ends coach for the Minnesota Vikings (1993-95), Foerster helped tutor 2009 Pro Football Hall of Fame inductee G Randall McDaniel, who earned Pro Bowl appearances in all three seasons.

Foerster also worked in the collegiate ranks, serving as the offensive line coach for the University of Minnesota (1992), assistant offensive line/special teams coach at Stanford University (1988-91) and offensive line coach for Colorado State University (1983-87). He began his coaching career in 1982 as a graduate assistant at Colorado State. Foerster graduated with a degree in history after a successful playing career with CSU as a center from 1979 to 1982, starting as a walk-on before earning a scholarship as a sophomore.

Foerster and his wife, Michelle, have three children: Kathleen, Jake and Micah.

Hayes-Stoker joined Illinois after two seasons (2014-15) as the wide receivers coach with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers. The 2015 Buccaneers wide receivers were led by second-year player WR Mike Evans. Evans finished the season with 74 receptions for 1,206 yards (16.3 average) and three touchdowns. His 1,206 receiving yards ranked 11th in the NFL and fifth in the NFC that season.

In 2014, Hayes-Stoker coached multiple record-breaking performances from Buccaneers wide receivers. As a rookie, Evans recorded 68 receptions for 1,051 yards and 12 touchdowns. His 12 receiving touchdowns were a franchise record and tied for the fourth-most in the NFL that season, while tying for the third-most by a rookie since the 1970. Evans' 1,051 receiving yards were the second-most ever by a Buccaneers rookie and the ninth-most by a rookie since the merger. He became one of 15 rookies to break the 1,000-yard receiving mark during that time span. WR Vincent Jackson finished the season with a team-high 70 receptions for 1,002 yards and two touchdowns. Evans and Jackson became the first Buccaneers teammates to each have 1,000-or-more receiving yards in the same season.

Prior to his time in Tampa Bay, Hayes-Stoker spent the 2013 season at Florida International University as running backs coach. He first entered the NFL after spending seven seasons under Lovie Smith with the Chicago Bears as a football operations assistant (2006-09), offensive quality control coach (2010-11) and the offensive assistant/wide receivers coach (2012). Hayes-Stoker began his coaching career as an offensive quality control graduate assistant at Texas A&M (2005) after spending 2004 as a recruiting assistant at his alma mater, Texas Christian University.

A native of Arlington, TX, Hayes-Stoker played running back at TCU (1999-2002), where he was a two-time team captain and earned All-American academic honors. He graduated from the school with a bachelor's degree in business administration and a master's degree in education.

KRIS KOCUREK

DEFENSIVE LINE

15TH NFL SEASON (2 PLAYING/13 COACHING) × 3RD WITH 49ERS

Kris Kocurek (KO-SIR-ick) is in his third season as the 49ers defensive line coach. He joined San Francisco after spending the 2018 season as the defensive line coach with the Miami Dolphins.

Kocurek helped the 49ers defense rank fifth in the NFL total yards allowed per game (359.0) and seventh in rush defense (118.9) in 2020. Rookie Javon Kinlaw registered 33 tackles, 1.5 sacks, one interception (which was returned for a touchdown) and four passes defensed. DL Arik Armstead tallied 49 tackles, 3.5 sacks and a career-high three passes defensed, while DL Kerry Hyder Jr. set career highs in tackles (49) and sacks (8.5).

In 2019, Kocurek helped the 49ers defense rank second in the NFL in total yards allowed per game (281.8), the fewest total yards allowed per game by the team since 1997 (250.8). San Francisco also ranked tied for fifth in the NFL in sacks (48.0), the most by the team in a single season since 1998 (51.0). With DLs Arik Armstead (10.0), Nick Bosa (9.0), DeForest Buckner (7.5) and Dee Ford (6.5), the 49ers were the only team in the NFL to have four-or-more players with 6.5-or-more sacks in 2019. Bosa, who played in all 16 games (14 starts) and registered 47 tackles, 9.0 sacks, one interception, one forced fumble, two fumble recoveries and two passes defensed, was named Defensive Rookie of the Year by the Associated Press and the PFWA, and Rookie of the Year by Sporting News, PFWA and Pepsi. He was also named to the PFWA All-Rookie Team and was named a starter in the Pro Bowl.

With the Dolphins, Kocurek coached DE Robert Quinn and DE Cameron Wake who registered 6.5 and 6.0 sacks respectively. Quinn's 6.5 sacks in his first season with Miami were his second-most in a single season since 2015.

Prior to Miami, Kocurek spent nine years with the Detroit Lions, first as the team's assistant defensive line coach (2009), followed by eight seasons as defensive line coach (2010-17). In his first season leading the defensive line, Kocurek played a vital role in DT Ndamukong Suh's Defensive Rookie of the Year award and helped develop him into a three-time AP First-Team All-Pro (2010 & 2013-14) and three-time Pro Bowl (2011 & 2013-14) selection. Suh's 36.0 sacks as a member of the Lions are the most in franchise history among defensive tackles.

While Kocurek was the Lions defensive line coach from 2010-17, Detroit's defensive linemen registered 250.0 sacks, which was the fourth-most by a defensive line in the NFL during that timespan. His defensive linemen also ranked fourth in forced fumbles (57) and ninth in passes defensed (82) over that eight-year period as well.

Under Kocurek's tutelage in 2017, DE Ezekiel Ansah tied for eighth in the NFL with 12.0 sacks. During that same year, DE Anthony Zettel started all 16 games and finished with a career-high 6.5 sacks in his second NFL season, while DT A'Shawn Robinson ranked eighth among NFL interior defensive linemen with 53 tackles and tied for the league lead with six passes defensed.

The 2016 Lions earned an NFC Wild Card berth as Kocurek helped develop undrafted free agent DE Kerry Hyder into the team leader with 8.0 sacks in 16 games played.

In 2015, Ansah set a career high with 14.5 sacks for the Lions. His sack total led the NFC and ranked third in the NFL, as Ansah earned his first Pro Bowl selection and AP Second-Team All-Pro honors. Ansah also forced four fumbles, which was tied for second in the NFL.

In 2014, Kocurek assisted a Lions defense that finished the season ranking first in the NFL in rushing yards allowed per game (69.3). Detroit's 69.3 rushing yards allowed per game was the second-lowest in the NFL over the previous 10 seasons, trailing Pittsburgh's 2010 defense (62.8). The Lions ranked eighth in the NFL with 42.0 sacks that season as Detroit earned an NFC Wild Card berth after an 11-5 finish.

Suh earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors and a Pro Bowl selection in 2013 after ranking second among NFL defensive tackles with six passes defensed to go along with 5.5 sacks. The Lions defense allowed 99.8 rushing yards per game, ranking sixth in the NFL. Ansah led all NFL rookies with a team-high 8.0 sacks.

In 2012, Suh was second among NFL interior defensive linemen with 8.0 sacks and earned AP Second-Team All-Pro honors and his second Pro Bowl selection, while DE Cliff Avril led the team with 9.5 sacks.

The 2011 Lions finished tied for 10th in the NFL with 41.0 sacks. Detroit went 10-6 and earned an NFC Wild Card spot. Suh again earned AP First-Team All-Pro honors as Avril led the team and tied for 11th in the NFL with 11.0 sacks. His sack total was the second-highest of Avril's career in a single season.

Kocurek was promoted to defensive line coach in 2010, where he helped the Lions finish sixth in the NFL with 44.0 sacks, an improvement from 29th in the league (26.0 sacks) the year prior. He worked closely with Detroit's first-round pick, Suh, who led the team and all NFL defensive tackles with 10.0 sacks that season, the most by an NFL rookie interior defensive lineman since 2003, when Minnesota's Kevin Williams registered 10.5. Suh's 10.0 sacks were the most by a Lions defensive tackle since Henry Thomas had 10.5 in 1995. Suh's 66 tackles were fourth on the team and fifth among NFL defensive tackles. He became the first rookie defensive tackle to ever earn AP All-Pro honors and the first rookie defensive lineman to do so since Tennessee's Jevon Kearse in 1999. He was also named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, becoming the sixth defensive tackle to win the honor and first since Miami's Tim Bowens in 1994.

Kocurek originally entered the NFL in 2009 as Detroit's assistant defensive line coach. He helped DT Sammie Hill start as a rookie after being a fourth-round selection from Division II Stillman College. Hill finished the season with 26 tackles and two fumble recoveries in 13 games.

Prior to Detroit, Kocurek served as the defensive line coach at Stephen F. Austin State University (2008), assistant head coach/defensive line coach at West Texas A&M University (2007) and defensive line coach at Texas A&M University-Commerce (2006). At West Texas A&M in 2007, the Buffaloes won the Lone Star Conference and led the league in scoring defense (19.5 points per game). At Texas A&M University-Commerce in 2006, Kocurek helped the team's defense lead the LSC in scoring and total yards allowed. He began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Texas A&M University-Kingsville (2004-05) and a graduate assistant at Texas Tech (2003).

A native of Rockdale, TX, Kocurek was originally drafted in the seventh-round (237th overall) of the 2001 NFL Draft by the Seattle Seahawks as a defensive lineman. Following his release from the Seahawks prior to the 2001 season, he was signed to the Tennessee Titans practice squad and was later promoted to the team's active roster and appeared in one game with Tennessee in 2001 before spending the 2002 season on the Injured Reserve List. Kocurek played collegiately at Texas Tech, where he was a three-time All-Big 12 selection (1998-2000). He was selected team captain and named the team's defensive player of the year as a senior in 2000. He earned his bachelor's degree from Texas Tech and his master's from Texas A&M University-Kingsville. Kocurek and his wife, Amy, have one daughter, Presley.

1ST NFL SEASON × 1ST WITH 49ERS

August Mangin is in his first season as the 49ers special teams quality control coach. He joined the 49ers after spending the previous two seasons (2019-20) as a lead defensive analyst at Louisiana State University.

Last season, LSU's defense was led by freshman CB Eli Ricks who registered a team-high four interceptions to go along with 20 tackles. Senior OLB Andre Anthony also added 5.5 sacks and 24 tackles. In his first season with LSU in 2019, Mangin and the Tigers capped off a memorable season with a 42-25 victory over the University of Clemson to win the CFP National Championship. LSU finished 15-0, as the team allowed an average of 21.9 points per game and just 222.7 passing yards per game.

Mangin went to LSU following one season (2018) as a special teams analyst at the University of Alabama. The Crimson Tide finished the season with a 14-1 record, which included a trip to the College Football Playoff. Alabama averaged 45.6 points per game and allowed just 18.1 points per game on the year.

From 2014-17, Mangin served as the special teams coordinator and a different position coach each season at Northwestern State University, his second stint with the school, having coached as a graduate assistant special teams/tight ends in 2011. Throughout his time with the Demons, Mangin coached special teams players WR Ed Eagan and K Chris Moore. In 2014, Eagan set single-season school records in kickoff returns (45) and kickoff return yardage (1,045) and earned Associated Press Second-Team All-America honors as an all-purpose player and Special Teams Player of the Year honors from the College Sports Network. Eagan also finished his career as Northwestern State's all-time leader in kickoff return yardage (2,125). As a junior in 2014, Moore set school single-season records for field goal attempts (26), made extra points (42) and extra point attempts (43). As a senior in 2015, Moore connected on 16 of 19 field goal attempts and 35 of 37 extra points. He finished his career as Northwestern State's all-time leading scorer (248 points) and set the school record for career field goals (45). Northwestern State's punt coverage unit led the NCAA in punt return defense during Mangin's first season back with the school in 2014, allowing nine punt return yards all season. From 2014-15, the Demons allowed a total of 85 punt return yards.

Prior to joining Northwestern State for the second time, Mangin spent the 2012-13 seasons as a graduate assistant special teams/tight ends coach at LSU under longtime NFL special teams coach Thomas McGaughey. The Tigers saw future NFL Draft choices WR Odell Beckham, Jr. and S Tyrann Mathieu earn All-America honors as returners, with K Drew Alleman being named Second-Team All-SEC in 2012.

A native of Lewisville, TX, Mangin spent five years (2005-09) at LSU as a walk-on fullback. He graduated from LSU with a degree in education (K-12) with a concentration in kinesiology. He later earned his master's degree in sport administration from Northwestern State in 2012.

RICH SCANGARELLO

QUARTERBACKS

7TH NFL SEASON × 3RD WITH 49ERS

Rich Scangarello is in his seventh season in the NFL and third as the 49ers quarterbacks coach. He returns to San Francisco in 2021 after previously serving as the team's quarterbacks coach from 2017-18.

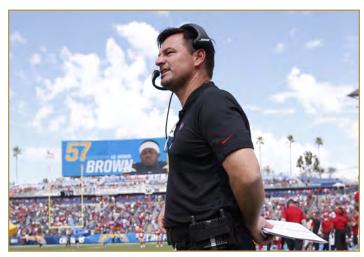

Scangarello spent the 2020 season as a senior offensive assistant with the Philadelphia Eagles. Philadelphia's offense was led by second-year players in WR Greg Ward, who led the Eagles with six touchdown receptions, and RB Miles Sanders, who finished the season with 164 carries for 867 yards and six touchdowns on the ground.

Scangarello went to Philadelphia following one season (2019) with the Denver Broncos as the team's offensive coordinator. Scangarello worked with QB Drew Lock, who completed 100 or 156 passes for 1,020 yards and seven touchdowns as a rookie. He became the seventh rookie quarterback in NFL history to win four of their first five starts. Lock was paired with fellow rookie TE Noah Fant, who finished with the most receptions (40) and receiving yards (562) by a rookie tight end in franchise history. WR Courtland Sutton registered 72 receptions for 1,112 yards and six touchdowns through the air and RB Phillip Lindsay tallied 224 carries for 1,011 yards and seven touchdowns on the ground.

Prior to his time in Denver, Scangarello spent two seasons (2017-18) as the 49ers quarterbacks coach. In 2018, he worked closely with QB Nick Mullens, who saw extended action for the first time in his NFL career. Mullens started all eight games in which he appeared and completed 176 of 274 attempts for 2,277 yards and 13 touchdowns for a QB rating of 90.8. He joined Hall of Famers Fran Tarkenton (1961) and Jim Kelly (1986) as the only players in NFL history to throw for 250-or-more yards, three-or-more touchdowns and zero interceptions in their NFL debut. His 2,277 passing yards in his first eight career games are the 4th-most by a quarterback since 1970.

In his first season with San Francisco in 2017, Scangarello worked with rookie QB C.J. Beathard and mid-season acquisition QB Jimmy Garoppolo, helping both set franchise records. Beathard, who played in seven games (five starts), set the single-season franchise record for attempts (224), completions (123) and passing yards (1,430) by a rookie quarterback. He also set the franchise record for the longest completion by a rookie quarterback on an 83-yard touchdown pass to WR Marquise Goodwin. Garoppolo, who started the last five games of the season, became the first 49ers quarterback since the merger in 1970 to win each of his first five starts with the team and set the franchise record for the most passing yards in his first five starts with the 49ers (1,542). His 1,542 passing yards also ranks fourth among all quarterbacks in their first five starts with a new team since the merger in 1970.

Scangarello spent the 2016 season as the offensive coordinator at Wagner College. He joined Wagner following one season (2015) as an offensive quality control coach with the Atlanta Falcons. In Atlanta, he assisted the offensive line with run-game preparation and coordinated the defensive scout team for the offense.

Before his year with the Falcons, Scangarello spent three seasons (2012-14) as offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at Northern Arizona University. In 2013, the Lumberjacks offense completed 235 of 387 passing attempts (60.7 completion percentage), and finished with 2,425 passing yards and 14 touchdowns.

In 2012, Scangarello worked with QB Cary Grossart at NAU, who finished his career with the top completion percentage in school history at 66.3. He also registered the second-best completion percentage in a single season with 66.7. The Lumberjacks averaged 31.6 points per game that season, finishing tied for 27th in the nation.

Prior to his time at NAU, Scangarello served as the offensive coordinator, assistant head coach and quarterbacks coach two seasons at Millsaps (Jackson, MS) College (2010-11), where he saw QB Garrett Pinciotti earn Second-Team All-SCAC honors in 2011, after throwing for 2,200 yards and 23 touchdowns.

Scangarello originally entered the NFL in 2009 with the Oakland Raiders as an offensive quality control coach. He went to Oakland following four years (2005-08) at UC-Davis, which included one year (2008) as the school's co-offensive coordinator. That season, the Aggies offense ranked 11th in the Football Championship Subdivision (FCS) in total offense, averaging 426.5 yards per game and 28.5 points per game.

He originally joined Davis as passing game coordinator and wide receivers coach, serving in that role from 2004-07. In 2005, he coached All-American WR Tony Kays, who led the NCAA and set a school single-season record with 93 receptions.

Scangarello worked at the University of Idaho in 2000 as an offensive graduate assistant and spent the 2002-03 seasons as the school's quarterbacks coach. He began his coaching career at UC-Davis in 1998 and 1999, working with consecutive consensus Division II All-Americans, Kevin Daft and J.T. O'Sullivan, who both went drafted in the NFL.

A native of Roseville, CA, Scangarello earned a degree in business administration from Sacramento State University in 1996.

ROBERT TURNER JR.

RUNNING BACKS

26TH NFL SEASON × 5TH WITH 49ERS

Robert Turner Jr. is in his fifth season as the 49ers running backs coach after spending the previous two seasons (2015-16) in the same capacity with the Atlanta Falcons. A veteran of 24 NFL seasons, Turner is responsible for overseeing three of the top nine rookie rushing seasons in the NFL since 1970 [Alfred Morris – 1,613 rushing yards in 2012 (fourth); Clinton Portis – 1,508 rushing yards in 2002 (seventh); Mike Anderson – 1,500 rushing yards in 2000 (eighth)].

In 2021, Turner was the recipient of The PFWA's Paul "Dr. Z" Zimmerman Award given for lifetime achievement as an assistant coach in the NFL. The award is named for Zimmerman, who covered the NFL for 29 years as Sports Illustrated's lead pro football writer.

In 2020, the 49ers rushed for 1,889 yards and 19 touchdowns on 437 carries. The 19 rushing touchdowns ranked tied for 10th in the NFL. RB Jeff Wilson Jr. led the team with a career-high 600 rushing yards and seven touchdowns on 126 carries (4.8 avg.). RB Raheem Mostert added 104 carried for 521 yards and two touchdowns. Additionally, FB Kyle Juszczyk tallied 17 carries for 64 yards and two touchdowns on the ground while adding 19 receptions for 202 yards and four touchdowns en route to his fifth-consecutive Pro Bowl selection.

The 2019 San Francisco 49ers led the NFL with 23 rushing touch-downs and ranked second in rushing yards per game (144.1). The 49ers ground attack featured three players with 500-or-more rushing yards in a single season (RB Raheem Mostert – 772; RB Matt Breida – 623; RB Tevin Coleman – 544) for just the second time in franchise history (1954 - three players). In 1954, three of the four members of the "Million Dollar Backfield" had more than 500 rushing yards in Joe Perry (1,049), John Henry Johnson (681) and Hugh McElhenny (515). FB Kyle Juszczyk was selected to the Pro Bowl for the fourth-consecutive season. In the postseason, the 49ers averaged 204.0 rushing yards per game as Mostert led the way with 336 yards and five touchdowns on 36 carries (6.3 average).

In 2018, the 49ers rushed for 1,902 yards and seven touchdowns on 423 carries. The team's 118.9 rushing yards per game ranked 13th in the NFL and seventh in the NFC in 2018. RB Matt Breida led the team with 153 carries for 814 yards (5.3 average) and three touchdowns. His 5.3 average ranked fourth in the NFL in 2018 and was the highest rushing average by a 49ers running back (minimum 100 carries) since 2006 (RB Frank Gore – 5.4 average). Additionally, FB Kyle Juszczyk earned Pro Bowl honors for the third-consecutive season.

In 2017, the 49ers rushed for 1,662 yards and 15 touchdowns on 408 carries. San Francisco ranked tied for seventh in the NFL in both rushing touchdowns (15) and carries of 10-or-more yards (53). FB Kyle Juszczyk was named to the Pro Bowl for the second-consecutive season and first time as a member of the 49ers and rookie RB Matt Breida averaged 4.43 yards per carry, ranking 10th in the NFL (minimum 100 carries).

In 2016, the Falcons ranked fifth in the league in rushing yards per game (120.5) and tied for third in the NFL with 20 rushing touchdowns. RB Devonta Freeman registered 1,079 rushing yards and 13 total touchdowns, the fifth most among running backs, to earn his second consecutive Pro Bowl selection. Freeman also ranked fifth among running backs with 54 receptions for 462 yards. Part of a two-pronged attack, RB Tevin Coleman registered 520 rushing yards, 421 receiving yards and 11 total touchdowns on the year.

In 2015, Freeman earned his first All-Pro and Pro Bowl selections as he was one of seven players to eclipse the 1,000 rushing yard mark (1,056) and tied for the NFL lead with 11 rushing touchdowns. Freeman's 1,634 total yards from scrimmage ranked fifth among all players during the 2015 season.

Prior to Atlanta, Turner spent four years (2010-13) as assistant head coach and running backs coach for Washington. In 2013, Washington ranked fifth in the NFL with 135.3 rushing yards per game and finished with 61 rushes of 10-or-more yards, the fourth most in the league. Morris finished the year ranked fourth in the NFL with 1,275 rushing yards to earn his first career Pro Bowl berth.

In 2012, Washington set a franchise record with 2,709 rushing yards, led the NFL 169.3 rushing yards per game and ranked second in yards per carry (5.22) and rushing touchdowns (22). Turner helped Morris set a franchise record with 1,613 rushing yards, as a rookie. Morris' 1,613 rushing yards were the fourth most by rookie in NFL history (Eric Dickerson – 1,808 yards in 1983; George Roberts – 1,674 yards in 1981; Ezekiel Elliot – 1,631 yards in 2016).

In 2011, Turner oversaw the development of rookie RBs Roy Helu and Evan Royster. Helu finished the year as the team's leading rusher with 640 yards, the second-highest yardage total among rookies that season. In Weeks 12-14, Helu became the first rookie running back in Washington history to post three consecutive 100-yard games. In weeks 16 and 17, Royster rushed for more than 100 yards in each game, making Helu and Royster the first rookie running back tandem in NFL history to each post consecutive 100-yard rushing games in a season.

During his first season in Washington, Turner helped develop RB Ryan Torain into a feature back as he posted career highs in attempts (164), rushing yards (742) and touchdowns (four). Under Turner, Torain ran for 172 yards against Tampa Bay in Week 14, the 10th-highest total in Washington's history.

Turner came to Washington after spending the previous 15 seasons (1995-2009) as the running backs coach of the Denver Broncos, where he was part of teams that earned two Super Bowl championships (Super Bowl XXXII and Super Bowl XXXIII), three AFC West titles (1996, 1998, 2005) and seven playoff berths (1996-98, 2000, 2003-05).

Turner worked with 2017 NFL Hall of Fame inductee RB Terrell Davis, who was named AP Most Valuable Player (1998) and AP Offensive Player of the Year (1996, 1998) while helping lead the Broncos to back-to-back Super Bowl titles. During his 7-year (1995-2001) NFL career, all under Turner's tutelage, Davis rushed for 7,607 yards and 60 touchdowns, while delivering 1,140 rushing yards and 12 touchdowns in only eight playoff games.

Davis' 97.5 rushing yards per game in the regular season is the third-highest total in league history among running backs who recorded rushing attempts in at least 75 games, while his 142.5 rushing yards per game in the postseason is the highest average in league history for running backs who had registered rushing attempts in at least five playoff games.

During his 15 seasons in Denver, the Broncos produced the most rushing yards (32,829) and the most total yards (86,523) in the NFL. Over that span, six different running backs rushed for at least 1,000 yards in a single season, including Davis (four times), Tatum Bell, Reuben Droughns, Clinton Portis (twice), Mike Anderson (twice) and Olandis Gary. Additionally, Turner helped Denver become the only franchise since the inception of the common NFL Draft in 1967 to have two undrafted rookies reach 500 rushing yards in the first season with Selvin Young (2007) and Mike Bell (2008) accomplishing the feat in back-to-back seasons.

Turner helped the Broncos record 11 individual 1,000-yard rushing seasons during his tenure, a total that includes a four-year streak of having a different 1,000-yard rusher each year (2003-06). Under Turner, the Broncos ranked among the NFL's top five in rushing during 10 of his 15 seasons, with 16 different running backs posting at least one 100-yard rushing game in the regular season or playoffs.

In 2005, the trio of Mike Anderson, Tatem Bell and Ron Dayne helped Denver rank second in the NFL in runs of 50 yards-or-more (four) and fourth in the league in runs of 10 yards-or-more (60), while setting a franchise record for most rushing first downs (145).

Before his arrival in Denver, Turner was assistant head coach, offensive coordinator and running backs coach for four seasons (1991-94) at Purdue. During his tenure, the Boilermakers running game and entire offense improved each season, going from 106th in the nation in 1990 to 12th in 1994, a season in which the team rushed for a school record 36 rushing touchdowns. That year, Turner guided All-Big Ten second-team selection Mike Alstott (1,188 yards and 14 TDs), the school's first 1,000-yard rusher since 1976. In 1991, Turner coached the Big Ten Freshman of the Year RB Corey Rogers.

Prior to Purdue, Turner served as the running backs coach for two seasons (1989-90) at Ohio State University, during which time the Buckeyes went to two bowl games and had one of the most prolific running games in the Big Ten.

Turner's 1990 backfield was highlighted by Big Ten and National Freshman of the Year Robert Smith, who finished the season with 1,126 yards and eight touchdowns. In 1989, the Buckeyes led the Big Ten in rushing yards per game (241.0), total offense (418.1 yards per game) and scoring (29.5).

Before his stint at Ohio State, Turner coached the running backs at Fresno State (1983-88) and at his alma mater, Indiana State (1975-82). At Fresno State, he coached future pros RB Lavale Thomas (Packers), RB Anthony Mosley (Bears) and RB Aaron Craver (Dolphins, Broncos, Chargers, Saints).

Turner began his collegiate coaching career at Indiana State, where he spent eight years (1975-82) on staff. He began as running backs and quarterbacks coach while also working as the team's strength and conditioning coordinator in 1975. In 1976, Turner became defensive backs coach in addition to strength and conditioning coordinator for two seasons before working as the team's running backs coach and special teams coordinator for four years (1978-81). During his final year at Indiana State in 1982, he coached defensive backs and served as special teams coordinator.

During his tenure on Indiana State's coaching staff, Turner recruited and coached two All-American defensive backs in Wayne Davis (1984) and Vencie Glenn (1985), both of whom went on to be second round draft picks. He also helped ISU running back Vincent Allen post a 1,000-yard rushing season (1,022) in 1975.

Turner began his coaching career at Haworth (Kokomo, IN) High School as an assistant with the football and basketball teams from 1972-74.

A native of East Chicago, IN, Turner was an all-conference defensive back at Indiana State, where he played both football and basketball. Turner ranks tied for second in school history with 16 career interceptions (returning two for touchdowns), including nine in 1969, which is tied for second most in a single season in school history. He earned his bachelor's degree from Indiana State in health and physical education in 1972 before receiving his master's degree from the school in education/administration in 1976.

Turner attended East Chicago Washington High School, where he played four sports (football, basketball, baseball and track). In 1993 he was inducted into the Indiana High School Basketball Hall of Fame Silver Anniversary Team and was selected to the East Chicago Sports Hall of Fame in 1999.

Turner and his wife, Kimberly, have three daughters: Nacole, Krishana and Kiaana.

In his one season with Detroit in 2020, Undlin worked with DE Romeo Okwara, who finished the year with 10.0 sacks. He was one of four players in the NFL to have at least 10.0 sacks, 10 tackles for loss (11), three forced fumbles and one fumble recovery on the season. LB Jamie Collins Sr. was one of three players in the NFL to produce at least 100 tackles, three forced fumbles, 1.0 sack and an interception in 2020.

Undlin joined the Lions after spending the previous five seasons (2015-19) as the defensive backs coach of the Philadelphia Eagles. In 2019, Undlin's defensive backs registered 82 passes defensed, the sixth-most in the NFL. CB Avonte Maddox (10) and CB Sidney Jones (eight) finished with career highs in the category, with each appearing in 12 games that season. The defensive backs as a whole also racked up 7.5 sacks, which were tied for the most among safeties and cornerbacks. The 2018 Eagles defensive backs were led by S Malcom Jenkins, who was selected to the Pro Bowl after he registered 93 tackles, eight passes defensed, three forced fumbles, one fumble recovery, one interception and 1.0 sack.

In 2017, the Eagles defense accounted for the fourth-most takeaways (31) and interceptions (19) in the NFL as Philadelphia defeated the New England Patriots, 41-33, in Super Bowl LII. The year prior, Philadelphia ranked sixth in the NFL in first downs allowed (300) and returned three interceptions for touchdowns, which was tied for the third-most in the NFL. Undlin coached S Rodney McLeod, who in his first season with the team led the Eagles with a career-high 117 tackles, to go along with career-highs in interceptions (three) and passes defended (10).

In Undlin's first year in Philadelphia in 2015, the Eagles defense ranked 10th in the NFL in total takeaways (26) and interceptions (15). Jenkins earned his first trip to the Pro Bowl after posting a team-high 120 tackles, 15 passes defensed along with three forced fumbles. The Eagles were also one of just five teams to have three defensive backs (Jenkins, CB Byron Maxwell and CB Nolan Carroll) register at least 10 passes defensed on the year.

Prior to his time with the Eagles, Undlin was the defensive backs (2013-14) and defensive quality control coach (2012) with the Denver Broncos. In 2014, the Broncos finished the regular season ranked third in total defense (305.2 yards per game), with CB Chris Harris Jr., CB Aqib Talib and S T.J. Ward each earning selections to the Pro Bowl. Denver ranked first in the NFL in opponent's yards per attempt (6.02) and fourth in passes defensed (91) that season. The 2013 Broncos defense recorded the fourth-most passes defensed (97) in the NFL, as Denver reached Super Bowl XLVIII. In 2012, Undlin worked as a quality control coach with the Broncos defense, which finished third in the NFL in pass defense (199.6 yards per game) and was the only unit in the NFL that did not allow a 300-yard passer.

Undlin went to Denver following three years with the Jacksonville Jaguars, starting as a defensive assistant (2009) before being promoted to defensive backs coach (2010-11). He also spent four seasons with the Cleveland Browns as the team's defensive quality control coach (2005-06), secondary/assistant special teams coach (2007) and defensive backs coach (2008). As the defensive backs coach in 2008, the Browns defense finished second in the League with 23 interceptions.

Undlin first entered the NFL with the New England Patriots in 2004 as a defensive assistant, working with the team's secondary. Undlin was part of the Patriots staff that finished with a 14-2 record and defeated the Philadelphia Eagles, 24-21, in Super Bowl XXXIX.

From 1998-99, Undlin first entered the coaching ranks as the line-backers coach at his alma mater, California Lutheran University, before he was promoted to defensive coordinator for three seasons (2000-02). He then joined the Fresno State staff as a graduate assistant (2003) where he coached defensive backs.

Undlin played defensive back at California Lutheran from 1990-94 and registered 12 interceptions, the third-most in school history. In 1993, he was part of a California Lutheran team that finished third in the Southern California Intercollegiate Athletic Conference (SCIAC) for the first time in school history. A native of Sauk Centre, MN, Undlin and his wife, Amy, have one son, Caden, and two daughters, Brooke and Taylor.

17TH NFL SEASON (12 PLAYING/5 COACHING) × 3RD WITH 49ERS

Wes Welker is in his third season as the 49ers wide receivers coach. He joined San Francisco after spending the previous two years (2017-18) with the Houston Texans as the team's offensive/special teams assistant.

Welker's guidance helped rookie WR Brandon Aiyuk lead the team with 60 receptions for 748 yards and five touchdowns, while rushing for 77 yards and two touchdowns on six carries. His seven total touchdowns are the third-most by a 49ers rookie since 1970 [RB Roger Craig (1983) – 12 touchdowns; RB Earl Cooper (1980) – nine touchdowns]. Aiyuk's 60 receptions and 748 receiving yards ranked second and third, respectively, among rookies in franchise history. WR Deebo Samuel notched 33 receptions for 391 yards and one touchdown.

In 2019, the 49ers receiving corps was led by rookie WR Deebo Samuel, who registered 57 receptions for 802 yards and three touchdowns while also adding 14 carries for 159 yards (11.4 average) and three touchdowns. His 57 receptions and 802 receiving yards each ranked second among all rookies in franchise history. Samuel also became the first wide receiver in franchise history to record three rushing touchdowns in a single season. WR Emmanuel Sanders, who was acquired in a trade prior to Week 8, notched 36 receptions for 502 yards and three touchdowns, while WR Kendrick Bourne tallied 30 receptions for 358 yards and a career-high five touchdowns.

The 2018 Texans finished the season with the fifth-most punt return yards (327) in the NFL and ranked tied for seventh after averaging 24.4 yards per kick return. WR DeAndre Hopkins registered career highs in receptions (115) and receiving yards (1,572) to go along with 11 touchdown receptions. He receiving yardage total ranked second in the NFL as he also averaged 98.3 receiving yards per game.

In his first season on the Texans staff in 2017, Hopkins was named Associated Press First-Team All-Pro for the first time in his career after finishing with 96 receptions for 1,378 yards and a franchise-record 13 touchdowns, making him one of 14 players in NFL history, at that time, to post those numbers in a season and the third-youngest ever to do so. Hopkins finished the season ranked sixth in the NFL in receptions (96), fourth in receiving yards (1,378), first in receiving touchdowns (13), fourth in receiving first downs (69), first in receptions of 25-or-more yards (17) and third in 100-yard receiving games (five).

In 2017, Hopkins (13 receiving touchdowns) and WR Will Fuller V (seven) combined for 20 receiving touchdowns, which was the most by any pair of teammates in the NFL on the season and the most by any pair of teammates in franchise history. The Texans had two receivers with seven-or-more touchdown receptions in a season one other time in franchise history (2008). Fuller V registered 28 receptions for 423 yards (15.1 average) and a single-season career-high seven touchdowns in 10 games. He scored a touchdown on seven of his first 11 receptions of the season. WR Braxton Miller also had a career year with the Texans in 2017, setting career highs in receptions (19), receiving yards (162), receiving average (8.5) and tied his career high in touchdowns (one) in 11 games.

The Texans scored 30-or-more points six times in 2017, which tied the franchise record for the most games with 30-or-more points in a season (2012). Houston also threw for the third-most passing touchdowns in a single season in franchise history (28) and the most completions of 25-or-more yards in a single season in franchise history (38).

ZACH YENSER

ASSISTANT OFFENSIVE LINE

3RD NFL SEASON × 3RD WITH 49ERS

Zach Yenser is in his third season as the 49ers assistant offensive line coach. He joined San Francisco after spending three of the previous four seasons (2015-17) as the run game coordinator/offensive line coach at the University of Kansas. Yenser spent the 2018 season as an offensive quality control coach at Southern Methodist University.

In 2020, the 49ers offensive line was anchored by All-Pro T Trent Williams, who named to his eighth Pro Bowl, and G Laken Tomlinson, who started all 16 games. The 49ers offense averaged 370.1 yards per game (118.1 rushing yards; 252.1 passing yards) and ranked tied for 10th in the NFL with 19 rushing touchdowns.

In 2019, while working with offensive line coach John Benton, the 49ers offensive line showcased their toughness and depth throughout the season. San Francisco's offense ranked second in the NFL in rushing yards per game (144.1) and fourth in the NFL in total offense (381.1 yard per game). The 144.1 rushing yards per game were the fourth-most by the team since 1990. The offense also had three players rush for over 500 yards for just the second time in franchise history and first time since 1954. The team success on the ground continued in the postseason, as the 49ers offense rushed for an average of 204.0 yards per game. The offensive line faced its share of adversity, as four different starters along the line missed time due to injury, but newcomers OL Daniel Brunskill, OL Ben Garland and rookie OL Justin Skule each stepped in at different points throughout the season.

In 2017 at the University of Kansas, the Jayhawks averaged 102.6 rushing yards per game and finished with 11 touchdowns on the ground under Yenser's leadership. In 2016, his second season at KU, his unit paved the way for an average of 119.1 rushing yards per game and 11 touchdowns, while RB Ke'aun Kinner rushed for 738 yards and three touchdowns on 140 carries (5.3 average). Kansas finished the 2015 season averaging 112.9 rushing yards per game and finished with 10 rushing touchdowns.

Prior to his time at Kansas, Yenser spent two seasons (2013-14) as the offensive line coach at the University of California. In 2014, the Bears registered single-season records for passing yards (4,152), passing touchdowns (37), average total yards per game (495.2) and passing first downs (188). Yenser developed sophomore OL Chris Borrayo into Honorable Mention All-Pac-12 honors.

In 2013, Cal's offense finished the regular season ranked third in the Pac-12, averaging 331.4 yards per game. The 5,443 yards of total offense by the Bears was the third-highest in school history and its 453.6 average yards per game ranked fourth all-time. Over the team's final five games of the season, the Bears averaged 37.8 more rushing yards per game than it had the first seven games.

Before arriving at Cal, Yenser spent three seasons at Louisiana Tech University, first as a graduate assistant working with the offensive line (2010-11), followed by one season (2012) as the team's assistant offensive line coach. In 2012, Louisiana Tech finished with a 9-3 record and led the NCAA in both points per game (51.5) and total offense (577.9 yards per game) in addition to ranking third in passing yards per game (350.8). Yenser helped three players earn First-Team All-WAC honors during his three seasons at Louisiana Tech, with OL Stephen Warner earning the recognition twice (2011-12) and OL Kris Cavitt (2011) and OL Jordan Mills (2012) each being named First-Team once. OL Oscar Johnson and OL Kevin Sia added Second-Team All-WAC honors in 2012.

In 2009, Yenser was an assistant coach at Colquitt County (Norman Park, GA) High School, where he helped guide the Packers to an 11-3 record and an appearance in the Georgia 5-A state semifinals. The year prior, he was as an offensive line coach at Henderson State University.

Yenser began his coaching career as a graduate assistant at Troy University in 2007, working with the offensive line and special teams. He helped the Trojans earn a share of the Sun Belt Conference title with an 8-4 record. The Trojans led the Sun Belt in both points per game (34.0) and yards per game (452.8).

A native of Fort Mitchell, KY, Yenser was a four-year starter as an offensive lineman at Troy (2003-06). He appeared in 42 consecutive games during his career as he helped the Trojans win the Sun Belt Conference and the New Orleans Bowl as a senior in 2006 when he was a team captain and First-Team All-Sun Belt selection. He graduated from the school with a bachelor's degree in communication and fine arts in 2007 and later earned his master's degree in science with a concentration in sports performance from Louisiana Tech in 2012. He and his wife, Beth, have two sons: Graham and Max.

BRANDON AIYUK

3.17.98 × RENO, NV × 2ND YEAR × ACQUIRED D-1B IN '20

AWARDS & HONORS

2020: Pepsi Zero Sugar Rookie of the Week (Week 3)

CAREER HIGHLIGHTS

With 10 recepts. vs. Was. (12/13/20), tied the franchise's rookie single-game record for most recepts. [WR Jerry Rice – 10 recepts. vs. LAR (12/9/85); RB Earl Cooper – 10 recepts. at NO (9/7/80)].

GOLDMINE

· Though he grew up in Nevada, Aiyuk has roots in Northern California. He attended Sierra (Rocklin, CA) College from 2016-17, where the 49ers spent training camp from 1981-1997. Additionally, Aiyuk began supporting the 49ers at a young age, thanks to his mom. "My mom's been a huge 49ers fan her whole life, so that kind of bled on me a little bit when I was younger," said Aiyuk. When he got the call informing him that he would be a member of the team, Aiyuk realized a childhood dream that he wasn't sure would come true. "There were a lot of people telling me before today and all week that it was going to happen. So, it's crazy that it actually did happen."

AIYUK'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His last name is pronounced EYE-yook.
- Though he stands at 6-foot-0, Aiyuk recorded an 81-inch wingspan, equivalent to 6-foot-9.
- Aiyuk is only the second alum from a Northern Nevada high school to become a first-round NFL draft pick. Former DT Shawn Knight (Reed HS, NV) was drafted by the New Orleans Saints 11th overall in the 1987 NFL Draft.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

• During his time at Sierra College and later Arizona State, Aiyuk was known for his work ethic on and off the field. Ben Noonan, who coached Aiyuk at Sierra College, found Aiyuk in the weight room constantly, improving his squat from 275 pounds coming out of high school to 500 pounds by May 2017. That drive carried over to the practice field, where Aiyuk routinely stayed for 30 minutes after every practice working on routes in the Rocklin heat. "It gets up to a good 110 degrees, and then he's out there until the daylight is gone with the quarterbacks after a four-hour day," Noonan said. "And demanding that the quarterbacks stay, you know, whether their arm was falling off or not."

AWARDS & HONORS

2019: 49ers Community Relations Rookie Player Award

GOLDMINE

Al-Shaair grew up in a family of nine, with his mother, Naadhirah, supporting him and his seven siblings. In 2012, struggling to make ends meet, the family moved into their grandmother's home in Tampa, FL. One night, Al-Shaair awoke to the smell of smoke encompassing the house. He was able to wake up and lead the rest of his family to safety, as they watched the house burn down. The family moved from place to place before settling in a longstay motel. Al-Shaair chose to sleep on the floor, as the family had to fit into one room. He trekked two hours by bus each day to attend school and football practice, often only eating once a day, making sure any leftover food went to his mom and siblings. His work ethic on and off the field grew in that adversity. "My mom always told me, 'What's meant for you is meant for you," Al-Shaair said. "All you can do is put forth the effort, and I believe that I've done that."

While at Florida Atlantic, Al-Shaair decided to move his two younger brothers, Abdul-Lateef and Abdur-Rahmaan, into his Boca Raton apartment. Constantly worrying about whether they were eating or getting into trouble, Al-Shaair began to serve as the father figure of the household. "They were doing bad in school with their grades. I moved them here to put them in a different environment," said Al-Shaair.

AL-SHAAIR'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

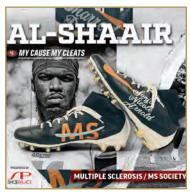

His name is pronounced uh-ZEEZ, all-SHY-urr.

Recipient of the N4A Wilma Rudolph Student-Athlete Achievement Award, which honors any collegiate student-athlete who has overcome great personal, academic, and/or emotional odds to achieve academic success while participating in intercollegiate athletics.

to over 300 people in need. Members of the team served food, bussed tables and refilled beverages. The team also provided toiletries and giveaways to all those in attendance.

 Prior to Week 2's matchup in Cincinnati during the 2019 season, the 49ers spent time in Youngstown, OH, where they participated in the Community Blitz. Al-Shaair and some of his teammates visited Easter Seals Center for Rehabilitation. The players spent time painting and playing games with several seniors at the facility.

The 49ers LBs welcomed eight foster youth from Unity Care to Levi's Stadium in December of 2019. This group received gifts and much needed resources, like bedding and new shoes, this holiday season. The linebackers chose to support foster youth to honor teammate Dre Greenlaw who is a former foster youth.

Al-Shaair participated in the 49ers Annual Community Day, helping pack more than 31,000 nutritious meals in collaboration with Feeding Children Anywhere. The meals, along with groceries and backpacks, were distributed to those most in need in East San Jose.

AWARDS & HONORS

2020: NFLPA Community MVP (Week 10)

2020: 49ers Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year Nominee, Perry/Yonamine Unity Award

GOLDMINE

• In May of 2020, Armstead donated $50,000 to Sacramento's Mercy Housing for students to be able to participate in distance learning. The donation will provide 350 Chromebooks to students, as well as one-year of pre-paid internet service for those families, many of whom have multiple students in their households. Also included in the donation were education kits consisting of learning activities, books, supplies and even healthy snacks benefiting children of all ages who remain physically at home, unable to visit their schools because of the coronavirus pandemic. "These are things that people should have access to, these are things that students in other communities do have access to, so this is just a baseline of essential needs for them to be successful in the classroom," said Armstead. "I think people need to realize that some of the things we're experiencing right now maybe the new norm, even when the virus calms down." Armstead took the time to personally deliver the Chromebooks to the recipients of the donation. "A lot of students had been disengaged before the pandemic, but even more so with school getting canceled and having to learn virtually and not having the technology and access," said Armstead. "I'm happy that I launched the foundation last year so that I could try to address some of these issues in my community."

 Armstead returned to his hometown of Sacramento during the 2019 offseason to host the second charity weekend for his foundation, Armstead Academic Project, which promotes equal opportunities through education. The festivities kicked off as teammates Ronald Blair III, Richard Sherman, Jaquiski Tartt and Ahkello Witherspoon joined Armstead for a charity gala and silent auction which raised more than $100,000. Armstead then led a youth camp the following morning, where the children were able to get hands-on lessons from the NFL players. Throughout the day, Armstead stressed the importance of hard work, sportsmanship and teamwork.

ARMSTEAD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Named the 49ers representative for the Walter Payton Man of the Year Award in 2020, which recognizes an NFL player for his excellence on and off the field.
- Named the Perry/Yonamine Unity Award recipient in 2020. The award is presented to the 49ers player who exhibits an exceptional commitment to promoting unity within the team and in their community. The Perry/Yonamine Unity Award is named for the former 49ers players and pioneers of unity and diversity, Joe "The Jet" Perry and Wally Yonamine, and is voted on by the players.
- Lists his parents, Guss and Christa, as the most influential people in his life. He also gives credit to his grandfather, Willie B. Armstead, an Air Force veteran, for instilling the value of integrity that his parents have passed along to him. "A lot of things he instilled in my dad have carried down to me. Having a family member who is more courageous than you can imagine and who served his country is a huge honor."
- Played both basketball and football at Oregon before focusing only on football in 2014.
- During Super Bowl 50's Media Day, Armstead joined Sacramento's ABC10 sports team as a reporter to learn what it is like to cover NFL players during one of the most hectic events of the year. Held at SAP Center in San Jose, Armstead interviewed former teammates, fans, media members and Miss Universe. "It's like a feeding frenzy everyone running around, and being part of that frenzy was a unique experience," said Armstead during the event.

 During the 2020 offseason, Armstead began implementing several installments of Story time with Arik Armstead using virtual platforms. For Earth Day, Armstead surprised a virtual classroom of 20 second-grade students with a story time, Q&A and conversations about the environment. For Mother's Day, he and his mom, Christa, read "Guess How Much I Love You" on the 49ers Instagram account. Education is at the forefront of Armstead's commitment to the Bay Area, as the defensive lineman founded the Armstead Academic Project to ensure every student, no matter their socioeconomic status, has direct access to a quality education through a positive learning environment and resources needed in order to thrive and be successful.

 NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. Armstead and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. In choosing the foundation Arik Armstead Academic Project which focuses on education equity, "I play for all children to have the right to quality education," said Armstead.

Members of the 49ers defensive line spent time with 25 local youth from the Fam 1st Foundation at Shoe Palace for a special holiday shopping experience on December 16, 2019. The Fam 1st Foundation is based in Oakland and focuses on underserved youth, aiming to build new generations of innovative thinkers to create solutions for the future of Oakland and beyond.

- If Armstead wasn't in the NFL, he would be playing basketball. He was a three-year starter in basketball at Pleasant Grove High School in Sacramento and played two years at the University of Oregon before focusing solely on football for the 2014 season. He entered his high school senior season listed as the number three prospect in NorCalPrep.com's Top 40 rankings for the class of 2012. "A big part of the recruiting pitch from Oregon was they were going to let me play two sports. We only lost 5 games during my time there. I wanted to go somewhere with the chance to win and be a part of something special."
- In 2017, Armstead returned to his hometown of Sacramento to hold his Annual free youth football camp. The camp was held in Elk Grove, CA and sponsors made it possible for 200 scholarships to be offered to interested kids. The kids participated in both football and conditioning drills with the players and then were allowed to ask questions to discuss not only football, but school, healthy choices, and other topics. Armstead's goal was to provide campers with a unique experience on the football field, as well as insight into the hard work and dedication that are needed to make it to the NFL. "I want the kids to enjoy themselves while also coming away learning that they can do whatever they put their mind to," said Armstead. "I want to teach them the things that helped me get where I am now like the importance of education, work ethic, and faith."

- Armstead's brother, Armond, was forced to retire before ever playing a down in the NFL. After playing collegiately at USC, Armond became an All-Star for the Toronto Argonauts of the Canadian Football League, helping the team win the league's 100th Grey Cup. He went on to sign with the New England Patriots in 2013, but medical issues forced him to hang up his cleats. "The biggest thing he has told me through this process is, 'at the end of the day, it's just football.' Having a brother who played at this level makes everything less overwhelming."
- In April of 2018, Armstead worked with Leataata Floyd Elementary and 916 Ink to host a trip to the Imaginarium, where the young students developed their artistic abilities, while learning how to be better at communicating. The event was in conjunction with Armstead's foundation, which focuses on assisting at-risk youth, particularly through the means of education.

ALEX BARRETT

6-2 × 250 × SAN DIEGO STATE

3.6.94 * MESA, AZ * 2ND YEAR * ACQUIRED FA IN '20

GOLDMINE

• In May of 2018, Barrett's father, Audry, passed away after a battle with Stage Four liver cirrhosis. Barrett and his father bonded over a love of football from the start. After stints with the Detroit Lions and the San Diego Fleet in the former AAF, Barrett was working for another shot in the NFL. On April 5, 2019, his hard work paid off as the then Oakland Raiders signed the defensive lineman. Not only did he join his late father's favorite team, but the day he signed happened to be his parents' wedding anniversary. "It was my parents' anniversary, so it was really weird and special," he said. "It's been the first year, well, my father passed away in May of 2018, so it's pretty much my parents first anniversary not together. Just being able to call my mom on that day was crazy."

BARRETT'S GOLDEN NUGGET

In addition to playing football, he lettered in track at Desert Ridge (Mesa, AZ) HS. He finished second in state in the shot put his senior season.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

 Members of the 49ers defensive line spent time with 25 local youth from the Fam 1st Foundation at Shoe Palace for a special holiday shopping experience in December of 2019. The Fam 1st Foundation is based in Oakland and focuses on underserved youth, aiming to build new generations of innovative thinkers to create solutions for the future of Oakland and beyond.

GOLDMINE

• NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Benjamin and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Benjamin raised awareness for the Susan G. Komen Foundation. In 2018, he served as the Honorary Race Chair for the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure in Orange County. Benjamin also co-hosted the Susan G. Komen Race for the Cure in 2016 in San Diego. He has been active in breast cancer awareness and research since the start of his career, as his mother and grandmother are survivors.

Growing up, Benjamin was raised primarily by his mother, Cynthia, and his grandmother, Jacquelyn. Cynthia worked hard to raise her family, and sometimes held multiple jobs to provide for her three kids. "My mother is my inspiration," Benjamin said. "She gave me a mindset that the only way you get where you want is with hard work. We never wanted to let her down." He grew close with his grandmother, Jacquelyn, who was always in the kitchen. Eventually, he could be the one found making the meals for the family. "When my mom and grandma were at work, I was the chef," said Benjamin. The tight-knit family grew closer, as Benjamin learned his grandmother was battling breast cancer. "It started out when I was in high school. My grandma had it first," said Benjamin. "She was diagnosed two times with breast cancer, but God bless her, because she's beaten it." The reprieve was shortlived, as Benjamin's mother, Cynthia, was diagnosed with the same form of cancer. "As I got toward college, either my freshman or sophomore year, my mom was diagnosed with it." After enduring treatment and chemotherapy, Cynthia was deemed cancer free to the relief of her family. "Those women are very strong. I think they're the toughest of the tough because their bodies change and their lives change. But (now they get to) wake up each and every morning knowing that God has given them another day to live."

BENJAMIN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Lettered two years in track & field at Glades Central (Belle Glade, FL) HS. Ran the 100-meter dash along with the 4x100 and 4x400 relays. Also ran track at Miami.
- Comes from a family of athletes, as younger brother, Troy Stewart, played collegiately at Bethune-Cookman. Benjamin's cousin, Alphonso Marshall, played CB for the Chicago Bears from 2004-05.
- As a child, one of Benjamin's nicknames was 'Rabbit,' because he would chase rabbits that were escaping from burning cane fields. He credits the practice for his speed and agility. He estimates that he's caught about 10 over the years. "It is a special feeling when you catch that first one," he said.
- When he and his wife, Africa, got married in the summer of 2016, the couple had two ceremonies back in Miami, Florida: an American wedding and a traditional African wedding to honor Africa, who is Eritrean. "I respect her family and they respect me," Benjamin said. "And when she came to me and said we h when she came to me and said we have to do the traditional African wedding, I was all in."

Benjamin grew up in Florida and became a fan of freshwater fishing at an early age.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

• In June of 2017, Benjamin hosted the Travis Benjamin Youth Football camp in his hometown of Belle Glade, Florida, which allowed over 200 young football players to improve their skills with the help of other Belle Glade NFL players. The free camp also gave out a free backpack with school supplies to each child in attendance. "I love working with kids, knowing I was at that point in my life at one time where I needed help," said Benjamin. "Coming from here, everyone wants to play football, and the work and the grind you put into it pays off."

GOLDMINE

 Bosa's father, John, a former member of the Miami Dolphins, encouraged sons Nick and Joey to try other sports like tennis, golf and baseball. However, Nick only had one sport in mind, and he let his parents know it. "Nick threw temper tantrums," John said. After successfully convincing his parents to let him play football, Nick gave everything he had to the sport. Even as a kid on the field, he wasn't afraid to speak his mind. Early in his football career, Cheryl watched from the sideline at practice as Nick approached a coach. "I find out later they'd put Nick with the offense," she recalled. "And he walked up to this guy, totally by himself, tugged on his shirt and said, 'I don't want to play offense. I want to play defense."

BOSA'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

His father, John, was selected 16th overall by the Miami Dolphins in the 1987 NFL Draft. The following season, Miami chose his future uncle, Eric Kumerow, also 16th overall.

- The San Diego Chargers selected his brother, Joey, 3rd overall in the 2016 NFL Draft.
- The Bosa brothers had nicknames growing up, with Joey's being Big Bear and Nick's as Smaller Bear.
- In 2017, was the winner of the Big Ten's Smith-Brown Defensive Lineman of the Year Award, becoming the fourth-consecutive member of Ohio State to win the award, following his brother, Joey (2014-15) and Indianapolis Colts DE Tyquan Lewis (2016).

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED

Participated in the 49ers Annual Community Day, helping pack more than 31,000 nutritious meals in collaboration with Feeding Children Anywhere. The meals, along with groceries and backpacks, were distributed to those most in need in East San Jose.

GOLDMINE

· NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during the 2018 season. Brendel represented the foundation, "Living for Zachary," named for former high school teammate Zachary Schraw, who passed away in 2009 on the Plano East High School football field. He died suddenly of cardiac arrest. "If there was an AED (automated external defibrillator) nearby, it could have saved Zachary's life, might have brought his heart back to life," Brendel

said. "The foundation is trying to make sure the next time that happens, a life can be saved."

BRENDEL'S GOLDEN NUGGET

- Growing up, Brendel's family was involved in local musical theater. During a production of "Annie," Brendel's dad, Bill, played "Daddy Warbucks," his mom was the musical director and Lauren and Jake played two background actors. "Jake was the dancer. The kid could dance and sing," said Bill.
- Enjoys fishing, particularly for bass, bluegills and walleye.

• As a senior at UCLA in 2015, Brendel and his teammates suited up to play in their senior game at the Rose Bowl. He was joined by his entire family, including older sister, Lauren. Lauren had officially made captain in the Air Force the week before, and decided to skip her ceremonial pinning in order to watch her brother play. "It was great to have her there, especially being Military Appreciation Day," Jake said. "She loved every single aspect of it." Lauren, through her various assignments in the Air Force, was forced to miss a majority of her brother's games, but knew she wanted to be there for this one. "My feeling was, I'll be pinned for major, the next promotion, and then my family can be there," Lauren said. "Senior night was a one and only type thing for Jake. I couldn't miss that ceremony."

SHON COLEMAN

6-5 × 310 × AUBURN

11.25.91 • OLIVE BRANCH, MS • 5TH YEAR • ACQUIRED TR IN '18 - CLE

GOLDMINE

Coleman was diagnosed with leukemia in the spring of 2010. After undergoing treatment at St. Jude's Children's Research Hospital, he was eventually cleared to return to the field in 2012. Coleman returned to the hospital in 2016 for his Draft party, where he watched the Draft with patients and medical staffers. "There's a lot of young kids that went through the same things I went through that look up to me," Coleman said. "They are also an inspiration to me. My engine is still running to let people know you can beat the odds and dreams never fade."

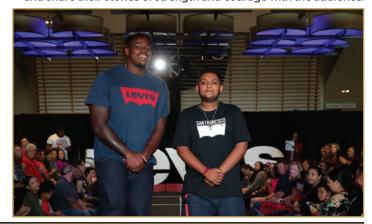

COLEMAN'S GOLDEN NUGGET

After defeating acute lymphoblastic leukemia, Coleman was invited to announce a draft selection in the 2014 NFL Draft. As he left the stage, Roger Goodell told him, "I know I'll see you back here in a couple of years." Two years later, Goodell's words came true, as he was drafted by the Cleveland Browns in 2016.

 Coleman and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health in October of 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

DARRION DANIELS

6-3 × 311 × NEBRASKA

12.4.97 × DALLAS, TX × 1ST YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '20

GOLDMINE

• After transferring as a graduate student from Oklahoma State to Nebraska, Daniels joined younger brother, Damion, on the Cornhusker's defensive line. The elder Daniels came to Nebraska specifically to play with his younger brother and help him with his training. At home in Dallas on summer break, the brothers woke every day at 7 a.m. to run. The competitive spirit drove them both to out-work the other. "He's hard on me with conditioning," Damion said. "I don't joke around and play in the weight room. But conditioning, my brother wants me to go that extra rep, carry my attitude from the weight room onto the field." Parents Tony and Rhonda Daniels appreciated the opportunity to watch both sons on the same field. "That's all they talked, the opportunity to be on the field together and playing on the same team," said Tony Daniels.

DANIELS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Father, Tony, was an All-American defensive lineman at Texas Tech and played for the Green Bay Packers.
- Growing up, Daniels loved academics and gaining knowledge in different subjects. "I would consider myself a nerd growing up," he says. After earning a bachelor's degree in marketing from Oklahoma State, he pursued a master's degree in applied science at Nebraska.

 Known for his vocal abilities, Daniels participated in show choir at Bishop Dunne High School and was named Male Vocalist of the Year in the Dallas/Fort Worth area as a high school freshman. While at Nebraska, he even sang the national anthem for a crowd at the Husker Road Race in 2019. "I've actually been singing for some time," Daniels said. "I've always sung in gospel choir in church.

My mother made us growing up." Known for singing around the house, Daniels' mom, Rhonda, was a primary reason for Daniels to pursue this gift. "I've got a very musical family," said Daniels. "If you ever met my momma, she sings everything. She really is the main reason why I found out I could sing."

SAMSON EBUKAM

6-3 × 245 × EASTERN WASHINGTON

5.9.95 × PORTLAND, OR × 5TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FAIN '21

GOLDMINE

· Ebukam was born "Nnamaka Samson Ebukam" on the banks of the Niger River just behind the Nile and the Congo as the youngest of seven siblings. The Ebukam family values education and betterment. From a young age, Ebukam watched as his father and siblings began leaving Nigeria for America in search of new opportunities. Ebukam became accustomed to living away from his family for years, until at the age of nine, his father Tobias sent for him to make the trek to America. "They had to sacrifice their own happiness just to make sure we had a better future, and for that I'm eternally grateful," Ebukam said. He would later learn English from his mother.

 With the only sport he knew being soccer, it wasn't until coach Dan Wood at David Douglas (Portland, OR) HS witnessed Ebukam's explosiveness and begged him to join the football team. Although it took his parents some convincing, the dream of college football and a free education took precedence. Receiving two scholarship offers out of high school, Ebukam fell in love with Eastern Washington and became a standout in the FCS.

EBUKAM'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

Last name is pronounced EH-boo-kahm.

Learned how to play football in high school after years of playing soccer in his hometown of Onitsha, Nigeria. "I didn't even know what basketball was," Ebukam said. "I didn't know what football was. I knew about track & field, but that was just called running."

 Ebukam beams with pride when he thinks about his journey and hometown. He founded the T&S Foundation, named after his parents Tobias and Ebukam who provided every resource to get him to where he is today. The mission of his foundation is to fulfill basic humanitarian needs for the people of Nigera and aims to aid displacement, food insecurity.

climate-related issues, disease outbreaks, domestic violence and more. Ebukam partners with companies such as Adidas, Kellogg's, Baller Bellys, FIJI Water and the NFLPA to make a difference in his home country.

GOLDMINE

- Instead of spending opening night of the 2014 NFL Draft in New York City with fellow draft hopefuls, Ford was in Anniston, AL, gathered with family and friends just singing gospel and spending time together. The night was about more than Dee, as the entire Ford family was celebrating. His mother, Debbie, was recently certified as a registered nurse, while his brother had also received a new job offer.
- A multi-talented individual, in addition to playing football, Ford has a strong musical background. With his parents as his biggest role models, Ford grew up watching his mother and father as musicians with multiple gospel groups. He developed the ability to play the drums which later led to him picking up the piano. Said Ford, "Music was all I saw when I was little. Eventually it just grew into me. It became a part of me."

FORD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

When Ford was younger, his mother and father created a traveling band with Dee and his sister serving as backup singers and his cousin as a co-lead singer in the "Ford Connection."

While at St. Clair County (Odenville, AL) High School, participated in the school's jazz band.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

Prior to San Francisco's Week 14 matchup in New Orleans during the 2019 season, the 49ers stayed in Bradenton, FL for the week. Ford stopped by the local Guitar Center and met Adam Birmingham, a local high school student who was testing out a guitar when Ford approached him. After the two talked and played music together, Ford offered to buy the guitar for him. "I was just there playing and I saw this kid," said Ford. "He was really, really good. He reminded me of myself when I first learned how to play a keyboard and he was very passionate. My message to him was to keep that passion and don't let anyone take it away from you."

- In celebration of his trip to the 2019 Pro Bowl, Ford brought more than 35 friends and family members down to the festivities in Orlando, FL. Said Ford, "I'm from down south, so there's some family that don't have a chance to come out to the Midwest. It's a real mixture of a lot of people. It'll cost a little penny, but I think the experience is worth it."
- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. Ford and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Ford represented the Boys & Girls Club of Oakland.

BENNIE FOWLER

6-1 × 218 × MICHIGAN STATE

6.10.91 * BEVERLY HILLS, MI * 7TH YEAR * ACQUIRED FA IN '21

GOLDMINE

 Fowler is close friends with Golden State Warriors power forward Draymond Green. Their friendship goes back more than a decade to the when the pair played on the same high-school AAU basketball team. They were on the same team, though in different age groups with Green a year above Fowler. When Green enrolled at Michigan State for college, Fowler followed a year later to play football. The two lived in the same apartment building on the same floor.

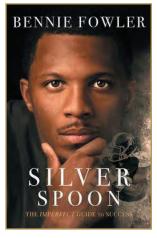

FOWLER'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Caught Hall of Fame QB Peyton Manning's last career pass when the pair connected on a 2-point conversion with 3:08 remaining in Super Bowl 50 as the Denver Broncos sealed a 24-10 victory over the Carolina Panthers at Levi's Stadium.
- Fowler played football, basketball and ran track at Detroit County Day School. His basketball team won a state championship in 2007 and in track, Fowler won the Oakland County 100-meter dash and a state long jump championship.

 Fowler authored a self-help book Silver Spoon: The Imperfect Guide to Success which shares stories and insight from athletes like Peyton Manning, Draymond Green, and Tom Brady. "I wanted to provide a measured way to confront adversity so that when it happens — and it will happen — it won't shock you," Fowler said. "Because you've been prepared to deal with it."

WAYNE GALLMAN

6-0 × 216 × CLEMSON

10.1.94 × LOGANVILLE, GA × 5TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '21

GOLDMINE

· Gallman II learned some of life's most valuable lessons from someone who was not around in his life until his teenage years. His father, Wayne Gallman Sr., Battalion Sergeant Major, served in the Marines throughout his son's childhood. As his service took him from station to station every two to three years in countries like Japan and Somalia, it wasn't until Gallman uprooted his life in high school to shadow and live with his father in central Florida when Gallman and his father began their tight-knit bond. Gallman left his friends, team and sense of comfort behind to pursue a relationship with his father. "Ever since then, we've been as close as we can be," Gallman said. "The set values I've learned growing up are the base values of learning to respect women, respect people and never change who I am." Gallman brings those principles and level of discipline he learned from his father in everything that he does whether it be college courses, gym workouts, or relationships he builds with people on and off the field. Gallman Sr. and II also grew their bond through football, something Gallman Sr. excelled at as a safety at Valdosta State University in southern Georgia. When Gallman II joined him in Florida, he assisted his father in coaching at Middleburg High School in southwest Jacksonville, FL, where Gallman Sr. was also an ROTC coordinator. "The major influence I'd say my dad had on me is just to be a man, and to be my own man," Gallman said. "Just being you. Don't be anyone else."

GALLMAN II'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Childhood nickname was "The Beast," but adopted the nickname "Wayne Train" at Clemson.
- 🧼 Wears No. 22 in honor of his late friend and Clemson teammate Tyshon Dye, the number Dye wore in Georgia Pop Warner, high school and with the Tigers.

 During Week 13 of the 2020 season, Giants players wore custom cleats as a part of the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Gallman honored "The Single Parent Foundation" in honor of his mother who worked as a guidance counselor throughout his childhood.

• As a kid in suburban Chicago, Garoppolo and his three brothers occasionally rose early to join their dad, Tony, at his job. Tony is now a retired union electrician, with his career spanning more than 40 years. Tony instilled his work ethic into Jimmy. "But it was that blue-collar mentality. When you're raised like that, you don't know any different. All I knew was hard work, and it translates over to football." In May of 2019, Jimmy and Tony went to the Silicon Valley Career Technical Education Center in San Jose to speak to and congratulate over 90 recent high school graduates who decided to pursue a career in a skilled trade. A take on national signing day for high school athletes, each person would sign papers at a table, be rewarded with a cap and announce at the podium what trade they would follow. The event encourages students to take up a skill trade, something that doesn't require a four-year university. "This can help set the path earlier in kids' lives — they want to be in trades and they can get started in high school," Garoppolo said.

 During Week 13 of the 2020 season, 49ers players wore custom cleats as a part of the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Garoppolo and his teammates highlighted their respective causes, with Garoppolo representing the Cal Fire Benevolent Foundation.

- Garoppolo continued his giving theme in 2019, partnering with Men's Wearhouse on a suit drive, asking for donations of gently used suits, shirts, jackets, ties, slacks and shoes. The professional attire for men and women were passed along to local non-profit organizations, who provided them to those looking to re-enter the workplace. Done along with résumé-writing workshops, interview preparation courses and employment training programs, the objective is to create a confident job candidate, someone who shows up for an interview feeling well-prepared and looking the part. "It's kind of related to the football mentality of, look-good, feel-good, play-good," Garoppolo said of the drive. "You go in there with a suit and you're feeling good about yourself and your confidence is up, obviously you're going to perform better."
- Prior to Week 2's matchup in Cincinnati during the 2019 season, the 49ers spent time in Youngstown, OH, where they participated in the Community Blitz. Garoppolo and some of his teammates visited the Akron Children's hospital as players went from room to room to visit and meet some of the young patients.

 During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Garoppolo and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

• In May of 2016, Garoppolo, in partnership with AccessSportAmerica, volunteered at a football clinic for disabled high school students at Harvard Stadium. During the clinic, Garoppolo gave tips to participants on passing, blocking and other essential football skills. Garoppolo enjoyed the clinic so much, he returned to Harvard Stadium again in 2017 to hang out with the AccessSportAmerica students. Garoppolo said he felt honored to volunteer with AccessSportAmerica, and contribute to their efforts to inspire higher function and fitness for people living with challenges and disabilities through high-challenge sports and training.

 Garoppolo has quickly become integrated with the Bay Area and its sports franchises. Prior to Game 3 of the NHL's 2018 Western Conference Semifinals between the San Jose Sharks and Vegas Golden Knights, Garoppolo was asked to be the "honorary locker room door opener" at SAP Center in San Jose. The Sharks ask celebrities and well-respected sports figures to be the ceremonial door opener as the team heads out for final warmups and pregame introductions.

For fans traveling to the San Francisco Zoo, they can keep an eye out for one of the zoo's snow leopards, Jimmy G, whom the zoo chose to name after the 49ers quarterback. The zoo received both a male and female snow leopard in early 2018 and quickly found a new name. You can find Jimmy G in the enclosure outside the Lion House near the Lion Fountain.

NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. Gould and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Gould represented 49ers Foundation (& 49ers PREP & 49ers EDU), saying, "I play for Bay Area youth to tackle what's possible in the classroom and on the football field."

- The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope in December of 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests inneed from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Gould and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world."
- The 49ers hosted a flag football clinic for local first responders and their children at the team facility in October of 2018. Gould and his teammates taught the children the fundamentals of the game before hitting the field for drills and games. The 100-plus guests also had the opportunity to try on equipment and participate in a photoshoot.

 In partnership with the One Love Foundation, Gould, his 49ers teammates and their significant others participated in a filmbased workshop with local high school students about healthy and unhealthy relationships. The group watched a film together, and thereafter, held group discussions about the implications of the relationship behaviors depicted in the film. The One Love Foundation believes that love is a skill we can work on, and focuses on three main elements to convey their message: content, conversation and community action.

NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Gould and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago provides superior pediatric care in a setting that offers the latest benefits and innovations in medical technology, research and family-friendly design.

 During all Week 13 games in 2017, NFL players had the chance to share the causes that are important to them as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. "Supporting the Lurie Children's Hospital allows me to help children and families going through difficult times," said Gould. "My message to those battling illness: Tackles your fears and fulfill your dreams!"

Started The Goulden Touch Foundation in 2011, which has partnered with several key organizations in education, social services, health and wellness, and medical research to help those in need. Annually, The Golden Touch hosts the Windy City Kicker Golf Classic in Gould's hometown area of Clinton County, PA and has raised over $285,000 for Clinton County area programs. In 2016, Gould hosted a Celebrity Golf Invitational, which raised over $940,000 for The Ann & Robert H. Lurie Children's Hospital of Chicago.

 Following 11 seasons with the Chicago Bears, Gould formed a special bond with the city of Chicago. Despite being removed from the city for more than a year, the Chicago Cubs invited him to throw out the ceremonial first pitch and sing the seventh inning stretch in July of 2017, a tradition he's done each year since.

 In 2012, The Goulden Touch launched its annual event, "Kicking Hunger," which provides meals and raises funds for the Northern Illinois Food Bank. To date, The Goulden Touch has raised over 36,000 meals for their backpack program.

5.25.97 * FAYETTEVILLE, AR * 3RD YEAR * ACQUIRED D-5 IN '19

AWARDS & HONORS

2019: PFWA All-Rookie Team, Thomas Herrion Memorial Award

GOLDMINE

· Since he was eight years old, Greenlaw had been living in group homes and shelters across Arkansas. Six years later, he met Brian Early, who was the defensive coach at Fayetteville High, while Greenlaw was getting treatment for an injury he suffered in football practice. After learning about Dre's situation, Brian and his wife, Nanci, began spending more time with him, and soon he became like a son. When they were informed that his group home was going to be shut down, they invited Dre to live with them and their two daughters, AJ and Camryn. The family later made his adoption official shortly after Greenlaw turned 21. "Even though it wasn't legal until July, he's always been my son," said Brian. "He's felt the same way. We're Mom and Dad to him. It's a pretty special relationship."

 NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. Greenlaw and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Greenlaw represented the Bill Wilson Center and said, "I play for foster youth like me."

GREENLAW'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In 2019, named the recipient of the 49ers Thomas Herrion Memorial Award, which was established in 2005 by 49ers owners Denise and John York and is presented to a rookie or first-year player who best represents the dream of Thomas Herrion. The recipient has taken advantage of every opportunity, turned it into a positive situation and made their dream turn into a reality. The award is voted on by the coaches.
- During the 2019 offseason, Greenlaw spoke to a crowd of nearly 30 Santa Clara foster youth who were honored at Levi's Stadium for graduating from High School, obtaining a GED, earning a Vocational Program Certificate, Associate Degree, Bachelor and/or a Master Degree in the 2018-2019 academic year. A former foster child, Greenlaw addressed the crowd saying, "I can survive anything. Once you get that mindset, which I know you guys have. it's just the beginning."
- Was named team captain in 2018 at Arkansas after week four of the season.
- Participated in track & field at Fayetteville (AR) HS, in addition to football.

 The 49ers LBs welcomed eight foster youth from Unity Care to Levi's Stadium in December of 2019. This group received gifts and much needed resources, like bedding and new shoes, this holiday season. The linebackers chose to support foster youth to honor Greenlaw, who is a former foster youth.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- Took part in the 49ers Annual Community Day, helping pack more than 31,000 nutritious meals in collaboration with Feeding Children Anywhere. The meals, along with groceries and backpacks, were distributed to those most in need in East San Jose.
- During the 2019 offseason, members of the 49ers took part in the Second Annual Picnic on the Field, located on the Levi's Stadium field. Greenlaw and his teammates spent the day taking pictures with fans, who enjoyed music, food and games in support of the 49ers Foundation. The foundation, in conjunction with NFL Huddle for 100, partnered with Amazon to fill 1,000 backpacks full of school supplies. Fans and players joined together to assemble the packs, which were distributed throughout the community to children in need.

 Prior to Week 2's matchup in Cincinnati during the 2019 season, the 49ers spent time in Youngstown, OH, where they participated in the Community Blitz. Greenlaw and some of his teammates joined the students at Williamson Elementary School to talk about inclusion and anti-bullying. The players spoke at an assembly before helping the kids write compliment cards and discuss how to be kind to one another.

• Griffith didn't begin playing football until his senior year at the Academy at Shawnee (Louisville, KY) HS, mainly due to the fact that he had been home-schooled the years prior. "I was home schooled all my life until senior year," said Griffith. "I chose Shawnee because we had just moved to the neighborhood and it was close and small." Starting in a new environment, Griffith was able to participate in football, something he always hoped to do. He began getting noticed by colleges around the country, and eventually accepted an offer to play for Indiana State. "I worked really, really hard," Griffith said. "My parents always told me that hard work pays off. It felt amazing."

GOLDMINE

- Harris is no stranger to adversity. As he began his high school career, Harris was described by his coach as "tall and lanky." Stu Brown, his coach at Varina High School, knew he had the skill and work ethic, but didn't know if he was strong enough. However, not everyone agreed with that assessment. Michael Robinson, current analyst on the NFL Network and draft pick of the 49ers, hosted a football camp at Varina, his former high school, when Tim was 15 years old. Richard Sherman was at the camp and immediately knew the impact Harris could have. "Richard Sherman looked at his body and the first thing he told Tim was, 'You've got an NFL body," Brown said. "He was telling him that at 15 years old." With that encouragement, Harris took off, training harder than he had before, garnering multiple scholarship offers.
- Participated in the 49ers Annual Community Day in 2019, helping pack more than 31,000 nutritious meals in collaboration with Feeding Children Anywhere.
 The meals, along with groceries and backpacks, were distributed to those most in need in East San Jose.

HARRIS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

Played alongside former Virginia teammate and current Dallas Cowboys CB Maurice Canady at Varina (Henrico, VA) HS.

Played both safety and cornerback at Varina.

Harris credits his family and friends for his motivation on and off the football field. Particularly, Tim has a close relationship with his dad, Tim Harris Sr. "Me and my dad have been close ever since I was young. He taught me the steps of life, not just football, but life after football. He continues to believe in me, and that's something I can always appreciate that from him," said Harris. When it comes to life after football, Harris has thought about coaching or potentially working in the FBI, anything where he can help others. "My dad's best friend is an FBI agent and him hanging out at the house and talking to him made me interested in that field."

- · The 49ers hosted the third annual Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health in October of 2019, featuring cancer warriors representing all cancers as they modeled apparel donated by Levi's. Harris and his teammates were paired with each of the warriors to share their stories of strength and courage with the audience and walk the runway.
- Prior to Week 2's matchup in Cincinnati during the 2019 season, the 49ers spent time in Youngstown, OH, where they participated in the Community Blitz. Harris and some of his teammates joined the students at Williamson Elementary School to talk about inclusion and anti-bullying. The players spoke at an assembly before helping the kids write compliment cards and discuss how to be kind to one another.

Harris and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace in November of 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

HARRIS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Followed in his father's football career path, as Mike Harris played defensive back at the University of Florida for four vears (1994-97).
- In high school, Harris participated in Nike Football's "The Opening" series, which according to Nike is "the only national camp that offers athletes state-of-the-art education in both Nike Football Training and position-specific football from respected position coaches, while improving each player who attends, and does all of this free of cost to attendees."
- Harris grew up with former Gator teammates CB Duke Dawson, who was drafted in 2nd round of the 2018 NFL Draft by the New England Patriots, and S Keanu Neal, who was drafted in the first round of the 2016 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. All three played on the 7-on-7 team, the Rat Pak, that was coached by 8-year NFL veteran Keiwan Ratliff.

- The 49ers and their families hosted 450 underserved boys and girls from the Bay Area for the first-ever 49ers Hope for the Holidays event. Each child had a once-in-alifetime experience traveling through Levi's Stadium and left with a brand new bike, helmet, lock, haircut, shoes, toys, glasses, backpack, dinner and more.
- The 49ers hosted a flag football clinic for local first responders and their children at the team facility in October of 2018. Harris and his teammates taught the children the fundamentals of the game before hitting the field for drills and games. The 100plus guests also had the opportunity to try on equipment and participate in a photoshoot.

Harris and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy in September of 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

Harris notes that his mother, Andrea Tate, is the most influencial person in his life. He maintains that since an early age, she gave him the best advice he has ever received, which is having the ability to believe in yourself and not quit something that you start.
"I've been through a lot of things, but it's about pushing through and facing adversity," Harris said.

In October of 2019, Harris and his teammates spent time with fans and members of local Silicon Valley businesses to compete in a bowling tournament as the 49ers Foundation hosted the second annual 1st and Bowl Challenge. The funds raised at the event will support the charitable programs of the 49ers Foundation and benefit Bay Area youth.

5.9.95 × WESTWOOD, MA × 4TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '21

GOLDMINE

- · While attending Michigan, Hurst took to Uber driving to supplement his scholarship and earn money. He quickly became the self-proclaimed 'Best Uber Driver in Ann Arbor.' Growing up with a single mother who worked multiple jobs, Hurst learned the values of hardwork and dedication from a young age. His mother, Nicole, worked tirelessly to support his goals of becoming a professional football player. Hurst brings the same energy he does on Sundays to everything he does, which also led to his 4.98 Uber rating and over 82 five-star ratings. Hurst continued to drive throughout the early days of his NFL playing career.
- After reading about the hurricane devastation and distress caused in Nicaragua in 2020, Hurst lent a hand by donating food, health supplies and mattresses to 500 families affected by the storms near the Pacific coast. On November 17 of 2020, Hurst reached out to his friend and Nicaragua native, Oakland resident and logtime Raiders fan Abdel Zaharn to organize a food and supply drive. "To be able to help, that's the greatest thing in the world," Hurst said. "For me, that's part of who I am. I'm someone who wants to give back whatever ways I can and pass on some goodwill and good faith. I hope that others do the same and carry on and just be a never-ending chain."

HURST'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

"We were trying to bring together the kids in Israel through sport," Hurst said. "We talked about the history of Israel and the conflict that's going on and how it can be resolved through sport. RICHIE JAMES

AWARDS & HONORS

2018: PFWA AII-NFC Team (KR), ESPN AII-Rookie Team (KR)

GOLDMINE

• NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. James and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. James represented the Special Olympics Northern California, and said, "I play for athletes to feel included and part of a community." Special Olympics Northern California enriches the lives of more than 23,925 children and adults with intellectual disabilities and their communities in Northern California through sports, education, and athlete health.

JAMES' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Finished his collegiate career as Middle Tennessee State's alltime leader in recepts. (244), rec. yds. (3,261) and TD recepts. (23).
- On November 26, 2016, James became the sixth player in NCAA FBS history to have 200 yds. rushing and 100 rec. yds. in a game with 207 rushing yds. and 120 rec. yds. vs. Florida Atlantic.

- · In October of 2019, James and his teammates spent time with fans and members of local Silicon Valley businesses to compete in a bowling tournament as the 49ers Foundation hosted the second annual 1st and Bowl Challenge. The funds raised at the event will support the charitable programs of the 49ers Foundation and benefit Bay Area youth.
- · As a youth in Sarasota, FL, James faced a handful of hurdles growing up in a rough environment. James notes that while a majority of his classmates took a different route than he did, he was able to make it out of his tough surroundings by taking the more positive route and maintaining his focus on his craft. "I've always had that independent mindset," James said. "I've learned from being out on the streets, and what you really should be doing."

TONY JEFFERSON II

5-11 × 211 × OKLAHOMA

1.27.92 × CHULA VISTA, CA × 8TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '21

GOLDMINE

- In 2017, Jefferson made a $20,000 donation to a Hurricane Relief fund started by then-Miami Dolphins LB Kiko Alonso to benefit victims in Puerto Rico and elsewhere. Said Jefferson, "I saw what he was doing and he needed a little boost to reach his goal. Obviously, I want to help Puerto Rico however I can. It's a terrible situation over. A lot of my friends are Puerto Rican as well. So that was one thing I could do for the moment."
- Jefferson is extremely active in not only the NFL communities in which he plays, but his hometown of Chula Vista, CA as well. Jefferson often hosts the Tony Jefferson Football Camp and has put on a 7-on-7 Football Tournament for high school teams that included a $10,000 prize for the winning team.

JEFFERSON II'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Father, Tony Sr., was an Olympic boxer in the 1980s. Jefferson II boxed in middle school and earned the nickname 'Cobra.'
- An avid video game player, as part of his pre-game ritual likes to play at least two games of Madden the night before a game.

 At Eastlake (Chula Vista, CA) HS, Jefferson played running back and weakside linebacker before switching to the secondary as a senior. "He's the best football player I've ever coached," said Eastlake coach John McFadden. "He's really incredible."

7.10.97 * MURFREESBORO, TN * 1ST YEAR * ACQUIRED D-7 IN '20

GOLDMINE

• When a deadly tornado hit Tennessee in March of 2020, Jennings turned his scheduled autograph session into a donation drop off benefiting those affected by the tornado. "Just to be able to go down there and help," said Jennings, "It means a lot because this is a place that helped build who I am today. I had just gotten to Knoxville from the Combine and to wake up and see that call about the tornado and see the devastation that's happened, it broke my heart." In addition to signing autographs and talking to young fans, Jennings organized donations to go toward the community. "A lot of people are contacting me and they're like, 'What can we do?'" Jennings said. "And I'm like, 'Just bring donations. I'll take care of the rest.' It just means a lot to be able to just come out here and help the community."

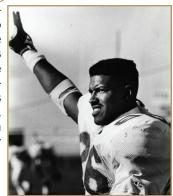

Since childhood, Jennings has immersed himself in athletics. Coming from a family of athletes, Jennings grew up with a competitive spirit. Older sister, Alexis, played collegiate basketball at Kentucky and South Carolina, collecting Second-Team All-SEC honors as a senior with the Gamecocks in 2018-19. "We were always outside going to the playgrounds or to the local YMCA to play against people," said Alexis. "We pretty much played anything and everything. We just loved to be outside doing anything that had to do with sports."

JENNINGS' GOLDEN NUGGETS His first name is pronounced juh-WAHN. In addition to football, Jennings played basketball at Blackman (Murfreesboro, TN) HS.

The First-Team All-American registered 29 catches for 456 yards and four touchdowns as a senior. His athletic prowess earned him a spot in UNA's Hall of Fame for football.

GOLDMINE

- During Week 13 of the 2020 season, 49ers players wore custom cleats as a part of the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Johnson and his teammates highlighted their respective causes, with Johnson representing the Lucile Packard Children's Hospital.
- During the 2016 offseason, Johnson formed a special relationship with Will Randleman, a young man who suffered a traumatic neck injury while playing youth football in the Bay Area. Initially, Johnson was expecting his visit with Will to be a somber one. However, he was greeted by something unexpected. "He was in such amazing spirits. When I was talking to him, I saw his passion and love for football. We connected over that," said Johnson. When

Johnson visits Will, the two talk about the injury, but also go much deeper into their friendship. "We're friends now. It's amazing that we've opened up to each other. I've honestly learned so much from him," Johnson continued. "His attitude has really made me cherish and value the opportunity that I have. I just want to help any way I can and let him know he's not fighting this alone."

 In honor of the NFL's Crucial Catch campaign, the 49ers hosted a fashion show in October of 2017, featuring breast cancer and pediatric cancer warriors in apparel donated by Levi's®. Johnson, along with his 49ers teammates, walked the runway with cancer warriors as they shared their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

JOHNSON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- His first name is pronounced don-TAY.
- When he got the call that he was being drafted by the 49ers, San Francisco's 2014 first-round draft pick DB Jimmie Ward was one of the first phone calls that he received to congratulate him and tell him how excited he was that the two were going to be teammates. Ward and Johnson were roommates at the 2014 Senior Bowl.
- During the 2017 offseason, Johnson visited Langston Hughes Elementary School in East Orange, NJ in an effort to speak to the students and share his words of wisdom. Said Johnson, "We all have a dream and what you decide to do to get there is your choice. Make the best of it!"

• NFL players once again had the chance to share the causes that are important to them during all Week 13 games of 2017, as part of the NFL's My Cause, My Cleats campaign. The initiative was a culmination of collaborative work between the NFL and players across the league. Johnson supported Lucile Packard Children's Hospital for My Cause, My Cleats, where he is an active volunteer. "After connecting with a child undergoing treatment at the hospital, I realized these diseases affect the whole family," said Johnson. "My message to the children in treatment and their families: Your courageous fight and perseverance do not go unnoticed!"

- Johnson, a sports management and business administration major, spent the summer prior to his senior year as a sports marketing intern with French West Vaughan, a marketing/public relations firm based out of Raleigh, NC. During his internship, he worked with some high-profile athletes and clients which provided great experience. "I actually got to do a few things with MoGo, the flavored mouthpiece that [former 49ers QB] Colin [Kaepernick] wears. I did that and then I did a few things for [Cincinnati Bengals DT] Geno Atkins, getting him some suits for the ESPY's." Johnson believes if he weren't a professional football player, that he had found his calling in sports marketing. He said, "That was definitely something I would do. Just the interaction with players and businesses, I felt like that was cool."
- In October of 2017, the 49ers partnered with Bags of Fun to deliver backpacks to children undergoing treatment at Lucile Packard Children's Hospital. Each bag was personalized with educational, interactive and fun toys to provide joy, laughter and relief from the stress and anxiety of being in the hospital. Johnson and his teammates spent time with patients receiving Bags of Fun and other families in the hospital to uplift them during a difficult time.

• The 49ers partnered with Furry Friends Pet Assisted Therapy Services for animal therapy, while providing confidence building activities for students in the Leland High School special needs program in an effort to erase the stigma attached to special needs. Johnson and his teammates spent time with students with autism, mental illness and learning disabilities as they play board games, working on social skills including conversational queues and eye contact through the hands-on activity. Players will also partner with animal therapy dogs to uplift students through one-on-one interactions. "Our job is a day-to-day job," said Johnson. "Something like this allows you to be a human again. You can put work to the side. When it's all said and done, this world should be about helping people. And everyone being respectful to each other, regardless of differences of race or ethnicity. That's what drives me to be out here. It brings me joy."

As part of Salute to Service Month, Johnson, along with his teammates and general manager, John Lynch, visited the USO office at the San Jose Military Entrance Processing Station to spend time with military applicants and their families as they took the Oath of Enlistment and shipped off to basic training.

6-0 × 305 × MISSISSIPPI

1.19.95 * PIEDMONT, SC * 5TH YEAR * ACQUIRED D-6A IN '17

GOLDMINE

• Jones decided to pop the question to his girlfriend, Kayla Fannin, ahead of the San Francisco 49ers Monday Night Football contest against the Cleveland Browns. Fannin and family gathered on the sidelines for pregame photos when Jones distracted his girlfriend and dropped to a knee behind her. The emotional affair was featured on the video boards across Levi's® Stadium with the aid of teammate Solomon Thomas. "I was like 'Let's do it on the field. I know some people you can talk to.' I told him 'Bro, this is your special day. You want to get it perfect," said Thomas. "We're going to go to the right people and get this done the right way.' And he did."

 D.J.'s father, "Big Dave," owns a BBQ and catering business which is based around his two sauces, Big Dave's Texas Red and Big Dave's All-American Hawaiian Bold Gold. Big Dave cooked for over 200 members of the 49ers family, from players to coaches and staff along with their significant others as the team finished 2019 mini-camp.

JONES' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Jones transferred to Ole Miss following two seasons (2013-14) at East Mississippi Community College (Scooba, MS), the school that was featured in the 2016 Netflix documentary "Last Chance U".
- After playing in every game of his junior season with the Rebels, Jones earned the Jeff Hamm Memorial Award as the Rebels' most improved defensive player in the spring of 2016.

 NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Jones and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. CityTeam offers help and hope to those in need with hot meals, shelter, life transformation programs, clothing, hygiene items, learning and career help, discovery Bible studies, and more.

 Prior to Week 2's matchup in Cincinnati during the 2019 season, the 49ers spent time in Youngstown, OH, where they participated in the Community Blitz. Jones and some of his teammates visited the Akron Children's hospital as players went from room to room to visit and meet some of the young patients.

• The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope in December of 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests in-need from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. Jones and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

 Jones transferred to Ole Miss following two seasons (2013-14) at East Mississippi Community College (Scooba, MS), the school that was featured in the 2016 Netflix documentary "Last Chance U". During his two seasons in Scooba, Jones helped lead EMCC to a 24-0 record and back-to-back NJCAA National Championships. Prior to transferring, Jones was listed as the No. 3 junior college prospect in the country by 247sports.com and ESPN.com. Jones and his teammates joined Levi's in support of breast, colon and pediatric cancer warriors at the Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health in October of 2018. 49ers players and cancer warriors took to the runway to show off their attire and share their stories of strength and courage with the audience.

- During the 2017 offseason, Jones took on the role of weatherman for FOX Carolina News. He even sounded the part, speaking of a hot day, "Drink water. Get some fluids in you."
- After transferring, Jones immediately became one of the strongest Rebels. According to NFL.com, he benched 440 pounds, squatted 650 pounds and had a max clean of 330 pounds when he finished his time at East Mississippi Community College.

• The Kaufusi family has a long history of excelling in athletics. All of the Kaufusi brothers followed in the footsteps of their father, Steve, who was a standout football player. His older brother, Bronson, was a defensive lineman at BYU before getting an opportunity to play professionally, spending time with the Baltimore Ravens (2016-17), New York Jets (2018-20) and currently the Green Bay Packers, where he now plays tight end. His younger brother, Devin, is currently a defensive lineman at Utah, and sister, Alexis, played on the basketball team at BYU. Corbin was not only a member of the football team at BYU, but a member of the basketball team as well, where he played three years as a center.

• From 2012-14, Kaufusi served on a mission for the Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints in South Korea. Despite being in a completely new environment, Kaufusi welcomed the challenge. ZACH KERR

6-2 × 334 × DELAWARE

8.29.90 * GAITHERSBURG, MD * 8TH YEAR * ACQUIRED FA IN '21

GOLDMINE

· Kerr's beloved mother, Tinya, battled sarcoidosis for years. After watching how her sarcoidosis, an inflammatory disease that wreaks havoc on virtually any part of the body, affected his mother, Kerr decided to take action. He teamed up with the Foundation for Sarcoidosis Research (FSR) to be a spokesperson to raise awareness. In 2018, he hosted a fundraising campaign called "Sacking Sarcoidosis" to help advance research for the disease with no known cause or cure. FSR has fostered over $4 million in sarcoidosis-specific research efforts and resources to those afflicted. "[My mom] is proud, she tells me that all the time. She tells me how happy she is that I'm using my platform to make a difference. I just gotta really thank her for that, because she's the one that instilled that behavior and that personality in me. I just want sarcoidosis to be one of those things that people are fighting for," Kerr Said. Tinya's diagnosis came around 2001 when she and her three children were living in a homeless shelter in Maryland. She struggled with losing family members, taking care of her children and dealing with an abusive relationship alongside her diagnosis. After years of her battle and intense circumstances, Tinya continues to fight today, in part because of the efforts of her son and foundations like FSR.

KERR'S GOLDEN NUGGET

- Considers his son, Enzo, to be the "best thing that's ever happened to me. I'd rather be a dad any day than anything else."
- Comes from a Jamaican heritage, something he is prideful of to this day. A normal Thanksgiving features ox tail, curry goat, plantains and jerk chicken.
- Plays for his father, Winston, who passed away when Kerr was young.
- Earned the nickname "Dancing Bear" after his memorable sack dance.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

• Once he made it to the NFL, Kerr knew that it was his duty to give back to the community he came from. Kerr grew up in an area of Virginia Beach, VA that was not considered a safe environment. In 2018, Kerr spoke to a group of 300 children as the keynote speaker for the Youth Empowerment Supports Services, YESS, about his childhood and what he had to overcome. Kerr was open and transparent about the adversity he faced in order to create an inclusive and empathetic atmosphere around kids who may be facing the same issues. "That very person that was sitting on my mom's couch was the same person that shot my father seven times and killed him. So, within four months, I was already a statistic. I was a young black dude without a father and a single mother with other kids for her to raise," Kerr said.

JAVON KINLAW

6-5 × 319 × SOUTH CAROLINA

10.3.97 × CHARLESTON, SC × 2ND YEAR × ACQUIRED D-1A IN '20

GOLDMINE

- Kinlaw, known for his work ethic on and off the field, found an extra source of motivation in his daughter, Eden Amara, born in April of 2019. Heading into his final season with South Carolina, Kinlaw reached new heights on the defensive line and earned national accolades. "When she was born, not that he didn't work hard before, but I saw a guy that was on a mission," South Carolina head coach Will Muschamp said. "[He] understood that there was a lot more out there for him right now in taking care of his daughter and taking care of his family." In addition to his growth on the field, Kinlaw saw the change in his mentality, too. "It's been a long journey, and I still have a long way to go. I feel like I needed it at that point and time in my life," he said. "It's helped me mature a little bit more, on and off the field. My biggest responsibility is being a good father."
- Kinlaw and his family faced financial uncertainty throughout his childhood, as they often moved from place to place in order to make ends meet. "You definitely can't give up on yourself," Kinlaw said. "I didn't really expect myself to be here. I didn't expect myself to be a collegiate athlete, but I stuck with it." Despite living in difficult circumstances at times, Kinlaw credits his childhood for his maturity. "It made me a man at a young age, [I] grew up early definitely," said Kinlaw. "It's been a long journey, just coming from the bottom and slowly working my way up. I'm really proud of myself and all that I've accomplished."

GOLDMINE

Mack's passion for giving back to the community has inspired his involvement in multiple charitable initiatives driven by the NFL. In 2011 and 2015, Mack PRO BOW embarked on week-long visits to U.S. troops at military bases in Iraq and throughout the Middle East with the NFL USO program. As both his father and cousin served in the military, he brings a personal touch to every trip and volunteer opportunity he has. "They do a dangerous job so we can enjoy our freedom and way of life. I'm lucky a lot of our soldiers enjoy watching football and I can bring a little slice of home out to them while they are serving," Mack said. His travels have brought him to multiple bases with the opportunity to have an in-depth look at the lives and duties of service men and women. Mack continues this work today. In February of 2020, he joined American Football Without Barriers and conducted a camp alongside other NFL players in Budapest, Hungary. The group conducted two days of free football

• In the 2013 offseason, Mack was selected to participate in the NFL's Second Annual "NFL Pro Hollywood Boot Camp" at Universal Studios, which offered a comprehensive overview of creative disciplines in the film industry including screenwriting, directing, producing and film financing. Mack took part in a mini-film comedy entitled "Et Tu Bruce," a comedic take on the story of Roman emperor, Julius Caesar. The four-day boot camp also provided a mentorship program for players serious about building a career in the film industry. While Mack is devoted to his life on the field, he takes every opportunity to expand his life skills and experiences. "Alex is one of the most unique players I've ever been around," former Browns LB Scott Fujita said. "He's got such great balance in his life. Alex is one of those guys who's very well read, he'll think nothing of just taking off and flying to Thailand in the off-season. But when he shows up to work nobody practices harder or plays harder."

MIKE McGLINCHEY

6-8 × 310 × NOTRE DAME

1.12.95 * PHILADELPHIA, PA * 4TH YEAR * ACQUIRED D-1 IN '18

AWARDS & HONORS

2018: PFWA All-Rookie Team, ESPN All-Rookie Team

GOLDMINE

 McGlinchey was so big for his age as a child, his parents would make sure to bring his birth certificate to his basketball games. Later, at age eight, he was hoping to make his debut in youth football, but decided against it after the league's directors told his family that they would have to place him on a team with eighth and ninth graders due to his size. Embracing such a large frame as a child, McGlinchey constantly threw his weight around with his big family, which featured 22 cousins and 5 siblings. Even at his grandmother's wake, McGlinchey and his extended family engaged in a pickup football game while still dressed in their suits. As Mike puts it, "That's the way she would have wanted it."

 In July of 2020, McGlinchey surprised five families from around the Bay Area by delivering gift baskets in person, while following social distancing protocols. The gift baskets included 49ers gear and $1,000 in Visa gift cards. "With some gift cards and some 49ers gear, hopefully we'll make a couple of people's days and lives a little bit easier," said McGlinchey.

 During Week 13 of the 2020 season, 49ers players wore custom cleats as a part of the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Mc-Glinchey and his teammates highlighted their respective causes, with McGlinchey representing Autism Speaks.

McGLINCHEY'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

Despite being roughly six foot, eight inches tall, McGlinchey doesn't know where his large frame came from. Said McGlinchey jokingly, "My dad is about five foot, eleven inches. My mom is five foot, eight inches. So, it must have been a genetic mutation."

- The 49ers and their families hosted 450 underserved boys and girls from the Bay Area for the first-ever 49ers Hope for the Holidays event. Each child had a once-in-a-lifetime experience traveling through Levi's Stadium and left with a brand new bike, helmet, lock, haircut, shoes, toys, glasses, backpack, dinner and more.
- The 49ers hosted the third annual Crucial Catch Fashion Show presented by Dignity Health in October of 2019, featuring cancer warriors representing all cancers as they modeled apparel donated by Levi's. McGlinchey and his teammates were paired with each of the warriors to share their stories of strength and courage with the audience and walk the runway.

In November of 2019, the 49ers teamed up with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose to serve Thanksgiving dinner to over 300 people in need. Members of the team served food, bussed tables and refilled beverages. The team also provided toiletries and giveaways to all those in attendance.

- NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. McGlinchey and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. McGlinchey represented the charity Autism Speaks, and said, "I play for my brother Jimmy."
- McGlinchey and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace in November of 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events. The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

McGlinchey and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers
Mentorship Academy in September of 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.

• The 49ers worked alongside the humanitarian-relief organization Convoy of Hope in December of 2018, and hosted 1,500 guests inneed from Bay Area nonprofits and schools at Levi's® Stadium for a free holiday resource fair. McGlinchey and his 49ers teammates distributed groceries, toys, books, shoes and other holiday offerings to the guests. The attendees also received haircuts, utilized health resources and took family portraits or professional headshots. Convoy of Hope is a nonprofit organization that directs children's feeding initiatives, hosts community outreach programs and provides disaster response resources to those in need in the Bay Area and throughout the world.

 NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. McGlinchey and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Autism Speaks is dedicated to promoting solutions, across the spectrum and throughout the life span, for the needs of people with autism and their families.

• McKivitz is a lover of outdoor activities, as he frequently spends his time with his dad, Matt, fishing and hunting, for deer, ducks and squirrels. "It was really my dad that got me into it," said McKivitz. "He's got me into everything in the outdoors, really. That's me and dad's time, the outdoor time. I'm just lucky to have that type of figure to learn from and that's kind of what I love most about the outdoors." Matt is known for creating unique hats from the animals the two of them have hunted. The elder McKivitz is famous for being seen sporting one at each of West Virginia's home games.

McKIVITZ'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- In addition to playing football, McKivitz was a four-year basketball player at Union Local (Jacobsburg, OH) HS, earning allstate honors as a senior in 2014.
- Didn't participate in organized football until he enrolled at Union Local before his sophomore year of high school in 2012.
- He caught his first fish, a bluegill, at age 3. McKivitz notes that the largest fish he's ever caught was an 8-pounder which he caught in the Summer of 2019.
- Is a fan of country music, citing Kenny Chesney and the Zac Brown Band among his favorites.

· While the Mountaineers were on a bye in September of 2019, McKivitz returned to his former high school, Union Local, in Ohio to be honored at the homecoming game. The Jets retired McKivitz's number 53 in a pregame ceremony, an honor that McKivitz doesn't take lightly. "It was huge. At the time I didn't really understand the meaning of it. But now, once you look back on it, that number will never see the field again. It's a pretty big honor for me." Former Union Local offensive line coach Brion Schiappa echoed the sentiment, saying, "We're all just so proud of what Colton has accomplished, and it meant a great deal to honor him in that way."

6-2 × 200 × SOUTHERN MISSISSIPPI

8.16.96 * QUITMAN, MS * 4TH YEAR * ACQUIRED D-3B IN '18

GOLDMINE

Prior to the start of his senior year at Southern Mississippi, Moore's younger sister, TavyAnna, passed away suddenly at the age of 16. "My sister was basically my best friend," said Moore. "After every game, no matter what, she was always the first person I'd see. Even if it was a tough loss, she would just always try to encourage me or give me some words of wisdom. For her to be my younger sister, she was kind of like my big sister at times. So, it was pretty hard. But I know she would want me to go out and do my best."

Moore, who changed his Twitter screen name to "#Dolt-4Tavy" shortly before the 2017 season began, found it easier to keep his chin up his senior season because of the inspiration he's drawn from his sister. "When I think about her, it gives me the motivation to keep on going each and every day," he said. "When I'm on the field, if I'm tired or my teammates are tired, I just try to think what she would want me to do. I know she would never want me to quit or give up on anything. So I just try to find it within to go as hard as I can."

 The 49ers and their families hosted 450 underserved boys and girls from the Bay Area for the first-ever 49ers Hope for the Holidays event. Each child had a once-in-a-lifetime experience traveling through Levi's Stadium and left with a brand new bike, helmet, lock, haircut, shoes, toys, glasses, backpack, dinner and more.

MOORE'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

Coming from a town with just two stop lights, Moore is looking forward to having the opportunity to travel. "I can remember as a kid, just going to any big city was a big deal for us," Moore said. "I want to travel to as many foreign countries as I can, just to experience those different cultures."

Moore comes from an athletic family, as his cousin, Antonio McDyess, played 17 seasons in the NBA for the Pistons, Nuggets, Spurs, Suns and Knicks. Originally drafted by the Clippers (then traded to the Nuggets) with the 2nd overall pick, McDyess averaged 12 points and 7 rebounds per game in his lengthy NBA career.

KAI NACUA

6-0 × 205 × BRIGHAM YOUNG

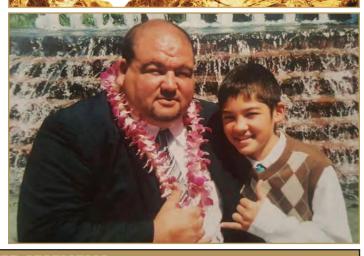

3.3.95 × HENDERSON, NV × 4TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '20

GOLDMINE

· The Nacua family is known for their love of football. The oldest of four boys, Kai set the example for working hard and exceling on the field. Only 14 months apart, Kai and younger brother, Isaiah, visited Brigham Young with father Lionel in 2012 to begin the recruiting process. Immediately following the visit, Lionel knew that this was the place for his two sons. "Honey, this is where I want the boys to go to school," Penina Nacua remembered her husband saying. "For my husband, BYU would be a dream opportunity for the boys." When the brothers both committed to play at Brigham Young, their father's dream became realized. "My husband would be so happy right now. We all are," Penina Nacua said. "It's been such a wonderful day." Unfortunately, Lionel passed away unexpectedly a few months prior at the age of 45. Despite not being able to have his dad see him play in college, Kai always brought a piece of Lionel with him in the game. "That first year after his dad's death, after a touchdown, Kai would always point up to the sky and remember his dad," Penina Nacua said. "It was always kind of the same with the other boys, they would always have a fist to their heart and would look up to dad so they remember him all the time, every day."

NACUA'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

TAYBOR PEPPER

6-4 × 245 × MICHIGAN STATE

5.28.94 * SALINE, MI * 4TH YEAR * ACQUIRED FA IN '20

GOLDMINE

When he's not on the football field, one of Pepper's favorite hobbies is video game streaming. After signing a contract with the New York Giants in 2018, his first purchase was video game equipment. "I got a computer and two monitors," said Pepper. "I've been watching streams on Twitch since early 2012, 2011. It's my main form on entertainment, even today." At one point, Pepper was streaming on a full-time basis, garnering a few hundred views each day playing games like World of Warcraft, Skyrim and more. "More and more people are going to be exposed to technology, which means video games will be more accessible, which will increase the competition level in esports," said Pepper. Following his NFL career, Pepper has considering pursuing a career in esports. "I also would love to find a way to join an esports organization," said Pepper. "The one I have my eye on is 100 Thieves. They have some really good teams, but alongside that, they have a really awesome streetwear presence and are expanding to be more than just an esports organization. I think it'd be a cool look to have a pro athlete be a part of it."

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

An undrafted free agent, Pepper knows that the NFL can be unpredictable. While preparing for an opportunity to sign with a team, Pepper began offering lessons to local long snappers in the East Lansing and Grand Rapids areas. The lessons were a way to help make some extra income as well as extra practice before joining a team. "You just never know when you are going to get a call," said Pepper.

MyCOLE PRUITT

6-2 × 245 × UCLA

3.24.92 × KIRKWOOD, MO × 6TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '21

GOLDMINE

- During the 2020 offseason, during the peak of the COVID-19 pandemic, NFL players such as Pruitt went to great lengths in an effort to stay in shape for the season. Luckily for Pruitt, he turned to his sister, Joelle, for help. Joelle is a fitness trainer who was able to put MyCole through at-home workouts in their makeshift gym. Said Pruitt, "I'm competing against myself. I want to be the best I can be and to do that I got to get out here every day and work, outwork what I did yesterday."
- Pruitt took part in fundraising efforts in 2020 as all Titans tight ends scoring a touchdown pledged a donation to "The 100." The 100 is a non-profit organization providing resources "to further the academic and social development of black male students in Nashville and surrounding Middle Tennessee."

PRUITT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

First name is pronounced my-COLE.

Attended Kirkwood (M0) HS, the same as former NFL WR Jeremy Maclin. In addition to football, played on the basketball and volleyball teams.

JOSH ROSEN

6-4 × 218 × UCLA

2.10.97 × MANHATTAN BEACH, CA × 3RD YEAR × FA IN '20

GOLDMINE

· Rosen began his athletic career at an early age, dominating the tennis circuit from the time he was six-yearsold. By that time, he was competing nationally and working with private instructors. At the age of 12, he was nationally ranked and peaked as the number two player in Southern California in the 12-and-under age bracket. When he entered middle school, however, Rosen's sights switched to the football field, and decided to stop playing tennis in order to develop his skills as a quarterback. Despite trading in his racket for a football, Rosen's early training would benefit him later on. "In tennis, there aren't four 280-pounders coming at you and you don't have to throw the ball on target down the field," former UCLA coach Jim Mora said, "but in terms of lateral movement, being able to move up and back in the pocket, staying square with a wide base, I think all those things absolutely translate."

 In February of 2019, Rosen joined the nonprofit organization 4ocean and 600 volunteers in a community cleanup of Daytona Beach. Having grown up by the water, Rosen uses his platform to raise awareness of the growing pollution issues surrounding the nation's beaches. During the 2018 season, he wore upcycled plastic cleats made from recovered ocean plastic to bring awareness to the growing problem of marine debris.

ROSEN'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Comes from an athletic family as mother, Elizabeth, was captain of the lacrosse team and also played field hockey at Princeton. Older sister, Beatrice, was a two-time NCAA DIII National Team Tennis Champion at Emory University. Younger sister, Lydia, is currently a member of the rowing team at Princeton. At one point, Rosen's parents were also national gold medalists in ice dancing in the 1970s.
- Rosen's father, Charles, is a nationally renowned spine surgeon.
- Served as a youth football coach for four years while attending St. John Bosco (Bellflower, CA) HS.

SAMUEL'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

His father, Galen, gave him the nickname "Deebo" after the notorious bully in the 1995 movie Friday because he was always taking things away from people as a toddler. In high school, his stepmother, Precious Martin, gave him another nickname, "Sweet Feet," due to his speed.

🦫 Lists his favorite player growing up as Reggie Bush.

- Samuel, a South Carolina native, knew he wanted to stay close to home when he went to college. Growing up with eight siblings, family has been a staple in his life. Step-mom, Precious Martin, noted that Deebo and his siblings were always hanging out at the house and encouraging each other to accomplish their goals. One of her goals was to finally get her college degree after struggling in college during her youth. Deebo, like with the other members of his family, was there to support her, often helping her with her homework. "Deebo used to help me a lot with my math courses, he's real good in math," said Martin. "They've seen me working hard as far as working and working hard at school, a lot of sacrifices I had to make and a lot of things I had to miss out with them. I think that plays a major part in my children wanting to further their education." Her goal was accomplished when both she and Deebo graduated from college.
- A retail management major at South Carolina, Samuel is passionate about fashion and his appearances in front of the camera. His fashion flair became something he was known for during his time in Columbia, usually with help from his stepmom, Precious. Martin and Samuel would often video chat while he was away from home so she could help pick out his outfits. "I love it. It makes me feel like he needs me," she said. "I can't get enough of it. I don't know if he does it more for me or more for him." Samuel was even referred to as the best dressed player at SEC Media Day. When asked about Samuel's style, a former coach remarked that his style doesn't always coincide with his personality. "Coming through here he'd always be dressed to the max. It's surprising knowing how humble he is and soft-spoken he is, but it's almost like his clothing is his alter-ego," said Steven Fusaro, who coached Deebo during his time at Chapman High. Following his football career, Samuel hopes to start his own clothing line Sanu's mother, Aminata Koroma, left her West African home of Sierra Leone in 1975, seeking a better life in New Jersey, away from the civil war that plagued the nation from 1991 to 2002. Koroma returned to Sierra Leone in the mid-1990s, bringing Mohamed and his sister, Jabbie, with her. After a few years, Sanu returned to New Jersey with Jabbie and her husband as Koroma stayed behind to run an orphanage in her hometown. "She is well known around there," said Sanu. "She wants to give back to those who are there. Not everyone is as fortunate as I am, as blessed as I am. She's trying to give everybody the same opportunity in life that I got." Sanu is appreciative of his mother's sacrifices, and works to return the favor in any way he can. "My mom is very humble, doesn't ask for much. Whatever she does, I'm there for her," said Sanu. "She's grateful for whatever I'm there for. She's just amazing, and proud of me for accomplishing my dreams and my goals."

NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. Sanu and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. Sanu represented former Bengals teammate Devon Still's daughter, Leah, on his cleats with an illustration of her and the words "Still Strong" written across the sides of his cleats to raise awareness for childhood cancer. During Sanu's time with the Cincinnati Bengals, Leah was battling Stage 4 neuroblastoma and celebrated being 5-years cancer free in 2020.

SANU'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

Participated in football, basketball and track & field at South Brunswick (NJ) HS.

Growing up, Sanu's favorite sport was soccer, due in part to his father, the late Samuel Sanu. "My dad actually played professional soccer back in West Africa. So, growing up that was my first love. I loved playing soccer."

• In July of 2019, Sanu hosted a football camp for local youth in his hometown of South Brunswick, NJ. The free camp was available to all boys and girls in grades 1-8 and included hands-on instruction and drills from Sanu and his fellow coaches and various souvenirs. Sanu has hosted the camp in previous years and enjoys being able to give back to the kids in his hometown. "I'm just out here to give them a good time, have some fun, and get out here and play a little bit."

DAKODA SHEPLEY

6-5 × 290 × BRITISH COLUMBIA

12.27.94 × WINDSOR, ON × 2ND YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '20

GOLDMINE

· Prior to signing as an undrafted free agent with the New York Jets in 2018, Shepley worked as an extra in the 2018 blockbuster, Deadpool 2. He appears as "Omega Red," a villain known for his fights with Wolverine. As the movie was being filmed in British Columbia near Shepley's college campus, his teammates told him about signing up to be an extra in films as a way to make some extra money. He was later contacted by the production company to come in for a film called "Caribbean Blue." When he went to a costume fitting, he saw the concept art and figured out what the movie actually was. "I was like, no way, this is 'Deadpool," Shepley said. Although Shepley was supposed to film for 21 days, Shepley's football schedule took first priority. "I told them, 'I have to play football. I'm not an actor yet," Shepley said. Despite taking on a smaller role, Shepley enjoyed the process. "It was a pretty cool experience," Shepley said. "My parents thought I'd be the next The Rock, an acting football player."

He said, 'You could get a scholarship in football and maybe play professionally,' and so on," said Shepley.

TRENT SHERFIELD

6-1 × 219 × VANDERBILT

2.26.96 * DANVILLE, IL * 4TH YEAR * ACQUIRED FA IN '21

GOLDMINE

Sherfield grew up in a tough neighborhood only two hours outside of Chicago. Raised by a single mother who gave birth at the age of 16, his family who moved around year after year, often in uncomfortable circumstances such as motels and cramped apartments with his grandparents, uncles and late stepdad (pictured below). When Sherfield reached high school, his mother came to the realization she could not afford to pay for his college. On that day, Sherfield made it his ultimate goal to earn a scholarship. Years later, he walked across the stage at Vanderbilt with a degree in medicine, health and society with a minor in corporate strategy and four varsity football letters. "It's being able to show kids back home that I'm from the same city," Sherfield said. "I grew up on the same street. In reality, there's nothing you can't do. You have to work for what you want, but I wouldn't have it any other way."

SHERFIELD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Cites one of his biggest mentors in football is Vanderbilt legend and former 49ers WR Jordan Matthews, who also spent time with the Eagles and Bills. While Matthews helps him on the field, Sherfield says his off-the-field advice has helped him become an avid reader as well to sharpen his brain.
- Raised by his small family of his mother, grandparents and two uncles, who inspired his love for football. His whole family would drive five hours each game day to watch him play for the Commodores.

 Sherfield's dreams shifted to giving back to the community that raised him. At Vanderbilt, he served as a mentor at the local Boys & Girls Club and interned at the Martha O'Bryan Center in Nashville. He hopes to bring that experience back to his hometown to build an indoor athletic facility for the youth as he remembers traveling two hours to Chicago every weekend to practice and workout. In 2019, he raised over $1,500 for the Danville football team and started a free football camp at Danville High School. He also honors his hometown in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats initiative as in 2018 he wore cleats that read, "No more silence, end gun violence,' after he knew 14 people killed in his community due to gun violence in that year alone. Although life presented him challenges along the way, those challenges have written Sherfield's story, something he could not have faced without his single mother. "My mother taught me from a young age that you have to work for everything you want," he said. "Nothing in life is easy, so you'd better go get it."

If a "significant crisis event" occurs, Joshua must be ready to take a high-priority conference call, regardless of what is happening on the field. "I'm always curious about who he's talking to when he takes those calls, but he can't say," Justin said. "When I'm playing a game, I obviously don't know what's going on with him," said Justin. "When I've been with him at my younger siblings' games, he'll get one of those calls, you just know it's important."

KENTAVIUS STREET

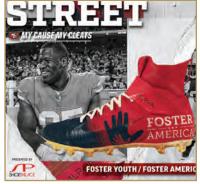

6-2 × 287 × NORTH CAROLINA STATE

5.8.96 * GREENVILLE, NC * 3RD YEAR * ACQUIRED D-4 IN '18

GOLDMINE

- During Week 13 of the 2020 season, 49ers players wore custom cleats as a part of the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Street and his teammates highlighted their respective causes, with Street representing Foster America.
- Street's grandfather, who served in the Marine Corps, gave him advice in the first grade that would last a lifetime. He told Kentavius that no matter the circumstance, he was going to have to outwork the competition. Street states that he has taken that mindset and carried it with him everywhere he goes - in the classroom, on the field, in the weight room and in the community.

 One of Street's favorite memories comes from a tightly-contested, 10-3 home victory over Notre Dame in 2016. The game was played under unique circumstances, as Hurricane Matthew had recently struck the east coast and transformed the field to a 100-yard slip and slide with a constant downpour in addition to 20-plus mile per hour winds attacking the field. "It was a battle to the very end," Street said. "It was such a fun, well-fought victory."

• Members of the 49ers defensive line spent time with 25 local youth from the Fam 1st Foundation at Shoe Palace for a special holiday shopping experience on December 16, 2019. The Fam 1st Foundation is based in Oakland and focuses on underserved youth, aiming to build new generations of innovative thinkers to create solutions for the future of Oakland and beyond.

STREET'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Street's athletic ability was featured in a viral video of his 700-pound squat at a NC State workout.
- His cousin, Kiwaukee Thomas, played eight seasons in the NFL with the Jaguars, Bills and Dolphins. After his playing career was over, Kiwaukee got into coaching, was named the head football coach at Middle Georgia State University and is now the defensive coordinator at Oklahoma Panhandle State University.
- Along with Bradley Chubb (Denver Broncos 5th overall), B.J. Hill (New York Giants 69th overall) and Justin Jones (Los Angeles Chargers 84th overall), Street became the final player from NC State's starting defensive line to be drafted in 2018. It marks the first time since 2013 that a school's entire starting defensive line was selected in the same draft (LSU 2013).

- Street and his fellow rookies participated in the annual 49ers Mentorship Academy in September of 2018. The Mentorship Academy, partnering with USA Football, is a three-step program designed to provide high school football players with the opportunity to develop the skills necessary to succeed and be leaders on and off the field. The rookie class invited the high schoolers to the team facility, where they shared opinions and lessons over a meal and fun competitions.
- The 49ers and their families hosted 450 underserved boys and girls from the Bay Area for the first-ever 49ers Hope for the Holidays event. Each child had a once-in-a-lifetime experience traveling through Levi's Stadium and left with a brand new bike, helmet, lock, haircut, shoes, toys, glasses, backpack, dinner and more.

NATE SUDFELD

6-6 × 227 × INDIANA

10.7.93 * MODESTO, CA * 6TH YEAR * FA IN '21

GOLDMINE

Sudfeld comes from a family of missionaries who have made their family business helping others in Third World Nations. His grandfather, Bob Pagett, founded a humanitarian relief organization ran by the Sudfeld family called Assist International that provides medical supplies and provisions with more than 700 projects in over 65 countries. The foundation also provides scholarship funds, freshwater solutions, education and women's empowerment programs. Through the organization, Sudfeld traveled to Uganda, Kenya and Romania on missions of his own. Sudfeld also brings an element of his game to those he helps, founding sports camps at local schools and building recreation courts and facilities for basketball, volleyball, football and soccer. Volunteers also provide organized practices and athletic shoes to open activities to all participants. "I'm really glad I was able to get out of my little California bubble at a young age," Sudfeld said. "I kind of have a heart for that now." Both of Sudfeld's two older brothers work for the foundation as project managers, while his father currently serves as president and CEO. Charity Navigator gives the organization its highest, four-star rating, and a 91.45 score on a 100-point scale.

SUDFELD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Has a set of twin brothers, both who played football. Matthew was a WR at Brown University (2007-11) and Zach was a TE at the University of Nevada (2007-12) and also spent time with the New York Jets (2013-16) and New England Patriots (2013). Nate and Zach reunited on the field in 2016 when Washington faced the Jets in a preseason matchup.
- Grew up in northern California, 88 miles from the 49ers practice facility. His neighbor and childhood best friend, PGA Tour golfer Bryson DeChambeau, inspired his competitiveness and love for every sport at a young age. "He pushed me and I pushed him. At some level, it gave us this competitive mindset," DeChambeau said. "He was my best friend."

• Sudfeld honors his family's charity work each year for the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats initiative. When Sudfeld joined the Eagles for their Super Bowl LII championship, he and his family received support from friends of the foundation in Romania, Africa, Hungary and Tanzania. "Early on, I was wondering what would I get out of it and what could I give to it, like how can I help?" Sudfeld said. "Actually, going on the trips and going a couple of times I felt, not in a selfish way, that I was getting more out of it than I feel like I am giving. The spirit out there and the people living a simple life, they don't have much but they have a lot of joy in helping each other. It is humbling to give back and see the tangible influence and help that is going on, so I definitely have a heart for stuff like that."

• In August of 2020, Tartt with Vitality partnered Bowls in San Jose to create the Smart Tartt Smoothie. Ten percent of the proceeds from the smoothie will go to the East Side Union High School District, which serves more than 22,000 students throughout San Jose, including a large population of underprivileged students that come from low income families. East Side Union High School District is using the donated proceeds to provide students with necessary school supplies, such as access to mobile hotspots and technology devices during a remote learning model in the fall, as well as clothing and transportation vouchers. "The partnership with Vitality Bowls came naturally, as I was already finding myself stopping in for a smoothie about five times a week," said Tartt. "The Smart Tartt is a healthy and fresh form of energy for me, and it's definitely my go-to before and after I train. I think everyone will enjoy the smoothie we developed and it's a great way to help local families with a portion of the proceeds."

TARTT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- First name is pronounced juh-KWAH-skee.
- Teamed with Next Level Football Camp for his inaugural camp in his hometown of Mobile, AL, on July 9, 2016. The goal of the camp was to allow one day of football training to impact the other 364 days of the year by participants being partnered with a mentor/coach from the camp.
- Named the 49ers Thomas Herrion Memorial Award winner for the 2015 season. The award, as voted on by the coaches, was established in 2005 by 49ers owners Denise and John York and is presented to a rookie or first-year player who best represents the dream of Thomas Herrion.
- Became the sixth player selected in the NFL Draft in Samford school history and holds the distinction of being the first player drafted in the second round or higher.
- Reunited with high school teammate and 49ers 2014 1st round pick DB Jimmie Ward. Both are products of Davidson HS in Mobile, AL. The pair won the Class 6A Region 1 football championship as the school's starting safeties in 2009.

GOLDMINE (CONTINUED)

- On November 26th, 2019, the 49ers teamed up with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose to serve Thanksgiving dinner to over 300 people in need. Members of the team served food, bussed tables and refilled beverages. The team also provided toiletries and giveaways to all those in attendance.
- While visiting his hometown of Mobile during his youth football camp in July of 2016, Tartt was given the key to the city. "If anybody would have told me I would be getting a key to the city of Mobile, I'd have thought they were crazy. It's a wonderful feeling."
- Tartt provided 75 backpacks full of school supplies to 7th graders at Scarborough Model Middle School of Mobile in preparation for that upcoming school year. Said Tartt, "I met with the Mayor and his team and they decided that this would be the best thing to do. Every year, I'm just trying to do something to give back to my community. It was great to see how happy the kids were."

• Tartt's young football career has been heavily influenced by his family. He played his first year of organized football in 2009 at Davidson HS in Mobile, AL, to honor his grandfather, Alfred Lewis, who passed away during the summer before his senior year. "The football coaches and my friends wanted me to come out and play, and he really wanted me to play. I really wanted to play again ever since he passed away, so I do this in his memory." Additionally, Jaquiski chose to attend Samford University at the urging of his mother, a traveling nurse who wanted to go there herself because of their pharmacy program.

 A two-time All-American and All-Southern Conference selection, Tartt was the first player in Samford school history to be invited to play in the Reese's Senior Bowl. Just the sixth player selected in the NFL draft in school history, Tartt holds the distinction of being the first player drafted in the second round or higher from Samford University.

- Growing up in Jamaica, Tomlinson always aspired to serve in the healthcare industry. After his football career, he plans to become a neurosurgeon. Tomlinson has always taken education seriously, commuting 90 minutes each day to and from school to receive a quality education in high school. He went on to graduate from Duke University with a bachelor's degree in evolutionary anthropology and psychology. While currently focused on football, Tomlinson still finds time to shadow doctors to help prepare for a career in the medical field after his retirement from the NFL. Athletes everywhere can look to Tomlinson as proof that balancing academics and athletics can be difficult but achievable. He enjoys being a role model for kids, but plans to take it a step further. "I want to improve the healthcare system in Jamaica. I believe it is the best way to directly help people in need and make a difference," said Tomlinson.

 NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during a designated home game between Weeks 13-15 of 2018. Tomlinson and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding. The National Alliance on Mental Illness is dedicated to building better lives for the millions of Americans affected by mental illness.

In 2014, Tomlinson won the Orange Bowl-FWAA Courage Award which is presented by a select group of writers from the FWAA to an athlete that displays courage on and off the field, including overcoming an injury or living through hardship. "My mother has been the greatest influence on my life, and none of this recognition would be possible without her sacrifice, love and support," said Tomlinson as he received the award. After growing up in Jamaica and moving to the United States when he was 10, he gives all the credit for who he is today to his mother. "It means the world to me to make her proud. If not for her, I could still be in Jamaica, living a life of poverty. Every time I go home or have an opportunity to talk to my mother, she always tells me before she hangs up, 'Laken, I love you and I'm extremely proud of you and everything that you do for our family. Keep doing what you are doing. The Lord has a plan for you, Laken."

GOLDMINE

Throughout his NFL career, Verrett has been involved in multiple community outreach initiatives, looking to positively impact the public. One that he frequently partakes in is the Play 60 program, which encourages kids to spend at least 60 minutes a day outside. During the events, players engage with young fans through drills, scrimmages, and more. As a professional football player, Verrett knows the importance of staying active and passes that wisdom on when he can. "Follow your heart, keep your dreams alive," he said. "That was something I did when I was younger. I just kept my dream alive, all about football. Making sure I took care of my body. All the right things to keep me going."

Prior to the 2016 spring workouts, Verrett attempted to break a Guinness World Record. To break the record, Verrett needed to have some pretty decent speed. Evidently, he was too fast. On National High Five Day, the cornerback tried to break the world record for most high fives in one minute. In order to break the record, his attempt needed to be captured on video with a clear shot of each high five. Three hundred fans lined up to help him with the feat. Reaching every hand in 40 seconds, Verrett ran too quickly for the camera to follow him on a golf cart. Sadly, Verrett had to return to his workout and wasn't able to officially beat the previous record.

In December of 2018, Verrett spent his time with the Vacaville Neighborhood Boys and Girls Club, providing the kids with 50 winter coats, gift cards, and a bounty of toys. "Our Christmas party brings together the best in our community, especially the kids. They never know what gifts they will receive, or if they will even receive a gift," said Anna Eaton, executive director of the club. "[they] all were especially warmed to know that a community member thought of them."

VERRETT'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Named the 49ers Hazeltine Iron Man Award winner for the 2020 season. The award is named for former linebacker Matt Hazeltine, a 13-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from ALS, and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player as voted upon by the defensive coaches.
- Named the 49ers Ed Block Courage Award recipient in 2019. The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD.
- Is distant cousins with ESPN SportsCenter anchor Stan Verrett.
- In June of 2019, Verrett held "Feeva's Fun Fest" in Fairfield, CA, which hosted free activities such as bubble soccer, kickball, Jenga, cornhole and connect four, among others.
- Appeared on an episode of The Tonight Show with Jimmy Fal-Ion prior to the 2014 NFL Draft at Radio City Music Hall. Verrett starred alongside seven other Draft hopefuls, including Odell Beckham Jr. and Teddy Bridgewater.

Marvel's blockbuster Black Panther is a favorite of many, including cornerback Jason Verrett. When the film debuted in February of 2017, Verrett took 350 local students from Rodriguez High School to a screening. Verrett, a 2009 graduate of the school, acted like a superhero himself, hoping to uplift the kids who might not have been able to afford to see the film otherwise. The movie, which is set in Oakland and a fictional country in Africa called Wakanda, is highlighted by an African superhero and sports a primarily African-American cast. "I just think it's great. It's Marvel, first of all, plus it's so great for young kids to be able to have a superhero they admire and draw inspiration from," Verrett said.

JIMMIE WARD

7.18.91 × MOBILE, AL × 8TH YEAR × ACQUIRED D-1 IN '14

AWARDS & HONORS 2015: Hazeltine Iron Man Award

GOLDMINE

 Ward and his teammates surprised guests of the CityTeam Men's Program and House of Grace in November of 2018, at Levi's Stadium. The group believed they were just taking a tour of the stadium, but they were in fact joining the 49ers players for a night full of exciting events.

The guests received a makeover and haircut, selected a new outfit from Dockers, snapped a new headshot and then shared a Thanksgiving dinner with the 49ers players.

- Ward's family is no stranger to professional athletics. He is the cousin of former NBA player, Caron Butler. Butler, 10 years older than Ward, watched him grow up in Racine, WI, prior to Ward's move to Mobile, AL.
- While playing youth football, Ward went by the nickname 'Neko' and was teammates with former Alabama QB AJ McCarron with the Mobile Youth Football's Municipal Raiders. He played linebacker for the team that won multiple Youth Bowl Championships in Mobile.

• Growing up in Mobile, AL, Ward knew when to separate himself from others in his neighborhood. Said Ward, "From where I come from, the neighborhood that I grew up in, a lot of people don't make it out. There's a lot of stuff. They either flunk out of school, end up having a child so they have to drop out of school and raise that child, or end up going to jail. It really just made me want to do something more than what my peers were doing." Ward would later surround himself with positive influences.

WARD'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Named the 49ers Hazeltine Iron Man Award winner for the 2015 season. The award is named for former linebacker Matt Hazeltine, a 13-year performer who played more seasons at linebacker than any other 49ers player. Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from ALS, and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. The award is given annually to the most courageous and inspirational defensive player as voted upon by the defensive coaches.
- On the day he was selected by the 49ers in the 1st round of the 2014 NFL Draft, drove three hours to New Orleans to purchase a new purse for his mother's birthday. He said, "I never really bought her anything expensive, because you're a kid. Growing up you would write a card, color a card or just buy a card or simple flowers. That's the most I ever did. She likes purses, so I just decided to get her a purse. It really didn't matter how much it cost, you just wanted to see that smile." His act of generosity shows his true character. "I'm not a selfish person. I just like to see and make other people smile too. It makes me feel better as a person."
- Was best friends growing up with 49ers 2015 2nd round draft pick, S Jaquiski Tartt. The two were teammates at W.P. Davidson High School in Mobile, AL.

 The 49ers and their families hosted 450 underserved boys and girls from the Bay Area for the first-ever 49ers Hope for the Holidays event. Each child had a once-in-a-lifetime experience traveling through Levi's Stadium and left with a brand new bike, helmet, lock, haircut, shoes, toys, glasses, backpack, dinner and more.

 NFL players had the opportunity to participate in the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign during Week 14 of the 2019 season. Warner and his teammates represented their respective causes with custom-designed cleats in an effort to raise awareness and funding.  The 49ers LBs welcomed eight foster youth from Unity Care to Levi's Stadium in December of 2019. This group received gifts and much needed resources, like bedding and new shoes, this holiday season. The linebackers chose to support foster youth to honor teammate Dre Greenlaw who is a former foster youth.

 In October of 2019, Warner teamed up with the St. Baldrick's Foundation, a volunteer-powered charity that funds childhood cancer research grants. During the fundraiser, they assisted in shaving the heads of volunteers as a symbol of support of the cancer warriors.

 The 49ers joined forces with Martha's Kitchen of San Jose as part of their Community Tuesday kickoff event in September of 2018. Warner and teammates took part in the event by serving dinner to nearly 200 residents in need, refilling beverages and bussing tables. Both the 49ers and Levi's Stadium partner with Martha's Kitchen throughout the year by donating excess food after stadium events. Martha's Kitchen's mission is to "feed the hungry with dignity, no questions asked, no judgements made."

- · When Williams was young, he and his family lost his paternal grandfather, John L. Hawkins, due to Type 2 diabetes. It affected Williams deeply, saying, "Not being able to build that relationship with my grandfather, sometimes I still think about it." To honor his memory and expand the awareness and prevention of diabetes, Williams began to serve as an ambassador for the American Diabetes Association in 2014, and has done so ever since in order to help others focus on the importance of wellness in life. "As we all know, it affects a lot of Americans, not just around the world, but in America we have almost 30 million people living with the disease," Williams said. "It's almost catastrophic, and it can be without the right awareness. Obviously, I lost my grandfather at a young age to this disease, so I have a special interest in working with the ADA every year. To me, I feel like it's something that I have to do," Williams said. "I owe it to my family and to myself to do."
- During Week 13 of the 2020 season, 49ers players wore custom cleats as a part of the NFL's annual My Cause, My Cleats campaign. Williams and his teammates highlighted their respective causes, with Williams representing the DFSP Foundation.

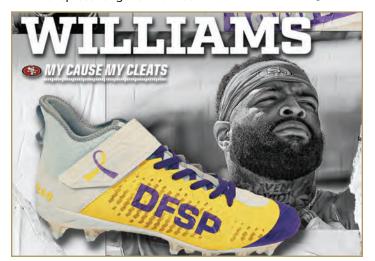

WILLIAMS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Was the 49ers 2020 Garry Niver Award winner, presented annually by the San Francisco Chapter of the Pro Football Writers of America to a 49ers player for his cooperation and professionalism in helping the pro football writers do their jobs.
- Honored in his hometown of Longview, Texas, with "Trent Williams Day" on May 12, 2010 to celebrate his selection in the NFL Draft.

In May of 2017, Williams returned to his roots as he walked through the Lobo Stadium tunnel at his alma mater of Longview High School. Williams returned to Texas to partake in a ceremony held by the school for the 2006 Longview graduate in conjunction with the football team's Green-White Game in order to retire his No. 71 jersey. He became the second former player to have his iersev number retired in the school's history. "It's a surreal feeling," Williams said. "Never in my wildest dreams did I ever imagine getting my jersey retired, especially at a high school like this that's rich in tradition in football. To know that I've done enough in my career, and I feel like I've got a lot left to do, to have my jersey retired, it's a blessing.'

Throughout his career, Williams has made it a priority to assist and help those who shaped him in his younger years. In 2015, Williams donated $25,000 to his high school alma mater to help fund EKG screening for every member of the football program. He has also donated a new locker room, new shoes for elementary students and Christmas gifts for those in need in his hometown of Longview, Texas. "This is home." his mother, Veronica. said. "Trent loves giving back to the community here. When it's involving children, that's his first love." Williams' former high school coach, John King, added, "The money he's given our football program, our athletic program, our high school, the at-risk kids throughout the district and in this community, he's never forgotten home. He's done a lot of things that haven't gotten recognition. Just a tremendous person."

• In June of 2018, Williams hosted the 5th Life and Skills Camp, also known as Silverback football camp, at Lobo Stadium in his hometown of Longview, Texas. Williams hosted more than 100 athletes during the afternoon with assistance from Los Angeles Rams LB Travin Howard, who also attended Longview High School, as well as other volunteer coaches. Williams enjoys being able to give back to his community, and said, "This is where I grew up, the place that birthed me. Anytime I get a chance to come back and connect with the community, I love it."

· Willis comes from a family of hard workers, with that example set for him by his dad, Calvin. Calvin Willis worked in the same auto shop for over 20 years. As he grew in the business, he worked harder to provide a better life for his family. The Willis' moved multiple times throughout Jordan's childhood, including switching grade schools twice and middle schools twice, all across the greater Kansas City area. "I've got a lot of diversity," Jordan said. "Whether it was a social education when we lived in the inner city, and I had a private education as well, so I got a wide variety of different experiences." Eventually, Willis began at Rockhurst High School, an all-boys prep school in Kansas City. A natural-born leader, he used his ambition and work ethic to help those on and off the field, and was elected student-body president by his peers as a senior. "If I'm not playing football, I want to go into coaching," says Willis. "But if it was a job outside of football, I would go into politics, but I would want to go into local politics, because I would want to actually affect people."

WILLIS' GOLDEN NUGGETS

Served as the student body president as a senior at Rockhurst (Kansas City, MO) HS.

Comes from a large family, and is the seventh of 11 children.

AWARDS & HONORS

2020: FedEx Ground Player of the Week (Week 7)

GOLDMINE

- Wilson holds a close relationship with his father, Jeff Sr. His father, who played running back at the University of Texas-Arlington before the school decided to end the program, has guided Jeff Jr. throughout his athletic career and life. "He's always been a major part of my life," Wilson said. "I don't even remember him missing a single one of my games. That's the type of father he is."
- When he was 13 years of age, Wilson moved to Elkhart, TX, to live with his father, Jeff make up stuff. That was the beauty of it."

WILSON'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Has been drumming since he was two years old. His father, Wilson Sr., sang in a gospel group and Wilson backed him up on the drums.
- Grew up in Elkhart, TX, roughly 10 miles from the hometown of RB Adrian Peterson. Wilson and his dad, Jeff Wilson Sr., regularly attended Peterson's high school games, breaking down his play to emulate his style in practice.

6-0 × 208 × ILLINOIS

3.19.90 × WASHINGTON, DC × 10TH YEAR × ACQUIRED FA IN '21

GOLDMINE

GOLDMINE

• Woerner grew up in a busy household, as he was brother to six siblings: Rachel, Allen, Peter, Jack, Sally and Lucy. As the second youngest of seven kids, Woerner gained his competitive spirit by trying to keep up with his older brothers. Whether it was on the playground or out hunting, Woerner always pushed himself to keep up the pace set by his siblings. "People ask me, 'Who did you look up to when you were young?" Woerner said. "I don't say some pro athlete or college athlete. I've always looked up to my big brothers. They're who I spent all my time with. Definitely, without a doubt, they're the biggest influences in my life."

WOERNER'S GOLDEN NUGGETS

- Has caught several sharks while fishing in the ocean.
- Woerner followed in the footsteps of his uncle, Scott Woerner, a College Football Hall of Fame defensive back who helped Georgia win a national title in 1980 and was drafted in the 3rd round (80th overall) of the 1981 NFL Draft by the Atlanta Falcons. Additionally, Woerner's father, Kent, was a fullback at Furman University.

 Growing up in a small town in Georgia, Woerner and his family love outdoor activities, as they all enjoy hunting wild turkey and other game in the area. "I think a lot of it was just being outside playing," he said. "Mom and Dad would make us stay outside for the whole day. We'd go inside to get water and they'd just shove us right back outside. We were always in the woods running around."

With his rushing TD, he extended his career high for most consecutive games scoring a TD and became the first member of the 49ers since WR Jerry Rice in 1991 to score at least 1 TD in each of the team's first 4 games of a season ... WR Brandon Aiyuk registered 2 recepts. for 18 yds. and saw his only rush of the game go for a 38-yd. TD, marking the 2nd TD of his career. 49ers 20, Bengals 16 Super Bowl XXIII January 22 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

In what proved to be the most exciting Super Bowl game of the decade, it was the play of a collected veteran that delivered San Francisco its third NFL Championship, QB Joe Montana connected on 23-of-36 passes for 357 yards, but no completion would be more important than his last. The game opened at a stand still with neither team having any ability to move the ball offensively. San Francisco opened the scoring on a 41-yard field goal by K Mike Cofer late in the first guarter. The Bengals responded with K Jim Breech's 34-vard field goal and the teams headed to the half locked in a 3-3 tie. The third quarter began with the teams trading field goals before the Bengals broke the touchdown draught. Following a 49ers field goal, Cincinnati KR Stanford Jennings took the Cofer kickoff and returned it 93 yards for a touchdown. It didn't take long for San Francisco to respond. Montana hit WR Jerry Rice for a 31-yard completion and followed that with a swing pass that RB Roger Craig turned into a 40-yard gain. Two plays and 16 seconds later, Montana found Rice in the corner of the end zone for a 10-vard touchdown. An 11-play, 46-yard drive by the Bengals resulted in a 46-yard field goal by Breech, giving Cincinnati a 16-13 lead and leaving the 49ers just 3:20 on the clock. San Francisco received the kickoff and returned it to the 20, but a penalty moved the ball back to the eightvard line. What happened next is legendary. Montana connected on five consecutive passes to move the ball to the Bengals 35. A holding penalty moved the ball back 10 yards, but Montana responded with a 27-yard completion to Rice and another first down. A quick hit to Craig followed by a timeout left the Niners with second and two from the Bengals 10-vard line. Following the timeout. Montana hit WR John Taylor in the middle of the end zone for a touchdown and San Francisco had its third Super Bowl title of the decade.

49ers 49, Chargers 26 Super Bowl XXIX January 29 at Joe Robbie Stadium (Miami, FL)

QB Steve Young set a Super Bowl record with six touchdown passes and WR Jerry Rice hauled in three scoring passes for the second time in his career in the world championship game. The 49ers stars led an offensive explosion that carried the team to a 49-26 win over San Diego. San Francisco wasted little time getting on the scoreboard as it took just three plays following the game's opening kickoff to crack the Chargers end zone. Following a FB William Floyd four-yard run and an 11-yard pass from Young to WR John Taylor, Young connected with Rice streaking down the middle of the field for a 44-yard scoring strike. Following a San Diego punt, San Francisco was back in the end zone again after only three plays as Young, once again, challenged the middle of the Chargers defense, this time with a pass to RB Ricky Watters, which netted a 51-vard score. The Chargers made things close for awhile, however, putting together a 13-play, 78-yard drive that concluded with a RB Natrone Means one-yard touchdown plunge to make it 14-7 after one quarter of play. The 49ers began to break the game open in the second quarter. They followed the San Diego touchdown with a 70-vard drive that culminated with a five-vard scoring pass from Young to Floyd. Two possessions later, following a partially blocked punt by RB Adam Walker, the Niners drove 49 yards for another score on an eight-yard toss from Young to Watters. K John Carney's 31-yard field goal with less than two minutes remaining in the half closed the margin at intermission to 28-10. The Niners put the game away in the third quarter, running the lead to 42-10 on a pair of long drives that ended with Watters' third score of the evening, a nine-yard blast up the middle, and a 15-yard pass from Young to Rice. Rice caught his third touchdown of the night on a seven-yard toss from Young in the fourth guarter, enabling Young to break QB Joe Montana's record of five Super Bowl touchdown passes. Young was named the game's Most Valuable Player, while Rice turned in the second best receiving performance in Super Bowl history with 10 catches for 149 yards, while tving his own record with three scoring receptions.

However, K Chris Jacke's 44-yard attempt was blocked by S Tim McDonald and the 49ers took over at their 34. On the first play from scrimmage, QB Steve Young hit FB Adam Walker in the flat, but LB Wayne Simmons jarred the ball loose and CB Craig Newsome returned the fumble 31 yards for the touchdown. Green Bay also scored on its next two possessions, a three-yard pass from QB Brett Favre to TE Keith Jackson and a 13-vard toss from Favre to TE Mark Chmura, San Francisco scored its first points of the game late in the half when K Jeff Wilkins nailed a 21-yard field goal with two minutes remaining. The 49ers took their first possession of the third guarter and marched 80 yards for a touchdown, when Young plunged in from the one, cutting the deficit to 21-10. On the 14-play drive, Young was 9-of-10 and ran the ball twice. Again, the Packers responded to the challenge, using a pair of Jacke field goals (27 yards in the third quarter, 26 yards in the fourth quarter), and boosted Green Bay's lead to 27-10. San Francisco's final score of the season came on a two-yard plunge by RB Derek Loville with 50 seconds remaining in the game. Young completed 32 passes in an NFL postseason record 65 attempts, for 328 yards and two interceptions. He also led the 49ers in rushing, gaining 77 yards in nine attempts, including a 40vard sprint after he was flushed from the pocket, WR Jerry Rice led the receivers with 11 catches for 117 yards, while TE Brent Jones gained 112 yards on eight receptions. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield recorded a team-high 10 tackles and a sack for a loss of five yards, while LB Ken Norton Jr. added nine tackles.

49ers 14, Eagles 0 NFC Wild Card December 29 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

On a wet and windy Sunday at 3Com Park, San Francisco opened its 1996 postseason by defeating the Philadelphia Eagles 14-0 in the NFC Wild Card Game. Led by their marquee players QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice on offense, and a defense that recorded the team's first postseason shutout since the 1984 NFC Championship Game, the 49ers advanced to the NFC Divisional Playoff round. Following a scoreless first quarter. Young led the offense on a 10-play, 74-yard drive that concluded with the Pro Bowl guarterback scoring on a gutty nine-yard run off a quarterback draw. On that play Young broke four tackles while fighting his way to paydirt. Twice in the second quarter the Eagles mounted long drives only to be denied just short of the endzone by Niners interceptions. Philadelphia's first trip ended with CB Marguez Pope intercepting a QB Ty Detmer pass on San Francisco's seven-yard line. Late in the quarter the Eagles marched 59 yards on 10 plays moving to the 49ers five—yard line. Facing third and four, Detmer's attempt to WR Chris T. Jones was picked off by DE Roy Barker, who had dropped off into zone-blitz coverage. The only scoring in the second half occurred on the Niners second possession of the third quarter. On that drive, Rice made a spectacular one-handed catch that resulted in a 36-yard gain. He scored on a three-yard pass from Young on the next play from scrimmage. Young finished as the game's leading rusher with 65 yards, while also completing 14-of-21 tosses for 161 yards. Rice had four catches for 50 yards and his 19th career postseason touchdown (17th receiving). RB Terry Kirby added 43 yards rushing. The Niners defense, which held Eagles RB Ricky Watters to 57 rushing vards, was led by LB Ken Norton Jr.'s team postseason-record 12 solo tackles. DT Bryant Young registered two sacks and LB Lee Woodall added a sack among his six total stops.

Packers 35, 49ers 14 NFC Divisional Playoff January 4 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

Missed opportunities, including a total of five turnovers. spelled defeat for the San Francisco 49ers in their NFC Divisional Playoff Game with the Green Bay Packers. Played before a record Lambeau Field crowd of 60.787, the 49ers fell 35-14 in a game that featured 34-degree weather (with a wind chill of nine-degrees) and driving rain. It didn't take long for the Packers to take a lead. After forcing San Francisco to punt on its first series, WR Desmond Howard took P Tommy Thompson's punt, split the coverage down the middle of the field and raced for a 71-vard touchdown. Then, with seven minutes remaining in the opening stanza, Howard struck again. He returned a punt 46 yards to the San Francisco seven, and two plays later, QB Brett Favre threw a four-yard scoring pass to WR Andre Rison to make it 14-0. San Francisco then mounted a comeback in the second guarter. Trailing 21-0, the tide began to turn when 49ers special teams standout Curtis Buckley recovered a muffed punt at the Green Bay 26. Moments later, QB Elvis Grbac, replacing the injured QB Steve Young (ribs), hit RB Terry Kirby with an eight-yard pass, cutting the deficit to 21-7 at the half. On the opening kickoff of the third quarter, San Francisco CB Steve Israel recovered a loose ball on the Packers four, setting the stage for Grbac's scamper into the end zone. The 49ers fate was sealed, however, on the ensuing Packers drive. Marching 72 yards in 12 plays (10 of which were runs), Green Bay scored when FB Edgar Bennett fumbled before crossing the goal line: but before the 49ers defenders could react. WR Antonio Freeman fell on the loose ball, giving the hosts a 28-14 advantage. Bennett scored on an 11-yard run, and two more fumbles in the fourth quarter snuffed out any hope the 49ers had in getting back into the game. Young played the first nine plays at quarterback before giving way to Grbac late in the first guarter. Grbac completed 19-of-36 passes for 125 yards with one touchdown and three interceptions and led the team in rushing with 32 yards. Backfield mates Kirby and RB William Floyd had six receptions each, while WR Jerry Rice had a team-high 36 vards receiving, Defensively, LB Ken Norton Jr. posted eight tackles and LB Gary Plummer added seven. All-Pro DT Bryant Young left the game late in the first quarter because of a neck injury. He was taken to the hospital for tests, which were negative.

49ers 38, Vikings 22 NFC Divisional Playoff January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Terry Kirby rushed for a career-high 120 yards and scored two touchdowns, leading the San Francisco 49ers to a 38-22 victory over the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional Playoffs at 3Com Park. In addition to Kirby's heroics, QB Steve Young completed 21-of-30 passes for 224 yards and a touchdown, WR J.J. Stokes had 101 yards receiving and LB Ken Norton Jr. returned an interception 23 yards for a touchdown. San Francisco's first score came compliments of a Minnesota special teams miscue. P Mitch Berger's punt sailed off the side of his foot and into the crowd after going only 12 yards. The 49ers took over on the Vikings 26, and four plays later, FB William Floyd scored from the one and the 49ers led 7-0. Less than a minute later, the visitors tied the game on a 66-vard scoring pass from QB Randall Cunningham to WR Cris Carter. In the second quarter, the 49ers again took advantage of a poor kick by Berger — this time a punt of 29 yards — to take a 14-7 lead. Moving 61 yards in only four plays, and aided by three Minnesota penalties, Kirby scored the first of his two touchdowns on a one-vard plunge. The game-breaker occurred two plays later when the San Francisco defense flushed Cunningham out of the pocket and forced him to throw a pass over an onrushing DE Roy Barker and into the hands of Norton, who ran untouched into the end zone. In the third quarter, K Gary Anderson connected on a 34-vard field goal to build the lead to 24-7, but Cunningham and Carter hooked up again for a score, closing the gap to 24-14. On the ensuing series, the 49ers marched 75 yards in seven plays, highlighted by two Kirby runs of 22 and 14 yards. Young then hit WR Terrell Owens with one of the prettiest touchdowns of the year, as the second-year receiver shook off a defender then dove into the end zone for the score. Kirby finished the scoring in the fourth quarter with another one-yard run. CB Tyronne Drakeford had six tackles and a pair of passes defensed to pace the defense. Barker also recorded San Francisco's only sack of the game.

Packers 23, 49ers 10 NFC Championship January 11 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

RB Dorsey Levens rushed for 114 yards and WR Antonio Freeman caught four passes for 104 yards and a touchdown to lead visiting Green Bay to a 23-10 win in the NFC Championship Game. The game was played before 68.987 under windy and rainy conditions at 3Com Park. The Packers opened the scoring late in the first quarter. After San Francisco punted on its first series, QB Brett Favre led Green Bay on a 10play, 76-yard drive that resulted in a K Ryan Longwell 19-yard field goal. Favre completed three-of-four passes for 37 yards in the series. Green Bay continued its scoring in the second guarter. S Eugene Robinson intercepted a QB Steve Young pass and returned it 58 yards to the San Francisco 28. Two plays later, Favre threw a 27-yard scoring pass to Freeman to make the score 10-0. San Francisco then broke the drought with a scoring drive beginning with 4:23 remaining in the second quarter. Following a missed field goal by Longwell, the 49ers took possession at their own 38. A pair of Young completions for 32 yards had the Niners in Packers territory, but two holding penalties brought the ball back to the original line of scrimmage. On a key third down with 26 yards to go. Young completed a 48-yard pass to WR Terrell Owens to the Packers 10-yard line. The drive resulted in a 28-yard field goal by K Gary Anderson. Green Bay answered on its next possession. Freeman returned the kickoff 18 yards to the Packers 27. Two plays later, Favre hit Freeman for a 40-vard completion to the San Francisco 25, Longwell connected on a 43-yard field goal to make the halftime score 13-3. After a scoreless third quarter, Green Bay extended its lead to 16-3 on a 25-yard field goal by Longwell. The Packers added seven more after a fiveyard touchdown run by Levens to make the score 23-3. San Francisco closed out the game by scoring on the ensuing kickoff. Chuck Levy returned Longwell's kick 95 yards for a touchdown. Levy's return was the second longest postseason return for San Francisco, trailing the 97-yard touchdown return by Vic Washington vs. Dallas in 1972. Young completed 23-of-38 passes for 250 yards and one interception, RB Terry Kirby ran for a team-high 21 yards on six carries. WR J.J. Stokes caught six passes for 87 yards, including a long of 43. Defensively, San Francisco was led by S Merton Hanks with eight tackles. LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Lee Woodall, LB Gary Plummer and S Tim McDonald had seven tackles each.

49ers 30, Packers 27 NFC Wild Card January 3 at 3Com Park (San Francisco, CA)

QB Steve Young threw three touchdown passes, including a 25-yard strike to WR Terrell Owens with three seconds remaining, as San Francisco edged Green Bay, 30-27. On a crystal clear day in the Bay Area, it was the Packers who opened the scoring on a 23-yard field goal from K Ryan Longwell midway through the first quarter. San Francisco answered with help from a big play on defense. S Merton Hanks forced a fumble by RB Dorsey Levens and the ball was recovered by DE Chris Doleman at the Green Bay 19-yard line. Three plays later Young connected with TE Greg Clark from one vard out for the touchdown and a 7-3 lead. Just four seconds into the second quarter, the Packers regained the lead on a two-yard scoring toss from QB Brett Favre to WR Antonio Freeman. San Francisco tied the score on the first of three K Wade Richey field goals, this one from 34 yards out with 6:53 remaining in the half. The Packers surged back ahead with 36 seconds remaining when Levens bowled into the end zone from two vards out to take a 17-10 halftime lead. The third quarter opened with Favre being pressured into an errant pass that was intercepted by LB Lee Woodall. Five plays later, the score was tied for a third time when Young hit Clark from eight vards out for the score. The 49ers reclaimed the lead midway through the quarter on a team postseason record and career-long 48yard field goal from Richey. In a game that saw five lead changes and three ties, the fourth quarter became particularly dramatic. Longwell answered Richey's 48yard kick with a 37-yard effort of his own to tie the game at 20-20 at the beginning of the fourth. On the ensuing possession, San Francisco marched 51 yards in 10 plays and capped the drive with a 40-yard field goal by Richey to reclaim the lead at 23-20. With 4:19 remaining in the game, Green Bay took over at its own 11-yard line. From there, Favre would lead his team on a nine-play, 89-yard scoring drive. The drive was capped when Favre hit Freeman from 15 yards out for the touchdown and a 27-23 lead with 1:56 remaining in the game. The Packers touchdown set up one of the most memorable sequences in 49ers history. San Francisco took possession at its own 24-yard line with 1:50 remaining and three timeouts to its credit. On the final play, Young dropped back, stumbled and threw a 25-yard touchdown strike to Owens who was sandwiched in the end zone by S Pat Terrell and S Darren Sharper.

Falcons 20, 49ers 18 NFC Divisional Playoff January 9 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

With San Francisco's NFL-leading run game a mere shell of itself, the Atlanta Falcons forced three turnovers and held off the 49ers, 20-18, in the NFC Divisional Playoff at the Georgia Dome. San Francisco's hope of controlling the game on the ground came to a screeching halt on the first play of the game when RB Garrison Hearst fractured the tibia in his left leg on an inside run that had gained seven yards. With Hearst out and RB Terry Kirby hobbled with a bruised leg, the 49ers managed just 46 yards on the ground. Atlanta's rushing attack flourished in the first half thanks to the power running of RB Jamal Anderson, who scored on a two-yard run in the first quarter to give the Falcons a 7-0 lead. Atlanta increased its lead to 14-0 when Anderson finished off a 34-yard run with a spread eagle dive into the end zone with 3:12 left in the second quarter. The touchdown run capped a seven-play, 82yard drive. San Francisco snatched the momentum from the Falcons by putting together a pair of scoring drives just before the half. The 49ers answered Atlanta's second touchdown march with a nine-play, 80-yard drive that concluded with the familiar end zone combination of QB Steve Young to WR Jerry Rice from 17 yards out. It was Rice's 20th career postseason touchdown. With just under one minute to play in the first half, DE Charles Haley chased QB Chris Chandler and deflected his pass into the waiting arms of DT Junior Bryant, who returned it four yards to the Atlanta 36-yard line. K Wade Richey made it a 14-10 game at the half with a 36-yard field goal as time expired. The 49ers carried that momentum into the third quarter, nearly tripling Atlanta's offensive output in the second half (187 yards to 68). But turnovers did not allow them to complete the comeback. The Falcons thwarted two drives with a pair of interceptions, including one by S Eugene Robinson that was returned 77 yards to set up a K Morten Andersen 29-yard field goal. Leading 17-10, Andersen added another 32-yard field goal to give the Falcons a 10-point edge with 10:33 remaining. San Francisco responded to Atlanta's three pointer with a 13-play, 87-yard drive that Young finished himself with an eight-yard touchdown run. A two-point pass from QB Ty Detmer to TE Greg Clark made it 20-18 with 2:57 left. After Atlanta used up 2:19 of the clock, the 49ers got the ball back at their own four-yard line but were only able to move to the 26 before Young's hail mary attempt was intercepted as time expired. After rushing for 83 yards on 13 carries in the first half, Anderson was limited to 30 yards on 16 carries in the second half by San Francisco's defense. LB Winfred Tubbs made a game-high 10 tackles, while DE Chris Doleman made six stops and one sack.

Packers 25, 49ers 15 NFC Wild Card January 13 at Lambeau Field (Green Bay, WI)

In their first postseason appearance since 1998, the 49ers dropped a hard-fought 25-15 decision to the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Wild Card Game at Lambeau Field. With a game-time temperature of 28 degrees, the 49ers won the opening coin toss and elected to receive. The two teams traded punts until Green Bay marched 40 yards in seven plays to score the first points of the game when QB Brett Favre hooked up with WR Antonio Freeman on a five-yard touchdown pass. DT Dana Stubblefield blocked the extra point to keep the score 6-0. After another 49ers punt, the Packers began their third possession of the game from their own 19-yard line. On the second play from scrimmage, Favre was intercepted by CB Ahmed Plummer, who returned it to the Green Bay 22. San Francisco K Jose Cortez had his 34-yard field goal attempt blocked and the score remained 6-0. After the Packers were forced to punt, San Francisco took possession at its own 14 with 7:06 remaining in the half. QB Jeff Garcia went 6-of-9 for 61 yards and RB Garrison Hearst had a two-yard touchdown plunge with 15 seconds remaining in the half, to cap off a 15-play, 86-yard drive. After a Cortez extra point, the 49ers went in with a 7-6 halftime lead. On their first possession of the second half, the Packers moved the ball down to the San Francisco eight-vard line where K Rvan Longwell nailed a 26-vard field goal for the 9-7 lead. After the 49ers couldn't get anything going on offense, they punted back to Green Bay. It took only four plays for the Packers to take advantage with a 19-yard touchdown pass from Favre to TE Bubba Franks. The two-point conversion failed and the score remained 15-7. Two series later, the 49ers marched 61 yards in six plays, culminating with Garcia hitting WR Tai Streets on a 14-yard touchdown strike and again on the two-point conversion to tie the score at 15. The Packers answered on their next possession with a 10-play, 45-yard drive as Longwell connected on a 45-yard field goal to push the score to 18-15. With 5:03 remaining in the game, the 49ers had moved the ball down to the Green Bay 41, when Garcia's pass intended for WR Terrell Owens was tipped by CB Mike McKenzie into the hands of CB Tyrone Williams at the Green Bay seven-yard line. Favre led the Packers on an eight-play, 93-yard drive ending with an RB Ahman Green nine-yard touchdown run and the 25-15 lead. RB Paul Smith took the ensuing kickoff on the 13-yard line and ran it back 16 yards before being hit by WR Cory Bradford and fumbling. The Packers recovered the fumble and ran out the clock for the 25-15 victory.

Buried in a 24-point playoff hole, the 49ers exploded to record the second largest comeback in postseason history with a dramatic 39-38 victory over the New York Giants in the NFC Wild Card Game. The 49ers trailed 38-14 with four minutes left in the third quarter. but scored 25 straight points on two touchdown passes and a scoring run by QB Jeff Garcia, as well as two, two-point conversion catches by WR Terrell Owens. The game ended just as exciting. After Garcia drove his team 68 yards in just over two minutes for the winning score. QB Kerry Collins got New York to the San Francisco 28 with six seconds left. LS Trey Junkin, signed earlier in the week, made a low snap that P Matt Allen couldn't handle. Allen then threw a desperate pass that fell incomplete. The 49ers rally was the biggest in NFC playoff history. Garcia finished the day 27-of-44 for 331 yards and three touchdowns. He rushed for 60 yards, including a 14-yard score on the first play of the fourth guarter. Two of Garcia's touchdown throws went to Owens, who had nine catches for 177 yards. Collins was 29-of-43 for 342 vards and four touchdowns. and expertly guided New York to a lead that seemed insurmountable. WR Amani Toomer caught eight passes for 136 yards and three touchdowns and RB Tiki Barber added 115 yards rushing and 62 yards receiving. San Francisco rallied with purpose and poise. Owens caught a 26-vard touchdown pass late in the third quarter to start the rally and made big catches on every driveright up to the final minutes, when Garcia found WR Tai Streets for the winning score. After Owens caught a 26-yard touchdown pass and a two-point conversion with 2:03 left in the third, Garcia rushed for a 14-yard score and threw another conversion pass to Owens five seconds into the fourth quarter. K Jeff Chandler added a 25-vard field goal with 7:49 left, Collins responded and drove New York 38 yards, but Bryant - kicking out of a poor hold thanks to a poor snap by Junkin—missed a 42-yard field goal with 3:01 left. Garcia took over, converting two straight third downs for the NFL leaders in that category. TE Eric Johnson caught a 25-yard pass to the New York 25 and Garcia scrambled 12 yards to set up his winning pass to Streets.

A 14-yd. TD pass from Alex Smith to TE Vernon Davis with 0:09 left in the game capped off one of the most memorable games in postseason history, as the 49ers defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36-32, Powered by Smith, who threw for 299 yds., three TDs and added another one on the ground, the 49ers triumphed in its first playoff game in nine years, moving within one win of the Super Bowl. Scoring on a TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, Smith took advantage of the costly turnover, making the score 14-0. On the ensuing kickoff return, S Madieu Williams stripped the ball away from Saints WR Courtney Roby and the loose ball was recovered by LB Blake Costanzo. The takeaway led to a 25-yd. RB Darren Sproles then made a catch out of the backfield for the two-point conversion to give the Saints a 32-29 advantage, Facing elimination, Smith connected with Davis twice on their final drive, with the last throw jetting through double coverage for a game-winning 14-yd. Giants 20, 49ers 17 (OT) NFC Championship January 22 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, 'Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again." Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue-collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain-soaked Candlestick Park with a 20-17 overtime victory. Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6-10 team and going 13-3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t-2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 – four times, last vs. Den. - 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7-0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st gtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73-yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34-yd. line. On 3rd-and-1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10-play, 69-yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6-yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10-7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14-10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd qtr. San Francisco's 3-play, 54-yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24-yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on their 29 yard line. Manning connected a 17-yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17-14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40-yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game-tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17-17. After both teams went 3-and-out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down, K Lawrence Tynes sent the season-ending 31-yd. FG through the uprights.

49ers 45, Packers 31 NFC Divisional Playoff January 12 at Candlestick Park (San Francisco, CA)

With the win against the Green Bay Packers, the San Francisco 49ers advanced to the NFC Championship Game for the second year in a row, marking the first time San Francisco has reached the NFC Championship Game in consecutive seasons since 1992-94. The Packers got off to a quick start after QB Colin Kaepernick threw an INT on just the fourth play of the game that was returned for a TD by Packers CB Sam Shields. Kaepernick responded immediately like he had all season and turned in one of the best performances by a 49ers QB in franchise history. Kaepernick led the offense on an 8-play, 80-yd. drive that he capped off with a 20-yd. TD run to tie the score at 7 apiece early in the 1st qtr. The team converted on two 3rd and longs on the drive, setting the tone for the day by finishing 8 of 13 on 3rd down (62%). With 11:52 remaining in the 2nd qtr., Green Bay WR Jeremy Ross muffed a punt that was recovered by S C.J. Spillman at the Packers 9-yd. line. The takeaway led to a 12-yd. TD pass from Kaepernick to WR Michael Crabtree just three plays later. On the ensuing Green Bay possession, CB Tarell Brown picked off QB Aaron Rodgers pass and returned his 2nd career postseason INT. The Kaepernick to Crabtree connection continued to be successful as they connected for a 20-yd. TD strike, making the score 21-14. Crabtree led the team with 9 recepts. for 119 yds. and 2 TDs on the day. On the third play of San Francisco's second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick kept the ball on a zone read around the right side and dashed 56-yds. to the end zone for his 2nd rushing TD of the game. The 56-yd. TD run marked the longest run by a QB in franchise postseason history and the 3rd longest overall. Kaepernick also set the NFL single-game record for a QB with 181 rushing yds. on 16 carries. RB Frank Gore finished off the following drive on the first play of the 4th gtr., punching it in from 2 yds. out, stretching the 49ers lead to 38-24. Gore notched his first career 100yd. game in the postseason, rushing for 119 yds. on 23 carries. The 49ers became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100-yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100-yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receiving)] in a playoff game. RB Anthony Dixon found the end zone on a 2-yd. TD run to finish off the 11-play, 93-yd. drive to make the score 45-24. San Francisco rushed for 323 yds. on the night, setting the franchise single-game postseason rushing record.

49ers 28, Falcons 24 NFC Championship January 20 at Georgia Dome (Atlanta, GA)

The 49ers started slow, spotting Atlanta a 17-0 lead after the Falcons scored on their first three possessions. On San Francisco's third possession the 49ers offense began to click. TE Vernon Davis hauled in a pinpoint pass from QB Colin Kaepernick for 27 yds. down to the Atlanta 15-yd. line. Davis had 3, 25+ yd. recepts. in the game, giving him 9 in 4 postseason games, which ranks 2nd in 49ers postseason history, trailing only WR Jerry Rice (14, 25+ yd. recepts. in 23 games). Two plays following Davis' catch, the 49ers got on the scoreboard with a 15-yd. TD run by RB LaMichael James. It was James' first-career TD. The 49ers next possession began on their own 18-yd. line with 6:24 remaining in the 2nd qtr. Vernon Davis stepped up once again, accounting for 48-yds. on 3 recepts., including a 4-yd. TD catch to finish the drive and pull the 49ers within 3, as the score read 14-17 at the 2-minute warning. Davis' 5 career postseason TDs rank t-4th in franchise history. With the Falcons scoring right before the half, it was important the 49ers came out of halftime with an answer, and answer they did. Kaepernick marched the 49ers offense right down the field, driving 82 yds. on 7 plays capped off on a 5-yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore to make the score 21-24 with 10:51 remaining in the 3rd gtr. The San Francisco defense also had answers, forcing turnovers on the Falcons first two possessions of the 2nd half, CB Chris Culliver picked-off QB Matt Ryan and LB Aldon Smith recovered a muffed snap to stymie the Falcons offense during the 3rd qtr. With 11:59 left in the 4th qtr. WR Ted Ginn returned a Matt Bosher punt 20 yds. to the Atlanta 38-yd. line, giving the 49ers offense good starting field position. San Francisco's physical offensive line began to take over and wear down the Atlanta defense, opening big holes for Gore, James and RB Anthony Dixon as they gained all but 8 yds. on the go-ahead drive. Gore registered his 2nd TD run of the game on a 9-yd. burst to the end zone to give San Francisco the lead 28-24 with 8:27 remaining in the game. The Falcons took over after the Gore TD and sustained a 14-play drive down to the 49ers 10-yd. line. On the 14th play of the drive, the Falcons faced a 4th and 4 with 1:13 remaining, WR Roddy White was unable to hang onto the ball due to LB NaVorro Bowman's blanketing defense. The Falcons got the ball back following an Andy Lee punt and had one last shot with :06 ticks left on the clock, but CB Perrish Cox tackled WR Julio Jones at San Francisco's 35-yd. line before he could attempt a lateral as the clock struck :00. The 17-point comeback led by Kaepernick was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship (2006 - Indianapolis trailed New England by 18 points).

Ravens 34, 49ers 31 Super Bowl XLVII February 3 at Superdome (New Orleans, LA)

The San Francisco 49ers and the Baltimore Ravens squared off in one of the most extraordinary Super Bowls where two brothers squared off as head coaches. The 49ers found themselves facing an early deficit, which would eventually be too much to overcome. Early in the 1st gtr., San Francisco answered a Ravens TD drive with a scoring drive of their own as QB Colin Kaepernick engineered a 12-play 62-yd. drive that was finished off by K David Akers' 36-yd. FG, making the score 7-3. After 2 more TD passes by QB Joe Flacco, the 49ers found themselves in a 21-3 hole with 1:45 left in the 2nd qtr. Kaepernick showed poise and led the 2-minute drill efficiently by completing 4 of 5 pass atts. for 56 yds. to move the 49ers into FG position. Akers added 3 more points with a 27-yd. FG as time expired in the half with San Francisco trailing Baltimore 21-6. Following a Ravens kickoff return for a TD to open the 2nd half, the Superdome went dark with 13:28 remaining in the 3rd qtr. A power failure at 7:38 p.m. CT caused a 30-minute delay and was not resolved until 8:08 p.m. On the Niners' next possession, Kaepernick tossed a 31-yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree, making the score 28-13. San Francisco forced Baltimore into a 3-and-out with a sack by LB Ahmad Brooks on 3rd-and-10. P Sam Koch's 43-yd. punt was returned 32 yds. by WR Ted Ginn Jr., setting up the 49ers offense to takeover at the Ravens 20-yd. line. Two plays later, RB Frank Gore capitalized on the short field with a 6-yd. TD run. On the second play of Baltimore's ensuing possession, CB Tarell Brown forced and recovered a fumble that he jarred loose from RB Ray Rice on the Ravens' 24-yd. line. The takeaway led to a 34-yd. FG by Akers, his 3rd of the game. With their next possession, WR Randy Moss hauled in a 32yd. recept., followed by a 21-yd. run by Gore, which led to a 15-yd. TD run by Kaepernick. An incomplete pass on the 2-point try made the score 31-29 with the Ravens still hanging on as San Francisco continued its fierce comeback. Kaepernick's 15-yd. TD run marked the longest TD run by a QB in Super Bowl history. With 4:23 remaining in the game, Baltimore's K Justin Tucker tacked on a 38-yd. FG to extend their lead to 34-29. A 24-yd. completion to Crabtree and a 33-yd. rush by Gore put the 49ers offense in position for the go-ahead TD with 2:39 remaining, on the Ravens' 7-yd. line. The 49ers were unable to get into the end zone and turned the ball over on downs. After taking a safety to run the game clock down to :04, the Ravens were forced to punt to the 49ers. Ginn returned the kickoff 31-yds.to the 50-yd. line as time expired for the last play of the game.

In another division battle, the 49ers had their second overtime game of the season, this time at Arizona. The field goal kicking was the story of this game as the 49ers missed both field goal attempts and made only 1-of-2 PATs and the Cardinals made only 3-of-6 field goal attempts. The Cardinals had the lead 13-6 in the fourth quarter when the 49ers tied the game on one of the most improbable touchdowns in team history. Jeff Garcia fumbled at the one-yard line and the ball was recovered by offensive lineman Kwame Harris, who scored his first career touchdown. The game was tied at 13 with 2:25 left to play. The Cardinals had another shot to get into scoring position, but were forced to punt and gave the 49ers one more shot for the victory with almost six minutes remaining in regulation. San Francisco then launched a drive that put the offense at the Arizona 16-yard line. But Owen Pochman missed the potential game-winning field goal, his second missed field goal of the day, this time from 35 yards out. This breathed new life into Arizona, who drove down to the San Francisco 32-yard line. Rattay coolly directed two late fourth-quarter scoring drives that sent the game into overtime after trailing by 16 points with 8:19 remaining. In overtime, Rattay again led the team downfield and buoyed by a roughing the passer penalty, put them into scoring position where K Todd Peterson banged home the game-winning 32-yard field goal. Rattay finished the game with a career-high 417 yards passing and a quarterback rating of 99.8. He was an impressive 14 of 20 for 115 yards and two touchdowns in the fourth quarter. He also broke QB Joe Montana's team record by completing 38 passes. Montana held the previous mark of 37. Rattay's favorite target on the day was TE Eric Johnson who hauled in a careerhigh 13 receptions for 162 yards and one touchdown. Johnson caught a six-yard touchdown from Rattay with 4:35 remaining in the game that pulled the 49ers within 10 points. Rattay ran in the two-point conversion and suddenly the 49ers were within eight points. Now they needed a stop and the defense was up to the task, forcing a Cardinals punt. Taking over at the 49ers 28-yard line, Rattay started off with a nine-yard pass to WR Curtis Conway, then scampered 15 more yards before hitting Conway on a 14-yard pass to get the 49ers to the Cardinals 23. From there Rattay found WR Brandon Lloyd in the corner of the end zone and the 49ers were within two points. Lloyd then slipped in front of the defender and caught Rattay's two-point offering sending the game into overtime. The 49ers won the overtime coin toss and never relinquished the ball. A roughing the passer penalty on Arizona's DT Darnell Dockett helped the 49ers cause and Rattay took advantage as he quickly moved the team into scoring position where Peterson knocked home the game-winner.

First-year RB Maurice Hicks earned the game ball after an inspiring 139-yard performance on 34 attempts. He and QB Ken Dorsey carried the 49ers to their second victory of the season, a 31-28 overtime victory in Arizona. San Francisco did have to work for the win, despite taking a 28-3 lead in the third quarter. The Cardinals staged a furious rally and almost answered the 49ers overtime win earlier in the season at Monster Park. But some key plays from the defense and the legs of Hicks proved the difference of the day. Hicks, making his first career NFL start, had four carries for 42 yards in overtime including a significant 17-yard gain that set-up K Todd Peterson's game-winning field goal. Facing 2nd and 3 from the Cardinals 30yard line, Hicks took the handoff from Dorsey, cut off the tackle to his right and raced downfield before he was knocked out of bounds at the 13. Dorsey finished the game completing 18 of 34 passes for 191 yards and three scores for a passer rating of 99.0. Starting for the injured QB Tim Rattay, Dorsey threw his first career touchdown to WR Brandon Lloyd for the first score of the day. He then connected twice with WR Cedrick Wilson for scores as Wilson led the receiving efforts with five receptions for 83 yards and two scores, including a 19-yard catch to keep the 49ers game-winning drive alive. Dorsey was sacked just once in his 34 passing attempts behind an offensive line that played its best game of the year.

January 1, 2006 San Francisco 20, Houston 17

The San Francisco 49ers rallied from a 10-0 first quarter deficit for a 20-17 overtime victory over the Houston Texans to close out the 2005 campaign with two consecutive wins for a 4-12 record. The 49ers dominated the line of scrimmage, gaining 182 yards on the ground and controlling the clock for 44:03. The 49ers used a combination of RB Frank Gore (108 yards) and RB Maurice Hicks (64 yards) to take control on the ground. S Mike Adams was the star of the game on defense after finishing with two interceptions, one that was returned for a touchdown and the other that led to the game-winning field goal in overtime. QB Alex Smith helped lead the 49ers to a touchdown at the end of the first half by converting a key third-and-13 situation with a 14-vard strike to WR Brandon Lloyd and then three plays later threw his first NFL touchdown pass when he rolled to his right and found Lloyd in the back of the end zone for a 14-yard score. The 49ers took the second half kick and went on a 14-play, 56-yard drive that ended with a 42-yard field goal by Nedney to tie the game at 10-10. Houston responded when Banks fired a 31-yard pass to WR Corey Bradford to get into San Francisco territory followed by a 25-yard touchdown pass to Bradford to retake the lead at 17-10. Adams, who made his first NFL start at cornerback, intercepted QB Tony Banks at the end of the third quarter and returned it 40 yards for a touchdown to tie the game at 17-17. Then in overtime, Banks went deep but Adams intercepted the pass and alertly lateraled to S Ben Emanuel, who ran 35 yards to the Houston 21yard line. After two short runs, PK Joe Nedney nailed a 33-yard field goal to give the 49ers the 20-17 victory.

December 31, 2006 San Francisco 26, Denver 23

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 13-0 deficit to pull out a 26-23 win over the Denver Broncos at Invesco Field at Mile High. The 49ers played the role of spoilers when the victory knocked the Broncos out of the playoffs. The 49ers come-from-behind win was led by three outstanding individual efforts: RB Frank Gore gained 153 rushing yards, PK Joe Nedney kicked four field goals along with the game winner in overtime, and CB Walt Harris snagged two interceptions, including a 28-yard touchdown return in the third quarter. WR Bryan Gilmore had two key plays in overtime to advance the 49ers into field goal range for the game winning kick. During the first half, strong 49ers goalline defense helped limit Denver to a pair of field goals on drives that were stopped when the Broncos were in first-and-goal situations. The 49ers defense again held Denver to a field goal in the third guarter when the Broncos had a first-and-goal inside the five-yard line. Denver went ahead 13-0 in the second quarter when CB Champ Bailey took a deflected theft 70 yards into the end zone. Nedney booted a 46-yard field goal to put the score at 13-3 in Denver's favor at the end of the half. San Francisco rallied in the second half, converting its first series into a 12-play, 76-yard touchdown drive. FB Moran Norris caught a short pass from Smith and weaved in and out of traffic for a 32-yard touchdown. The 49ers took the lead on the ensuing drive when Harris picked off QB Jay Cutler and went 28 yards untouched for a touchdown that gave the 49ers a 17-13 lead. Denver responded with a field goal on the next series, but the 49ers added two field goals in the fourth quarter for a 23–16 advantage with 6:14 to play in regulation. Cutler completed a nine—yard touchdown pass to TE Tony Scheffler to tie the game at 23–23 and send it into overtime. Denver won the coin toss, but was forced to punt on two drives before a 12–yard return by PR Brandon Williams allowed the 49ers to start their game—winning drive at their own 39–yard line. Gilmore gained 20 yards on an end route and then caught a 14–yard pass from QB Alex Smith for a first down at the Denver 25–yard line. Two plays later, Nedney kicked a 36–yard field goal to give San Francisco the win.

November 25, 2007 San Francisco 37, Arizona 31

The San Francisco 49ers completed a series sweep of the Arizona Cardinals with a 37-31 overtime victory to snap an eight-game losing streak at the University of Phoenix Stadium. DE Ron Fields forced QB Kurt Warner to fumble on a sack in the end zone, and LB Tully Banta-Cain recovered the ball for a touchdown in overtime to seal the win. The play was set up after PK Neil Rackers missed a 32-yard field goal in overtime. Rackers was successful on a field goal from the San Francisco ninevard line, but the Cardinals were penalized for a delay of game penalty, moving the ball back to the 14-yard line where Rackers was wide to the left. A 59-yard punt by P Andy Lee followed by an Arizona penalty forced the Cardinals to begin their next drive at the three-yard line, setting up the 49ers defensive touchdown to get the win. RB Frank Gore went over the 100-yard mark for the first time in 2007, finishing with 116 yards and two touchdowns, including a 35-yard touchdown run with 1:25 to play to give the 49ers a 31-28 lead. Warner completed five passes on the ensuing drive to get Arizona to the one-yard line with six seconds to play. CB Donald Strickland broke up a pass in the end zone to force Arizona to settle for a 19-yard field goal as time expired in regulation. In overtime, Warner completed a short pass to WR Sean Morey, who raced down the sidelines for a 62-yard gain before LP Patrick Willis caught up with him to make a game-saving tackle at the 14-yard line. That set up Rackers game-winning field goal attempt. The 49ers had three first half turnovers with two CB Walt Harris interceptions and a strip by CB Nate Clements to lead to 14 points. San Francisco had a 17-7 lead and appeared to be in position to take a 17-14 halftime lead after Harris' second interception gave the 49ers a first down at their own 41-vard line. QB Trent Dilfer moved the team inside Arizona territory to the 37-yard line with 11 seconds to go to set up a field goal attempt. PK Joe Nedney attempted a 55-yard field goal that went wide, leaving six seconds on the board for the Cardinals. Warner completed a short pass to the sideline and then with two seconds left completed a 48-yard Hail Mary pass to WR Larry Fitzgerald for a touchdown and a 21-17 halftime lead. A 57-yard touchdown pass from Dilfer to WR Arnaz Battle in the third quarter pushed the 49ers back in front, 24-21, heading into the final quarter. Cardinals backup QB Tim Rattay completed a two-yard touchdown on a fourthdown play midway in the fourth quarter to take a 28-24 lead. Gore's 35-vard touchdown with 1:25 recaptured the lead for San Francisco, but Rackers last second field goal sent the game to overtime.

September 14, 2008 San Francisco 33, Seattle 30

The San Francisco 49ers overcame a 14-point first quarter deficit to win 33-30 in overtime after PK Joe Nedney nailed a 40-yard game-winning field goal. After closing the gap to 20-13 at halftime, the 49ers intercepted Seattle on the first two drives of the second quarter, including one that was returned for a touchdown. On the first series of the second half, CB Walt Harris tipped a QB Matt Hasselbeck pass that was picked off and returned 86 yards for a touchdown by LB Patrick Willis to tie the game at 20-20. On the next series, DE Ray McDonald tipped a pass that was intercepted by Harris at the Seattle 41-yard line to help set up the go-ahead touchdown. QB J.T. O'Sullivan completed back-to-back passes to WR Bryant Johnson to move the 49ers to the 22-yard line to help get into position for a two-yard touchdown run by RB Frank Gore to lift the 49ers in front, 27-20. Seattle responded with a 15-play, 74-yard drive that ended in a touchdown to tie the game at 27-27. After both teams exchanged field goals to get the score tied at 30-30, the 49ers forced Seattle to punt from its own 12-yard line and the 49ers began a drive at the Seattle 49-yard line with 1:09 to play in regulation. The team moved to the 23-yard line with three seconds to play to set up a game-winning field goal attempt. Nedney's 41-yard attempt sailed wide to the right to send the game to overtime. The 49ers won the toss and elected to receive. O'Sullivan completed a 33-yard pass to WR Isaac Bruce on third-and-seven and a five-yard pass to WR Arnaz Battle on a third-and-two situation to push the 49ers to the 23-yard line where Nedney connected on a 40-vard field goal to give San Francisco the win. O'Sullivan registered his first 300-yard game, finishing 20-of-32 for 321 yards with one touchdown. Bruce had his first 100-yard game as a member of the 49ers with 153 yards on four catches, including a 63-yard catch in the second guarter to help get the 49ers in position for O'Sullivan's three-yard touchdown pass to Johnson. Seattle jumped to a 14-0 first quarter after taking advantage of two miscues by the 49ers. LB Manny Lawson blocked a Seattle punt early in the game, however Seattle recovered the loose ball and converted it into a first down inside San Francisco territory on a drive that ended with a Seattle touchdown. On the next series, Seattle forced Gore to fumble deep in Seahawks territory on a play that resulted in a 10-vard touchdown return by DT Craig Terrill.

November 14, 2010 San Francisco 23, St. Louis 20

The San Francisco 49ers Week 10 matchup would be a battle between NFC West foes as they hosted the division leading St. Louis Rams at Candlestick Park. With the chance to get back into the hunt for the NFC West and compile back-to-back wins for the first time this season, the 49ers would take a big step and put the game in the hands of former Heisman Trophy winner QB Troy Smith. Along with late game heroics that came down to the first overtime contest for the 49ers this season, the game proved to be a classic NFC West shootout. The Rams would also rely on a former Heisman Trophy winner in QB Sam Bradford to come in and test the 49ers at home. With two quarterbacks of storied pasts, the game turned out to be an offensive showcase as both teams would throw for a combined 607 yds., as well as 753 yds. of total offense.

All would come down to an overtime FG off the foot of K Joe Nedney, who connected on a 29-yd. game winning kick that gave the 49ers the 23-20 win. With St. Louis winning the toss and electing to receive, Bradford started things off, marching his team down the field. The drive ultimately would be halted, but not before a K Josh Brown's 42-yd. FG put the Rams on the board 3-0 to start the game. Coming off a bye and an extra week to prepare, the 49ers picked up right where they left off in London, as they were able to effectively spread the ball down the field, putting up 421 yds. of total offense. Smith proved to be a major part of the offensive onslaught as he completed 17 of 28 pass atts. for a career-high 356 yds. and 1 TD through the air. Smith's 356 yds. were the most by a 49ers QB since QB Tim Rattay threw for 417 yds. on 38 of 57 pass atts. vs. Arz. (10/10/04). From start to finish, the 49ers found ways to get the ball to multiple players throughout the offense as Smith connected with 5 different receivers who registered 60 yds. rec. or more. It marked the first time in franchise history that at least 5 receivers totaled 60 yds. rec. or more. Smith started the carousel of offensive production with a 32-yd. pass to TE Vernon Davis. On the very next offensive drive, Smith hooked up with WR Josh Morgan for a 65-yd. pass deep down the right side that brought him to the 1-yd. line, setting up a 1-yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore and giving the 49ers a 7-3 lead. The 49ers offense would continue to pour on the yards as they successfully moved the ball down field and allowed Nedney to connect on a 26yd. FG to put the home team up 10-3 with 12:04 left to go in the half. The Rams eventually would find their way into the end zone as QB Sam Bradford connected with WR Danny Amendola for a 5-yd. TD pass to tie the game at 10 a piece heading into halftime. The 49ers found themselves down heading into the 4th qtr. after Rams RB Steven Jackson scampered for a 13-yd. TD to bring the score to 10-17. With the home team down 13-17 late in the 4th qtr. the 49ers would once again turn to their quarterback. With 2:30 remaining on the clock, the 49ers faced a 3rd and 32 situation at the SF 47-yd. line. Smith then connected on back-to-back passes to Gore of 14 and 23 yds. to move the chains, before firing a 16-yd. TD strike to WR Michael Crabtree to give the 49ers the lead. Rams marched right back down the field and scored off of a 33-yd. FG by Brown, forcing overtime. After St. Louis won the toss, the 49ers defense made a crucial 3 and out stop, which included a 3rd down sack by DT Justin Smith that allowed the 49ers to get the ball back and set up the game winning FG.

September 18, 2011 Dallas 27, San Francisco 24

San Francisco's regime led by Jim Harbaugh and his new but experienced staff, entered the historic rivalry match against the Dallas Cowboys with something to prove at Candlestick Park. The 49ers started off as they had hoped, scoring 2 first-half TDs and blanking America's Team, but big pass plays late in the game would ultimately cause the Niners to fall short as they were edged 27–24 in overtime. Dallas opened the 1st

atr. marching down the field, but came up short after a failed 21-yd. FG attempt by K Dan Bailey. After exchanging the next couple of possessions, QB Alex Smith led the Niners on a 68-yd. drive, capped off by a 1-yd. TD by RB Frank Gore in the 2nd qtr. The 49ers front seven played strong, swarming and stopping the run, allowing Smith and the Niners to regain possession to take a 14-0 lead. The 12-yd. throw from Smith marked the first TD of WR Kyle Williams' career and the team's first passing TD of 2011. QB Tony Romo and the Cowboys answered before the half on a 71-yd. drive, capped off by a 53-yd. TD slant to WR Miles Austin, making it a one score game heading into the half. Dallas lost its starting QB for a brief stretch in the 3rd qtr., when it appeared Romo's rib injury - occurring on the 3rd play of the game - had become too much of a hindrance. Backup QB Jon Kitna started the 3rd qtr. and threw a tying TD pass and 2 INTs in relief. Displaying good ball skills and awareness, CB Tramaine Brock came up with his 2nd INT of the season in as many weeks, reacting to a Kitna tipped pass and coming up with the turnover. Smith and the 49ers took advantage of the Cowboys turnover with a deep pass down the right sideline to TE Delanie Walker for 29 yds. and the go-ahead TD entering the 4th gtr. K David Akers connected on a 55-vd. FG, marking the longest FG in Candlestick Park history, and the Niners built up a 10-pt. cushion. The Cowboys charged back from the 24-14 deficit when Romo hit Austin for a leaping 25-yd. TD, and then directed a 10-play, 44-yd. drive in the final 4 minutes that ended with an overtime-forcing, 48-yd. field goal. After the Cowboys' defense forced a punt on the 49ers first OT drive, Romo found backup WR Jesse Holley in stride for a 77-vd, gain that set up 19-vd, game-winning FG.

January 22, 2012 New York Giants 20, San Francisco 17 NFC Championship Game

When asked what his message was to his players after falling short to the New York Giants in the NFC Championship game, Harbaugh stated, "As Sir Andrew Barton said, 'Fight on my men, we're hurt but not slain. We'll lay down and bleed a while. Then we'll rise and fight again." Harbaugh, of course was referring to his team's blue-collar mentality after the Giants escaped rain-soaked Candlestick Park with a 20-17 overtime victory. "They stand toe-to-toe and fight every time they go out onto the field," added Harbaugh. "Be forever proud of our players and coaches the way they compete." Harbaugh got the Niners to the brink of the Super Bowl in his rookie year, taking over a 6-10 team and going 13-3 to win the NFC West. The extra minutes at Candlestick Park went in favor of the opponent in a year where most didn't expect a storybook season. The 49ers defense played stoically, recording six sacks on Giants QB Eli Manning, which ranked t-2nd for the most sacks in a postseason game in franchise history (6 - four times, last vs. Den. - 1/29/90). TE Vernon Davis gave the 49ers a 7-0 lead with 7:11 remaining in the 1st qtr. after running a pattern down the right sideline and outracing the secondary for a 73-yd. TD recept. from QB Alex Smith. On their ensuing drive, the Giants drove from their own 31 to the San Francisco 34-yd. line. On 3rd-and-1, Manning and the Giants failed to get a first down despite two opportunities. The Giants eventually evened the score on a 10-play, 69-yd. drive when TE Bear Pascoe caught Manning's short pass at the 6-yd. line and stepped into the end zone for the TD. The Giants added a FG with two seconds remaining in the 2nd qtr. to give them a 10-7 edge going into the locker room. Davis' second TD of the game, gave the lead back to the Niners at 14-10 with 5:18 remaining in the 3rd gtr. San Francisco's 3-play, 54-yd. TD drive was set up by a short pass to RB Frank Gore, who turned it into a 24-yd. gain. On the next play, Davis went in motion from right to left and caught a lofted pass to the end zone by Smith. The Giants took the lead back after the ball inadvertently glanced off WR Kyle Williams on a punt, giving the ball back to the Giants on the 49ers 29 yard line. Manning connected on a 17yard pass to WR Mario Manningham to give the Giants a 17-14 lead with 8:41 remaining. Williams' 40-yd. return on the ensuing kickoff enabled the 49ers to start their next possession at their own 45. On consecutive plays, Smith scrambled for 17 yds. and RB Kendall Hunter ran for 18 more, resulting in a K David Akers game-tying FG with 5:39 to go, 17-17. After both teams went 3-and-out on their first overtime possession, a Giants takeaway on a Williams fumble, forced by LB Jacquian Williams on a punt return, gave the Giants possession at their own 36 with 9:32 remaining. After converting one first down. K Lawrence Tynes sent the season-ending 31-yd. FG through the uprights.

St. Louis 24, San Francisco 24

The 24–24 stalemate marked the 14th tie for the 49ers since joining the NFL in 1950 and first since 1986 [10-10 at Atl. (10/19)]. It also marked the 49ers first tie at Candlestick Park since 1972 [20-20 vs. NO (10/22)]. St. Louis got off to a fast start, scoring on a 36-yd. TD pass from QB Sam Bradford to WR Brian Quick. The Rams next possession went 7-plays, for 93-yds., ending with a 7-vd. TD run by RB Steven Jackson to make the score 14-0 at the end of the 1st qtr. The 49ers answered on their next possession, driving 78-yds. on 12-plays, capped off by QB Alex Smith's 14-yd. TD pass to WR Michael Crabtree. Crabtree's TD recept. came on 3rd-and-7, marking his 3rd TD on 3rd down this season, ranking t-3rd in the NFL. Crabtree has tallied a TD in each of his last 5 games against St. Louis. Following the TD drive, Smith left the game due to injury. The San Francisco defense stiffened following the offense's TD, forcing two consecutive threeand-outs and what would have been a third if not for P Johnny Hekker's 1st down completion on a Rams fake punt. Three plays after the fake punt, LB Aldon Smith ended the Rams drive and the 1st half with his first of 2.0 sacks in the game. Smith has recorded 9.5 sacks for the season and 23.5 for his career. Smith's 9.5 sacks ranks 3rd in the NFL and 1st in the NFC. The first possession for each team to start the 3rd qtr. resulted in no change on the scoreboard. With 8:43 remaining in the 3rd gtr., St. Louis began a 16-play drive that milked 8:25 off the clock and resulted in a 27-yd. FG by K Greg Zuerlein, stretching the lead to 17-7. On the 49ers next possession, Alex Smith's backup, QB Colin Kaepernick, led the Niners down the field, completing 5 of 5 pass attempts for 67-yds. Kaepernick finished the drive with a 7-yd. TD run, as he successfully dove inside the pylon with 8:48 remaining in the 4th qtr. On the ensuing kickoff, RB Isaiah Pead fumbled the ball at the St. Louis 28-yd. line. CB Tramaine Brock (1st career FF) forced the fumble, it was recovered by S Darcel McBath (1st career FR) and returned 8-yds. to the Rams 20-yd. line. The 49ers first play following the fumble resulted in a 20-yd. TD run by RB Frank Gore. Gore rushed for 97-yds. on 21 carries. The 20-yd. TD run marked his 5th TD of the season and 48th of his career. He finished the game trailing just RB Joe Perry (50) and RB Roger Craig (50) for the most rushing TDs in franchise history. The TD made the score 21-17 in San Francisco's favor with 8:29 left in the 4th qtr. The Rams answered the 49ers score with a score of their own, going 14-plays, for 81-yds. capped off by a 2-yd TD pass from Bradford to WR Austin Pettis. The long St. Louis drive left only 1:13 on the clock, as the 49ers trailed 24-21. Kaepernick engineered an 8-play, 63yd. drive under pressure, accounting for 54 yds. to set K David Akers up for a 33-yd. game-tying FG to force overtime. In the extra period, St. Louis won the toss and elected to receive. On the Rams first play, Amendola recorded an 80-yd. recept. down to the 49ers 2-yd. line, but an illegal formation penalty against the Rams erased the long catch and brought the ball back to the St. Louis 13-yd. line. A few plays later, San Francisco forced a Rams punt, setting up good field position for the 49ers offense. The 49ers drove down to the St. Louis 23-yd. line, to set Akers up for a 41-yd. FG attempt that was wide left. The Rams took the ball, drove to the San Francisco 40-yd. line and Zuerlein also missed the potential game-winning FG as neither team was able to score before the clock ran out, resulting in a tie.

The 49ers and Rams had to play deep into overtime for the second time this season, as St. Louis outlasted San Francisco in a tough divisional matchup. Both defenses played well, resulting in only one scoring play during the 1st half. After forcing a Rams 3-and-out, the 49ers took over on their own 40-yd. line. On the first play of the drive, RB Frank Gore gained 23-yds. on the ground, putting the ball at the St. Louis 37-yd. line. The offensive line continued to open up holes for Gore, as he ran for 18 more vds. on 3 carries and capped off the drive with a 1-yd. TD run, making the score 7-0 with 3:01 remaining in the 1st qtr. After the San Francisco TD, the Rams offense was held to its second consecutive 3-and-out. With 2:31 remaining in the 2nd gtr., the 49ers defense recorded its third 3-and-out in four defensive series, with LB Aldon Smith forcing a long 3rd down after registering his 17.5 sack of the season. His 17.5 sacks ties the 49ers single-season franchise record (Fred Dean - 1983). Smith now has 31.5 career sacks, surpassing Hall of Fame DE Reggie White (31.0) for the most sacks by a player in their first two years in NFL history. On the 49ers second possession of the 3rd qtr., Kaepernick was flagged for intentional grounding in the end zone, which resulted in a safety making the score 7-2 with 4:36 left in the 3rd gtr. Garoppolo connected with Bourne on the two-point conversion to close the gap to 21–18. After forcing another three—and—out, the 49ers continued the comeback as McLaughlin connected on a 39-yd. FG to tie the score at 21-21. Late in the 4th Qtr., the Seahawks took a 24-21 on a 46-yd. FG by K Jason Myers. With 1:45 left on the clock, the 49ers marched down the field, as McLaughlin connected on a 47-yd. FG to tie the score, 24-24, at the end regulation. The Seahawks began overtime with possession of the ball, as Wilson was sacked by Armstead for a 6-yd. loss. LB Dre Greenlaw intercepted a pass intended for Hollister, and returned it for 47-yds., his first career INT. Following possessions by both teams, Myers connected on a game-winning 42-yd. FG as time expired. 1ct 2nd 3rd

SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS FOUNDER Anthony J. (Tony) Morabito [1910-1957]

Tony Morabito dedicated his life to bringing an idea to fruition that others thought preposterous the membership of the West Coast, in general, and San Francisco, in particular, in a nationwide professional football league.

Morabito was the sports pioneer of the West, bringing San Francisco its first major league professional team, the San Francisco 49ers, in a professional sports business that was dominated by the East Coast. Before World War II, Morabito was convinced the San Francisco Bay Area was ready for a franchise in the National Football League. The Bay Area was a mecca for college football. Fans came in droves to Kezar Stadium to see the Wonder Teams of California-Berkeley and the Wow Boys of Stanford, led by Frankie Albert. St. Mary's, Santa Clara and the University of San Francisco were also area powerhouses that regularly defeated the University of Washington and Southern California inside the walls of Kezar.

Morabito saw the rise of football in the area and presented a case to birth a professional football team in 1942 to National Football League officials, but he was quickly ushered out of the meeting room with firm politeness. In the spring of 1944, he took another crack, filing an application for an expansion team in the NFL. Morabito and some of his business associates went to Chicago to present their plan in front of League Commissioner, Elmer Layden. The NFL had no teams west of Chicago, and had no plans of changing their geographical structure. Morabito was again shunned.

He was then put in touch with Arch Ward, sports editor of The Chicago Tribune who was trying to organize a rival league, the All-America Football Conference. Morabito told Ward to count him in.

The new league's first meeting was held on June 6, 1944 in St. Louis, D-Day in Europe. Morabito agreed to form a San Francisco franchise in a league that would not begin operations until the end of the war.

It was the right time, and Morabito knew it.

A native of San Francisco, Morabito learned the game of football on vacant lots in the North Beach sector and had some success later as a halfback at St. Ignatius High School. He went on to play for the University of Santa Clara as a freshman in 1927 but his playing career was ended shortly after by a shoulder injury. He received his diploma in 1931 at the height of the Great Depression. He got a job driving a truck for $80 a month while his father, an immigrant from Italy, had built up a flourishing ship's service business on the San Francisco waterfront, only to see it fold in the wake of the depression years.

As the country's economic state began to improve, so did Morabito's. By 1940, when he was 30 years old, he became a success in the lumber carrier business. The army turned him down for duty in 1942 because of partial deafness, which later forced him to wear a hearing aid.

By 1946, the San Francisco 49ers first year of operation, the Bay Area was in the middle of a postwar economic surge. Morabito's lumber yard was in huge demand as houses were springing up to shelter the fast-growing population that was migrating to California.

Morabito owned the new All-America Football Conference franchise with his partners in the Lumber Terminals of San Francisco – Allen E. Sorrell and E.J. Turre . – and his younger brother, Victor.

Sorell suggested the team be named "49ers" after the voyagers who had rushed the

49ers Founder, Tony Morabito

West for gold. It is the only name the team has ever been affiliated with and San Francisco is the only city in which it has resided. The original team logo depicted San Francisco's wild beginnings. It was a goldminer in boots and a lumberjack shirt, firing a pair of pistols. One shot just missed the miner's head. while the other missed his foot. The logo was taken from a design seen on the side of railway freight cars.

With a charter, name and logo, the group recruited Lawrence "Buck" Shaw, Santa Clara's famous "Silver Fox," as the 49ers first head coach. The organization spent $250,000 to get structured before the team even took their first snap. Morabito's approach was considered "first class," by most, and a financial risk by many.

But Morabito charged on, hand-picking an inaugural roster comprised of 32 players including Frankie Albert, Norm Standlee and Bruno Banducci, all from Stanford, and stars from Santa Clara, including Alyn Beals, an end who scored 46 pro touchdowns in four years. Other known players on the roster were Len Eshmont, Johnny "Johnny Strike" Strzykalski and Joe "The Toe" Ventrano.

Morabito watched as his 49ers played their first game on August 24, 1946, a 17-7 exhibition win over the Los Angeles Dons at Balboa Park in San Diego. The 49ers first home game was played at Kezar Stadium on September 1, 1946, a 34-14 exhibition win over the Chicago Rockets in front of 45,000 fans made up of longshoremen, draymen, mechanics and waterfront workers.

The first regular season league game was on September 8, 1946 against the New York Yankees. The 49ers scored first, but lost 21-7 in a game that began in sunshine and ended in the famous Kezar fog.

The 49ers finished 9-5 in their first season under Shaw, and went on to have an 8-4-2 record in 1947, 12-2 finish in 1948 and 10-4 record, including a trip to the Championship Game, in their final season in the AAFC.

At the end of 1949, it was announced that the AAFC had run its course. San Francisco, Cleveland and Baltimore received NFL franchises and would begin play in the NFL in 1950. The merger was what Morabito had hoped for all along as he, his brother Victor and general manager Lou Spadia, continued to hold the reins.

The 49ers struggled during their first season among the NFL elite, finishing with a 3–9 record. The following year though, the 49ers went 7–4–1.

As the seasons went on, Morabito was the heart and soul of the organization, signing on greats like The Million Dollar Backfield: Joe "The Jet" Perry, Hugh "The King" McElhenny and John Henry Johnson. He also attracted some of the NFL's most renowned talents in R.C. Owens, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini, John Brodie and Y.A. Tittle.

The players appreciated his honesty, and trusted his every move and word.

As the 1950's progressed, Morabito was warned by his doctors that a bad heart and the rigors of football were not a healthy combination. But Morabito wasn't going to let a health scare get in the way of his passion. "What the hell, if I'm going to die, I might as well die at a football game," he said.

On October 27, 1957, the 49ers hosted the Chicago Bears at Kezar. The 49ers entered the game with a 3-1 record behind the talents of Owens, Perry, Tittle, McElhenny, Billy Wilson, and others. The Bears had a 14-0 advantage in the first quarter before the 49ers scored to close the deficit at 14-7. Just as the 49ers lined up for the next kickoff, Morabito, who was sitting next to his wife, Josephine, and his brother, Victor, in the guest box, suddenly collapsed. The great heart that had been with the 49ers since the franchise's inception had failed.

Father Bill McGuire of St. James parish was summoned to the guest box and pronounced Morabito his final absolution. Morabito looked up at him and smiled.

"Thank you father," he said.

Those were his last words.

The 49ers were behind 17-7 in the third quarter when the team learned of Morabito's death. His players rallied and came back to defeat Chicago, 21–17. in an emotional last win for their owner. The 49ers finished the season with three straight victories and an 8-4 record, tying Detroit for the NFL Western Division title.

Victor, Tony's younger brother, kept the team in the family until 1964, when he too died of a heart attack. Both Victor and Tony's wives, Jane and Josephine, retained control of the 49ers with Lou Spadia as team president until 1977, when a new team owner, Edward DeBartolo Jr. of Youngstown, Ohio emerged to buy the Morabito's conviction, passion and character birthed and kept an NFL franchise in San Francisco, and laid the sturdy foundation that enabled the 49ers to become one of the NFL's premier football powers over the past 60 years.

ED BLOCK COURAGE AWARD

The Ed Block Courage Award is named after Ed Block, the former head athletic trainer of the Baltimore Colts of 23 years. Block was a pioneer in his profession and a respected humanitarian whose most passionate cause was helping children of abuse. The award is presented in his name each year to the player that exemplified a commitment to sportsmanship and courage. Ed Block Courage Award winners from each of the 32 NFL teams are honored at a banquet in Baltimore, MD. All proceeds from the event benefit the Ed Block Courage Award Foundation's Courage House National Support Network. Named after the NFL team in a respective NFL city, a Courage House is a facility that provides support and quality care for abused children and their families in that community. The 49ers dedicated their Courage House in October 2003 at the Edgewood House in San Francisco.

BOBB McKITTRICK AWARD

This award is given annually to the 49ers offensive lineman who best exemplifies the dedication, excellence and commitment of offensive line coach Bobb McKittrick, a five—time Super Bowl champion.

In 1999, the San Francisco 49ers, under the direction of Bill Walsh, established the Bobb McKittrick Award. The award is meant to honor those offensive linemen who have best represented the courage, intensity and sacrifice displayed by the late McKittrick during his 21 years of service with the 49ers. With the award established, McKittrick retroactively chose winners that he coached each season dating back to 1981.

"Bobb gave distinguished service to the organization since our renaissance in 1979," Walsh said. "He was a vital factor in five Super Bowl championships, the evolution of a dynasty and in the production of some of the finest offensive linemen in football. Offensive linemen don't receive the recognition they so richly deserve. This gives us a venue to honor their sacrifices and achievements."

Known for his durability and dedication, Hazeltine passed away in 1987 from amyotrophic lateral sclerosis (ALS) and Bill Walsh established the award in his honor that year. SAN FRANCISCO 49ERS COMMUNITY/TEAM AWARDS

POP WARNER LITTLE SCHOLARS TEAM OF THE YEAR

In 2017, the 49ers were named the Pop Warner Little Scholars Team of the Year. Throughout the year, 49ers PREP presented by U.S. Bank provides youth from ages 7–18 with the opportunity to experience football through a multitude of diverse programs aimed at creating young, healthy leaders on and off the field. With grassroots efforts that include hosting the annual Levi's® Stadium High School Football Series, free youth flag football programs, and free youth football camps, 49ers PREP has increased participation steadily year over year across all programs in all nine Bay Area counties and beyond.

The 49ers have co-hosted the last 13 annual Football Camp for the Stars, designed especially for athletes with Down Syndrome who love football. Athletes go through drills led jointly by 49ers players and Valley Christian High School football players to learn the fundamentals of the game, resulting in an authentic football experience. Since the beginning of his tenure as 49ers head coach, Kyle Shanahan has participated in the camp and provided words of inspiration to the participants.

ESPN SPORTS HUMANITARIAN TEAM OF THE YEAR

After being recognized as a finalist for the third consecutive year, the San Francisco 49ers were awarded Sports Humanitarian Team of the Year Award in 2017, presented by ESPN. In addition to the team collectively donating over 2,952 hours of volunteer time to 412 community events in 2019 alone, the 49ers Foundation has donated nearly $50 million to local nonprofits over almost 30 years and is at the forefront of two innovative and highly impactful programs that use the intersection between STEM and sport to improve educational opportunities for Bay Area youth.

First, the 49ers STEM Leadership Institute (SLI) was founded in 2014 in partnership with Chevron, the Silicon Valley Education Foundation and the Santa Clara Unified School District to provide educational opportunities for students interested in pursuing STEM related careers. Each year, a new class of 60 seventh grade students are selected from hundreds of applicants to embark on a six—year immersive experience in Science, Technology, Engineering, and Math. Second, the 49ers STEAM Education Program — which also opened in 2014, uses the game of football and Levi's Stadium to provide informal learning experiences for K–8 students through its program that teaches standards—aligned (Common Core and Next Generation Science) lessons using the STEAM principles of science, technology, engineering, art, and mathematics. Housed within the Denise DeBartolo York Education Center at Levi's Stadium, the program has reached over 300,000 Bay Area students and educators since inception — free of charge — with over 60 percent of students coming from Title I designated schools.

The San Francisco 49ers franchise is arguably one of the most fabled in sports history. With the multitude of memories that the team's history holds, a place to honor and capture these tremendous times and legendary figures only seems appropriate.

During the 2009 offseason, the San Francisco 49ers and the York family proudly introduced the creation of the Edward J. DeBartolo Sr. 49ers Hall of Fame, named in honor of the beloved patriarch of the storied franchise. The 49ers Hall of Fame was established to recognize players, administrators and coaches who have made exceptional contributions to the organization.

A week after the creation of the new 49ers Hall of Fame, team President & CEO Jed York announced the name of its inaugural inductee, his uncle, Edward J. DeBartolo Jr., known as "Mr. D" to most close to the 49ers family. He was then officially inducted during halftime of the team's home opener versus the Seattle Seahawks on September 20, 2009.

Being inducted into the 49ers Hall of Fame is no easy task, and the selection process reflects the level of honor which it bestows. As a prerequisite for induction, all 49ers Hall of Fame candidates must have displayed one or more of the following qualifications: outstanding production and performance on the field, key contributions to the team's success, and/or the embodiment of the spirit and essence of the San Francisco 49ers.

A number of players and coaches have already been recognized in various ways throughout the years for their contributions to the game of professional football and the 49ers organization. Accordingly, the franchise has automatically enshrined members of the 49ers family who have either had their jersey numbers already retired by the organization or have been selected to the Pro Football Hall of Fame in Canton, Ohio. These players include: John Brodie, Dwight Clark, Fred Dean, Jimmy Johnson, John Henry Johnson, Charlie Krueger, Ronnie Lott, Hugh McElhenny, Joe Montana, Leo Nomellini, Joe Perry, Bob St. Clair, Y.A. Tittle, Bill Walsh, Dave Wilcox and Steve Young.

The 49ers organization will enshrine new members each season.

Tittle, Bob St. Clair, Leo Nomellini and Jimmy Johnson and also attracted the likes of R.C. Owens, John Brodie, Charlie Krueger, Billy Wilson and many other top talents during their tenure. After Tony's passing in 1957, Vic retained control of the organization until his own death in 1964. Throughout both the AAFC and the NFL, the 49ers went 128-110-6 during Tony and Vic Morabito's era (including a trip to the AAFC Championship Game in 1949 and the NFC playoffs in 1957) and became one of the NFL's premier franchises.

His most productive year came in 1961 when he started all 14 games, caught 55 passes for 1,032 yards and scored five touchdowns. A former college basketball star, Owens transferred his skills over to the football field and was notorious for out-leaping defensive backs for high arching passes from QB Y.A. Tittle. Thus, the origin of the term "Alley Oop" was created, and later became more well-known from its use in basketball. A free agent in 1962, Owens went on to play with the Baltimore Colts and New York Giants, before retiring following the 1964 season. After his playing career ended, Owens spent more than two decades working for the 49ers. HISTORICAL HIGHLIGHTS

December 10, the NFL and AAFC announced that the two leagues will merge. The NFL agrees to adopt Baltimore, Cleveland and San Francisco as new franchises.

1950

The 49ers struggled in their NFL debut, winning only three games. A rival coach described them as "not big enough or tough enough."

1951

In an amazing reversal of form sparked by a great rookie group, the 49ers were in the race until the season's final day and finished only a half game off the top. Led by LB Hardy Brown and his famed shoulder tackle, the club had one of the toughest defensive units in the League. QB Y.A. Tittle and E Billy Wilson began their great 49er careers.

1952

After a blazing start, the 49ers slumped in midseason. HB Hugh "The King" McElhenny came off the University of Washington campus to become the NFL Player Of The Year and the most feared runner in football.

1953

The 49ers had their best NFL showing posting a 9–3 record, normally good enough for a championship. Detroit, however, was 10–2. Two of San Francisco's losses came with QB Y.A. Tittle sidelined because of a severe facial injury. The three defeats were by a total of nine points. FB Joe "The Jet" Perry became one of the few players in pro history to gain more than 1,000 yards in a single season. E Gordy Soltau was the league's top scorer for the second straight year.

1954

The 49ers jumped out to a blazing start, posting a 4–0–1 record through the season's first five games. However the early momentum was slowed by injuries to three key members of the legendary "Million Dollar Backfield." QB Y.A. Tittle, HB Hugh McElhenny and FB Joe Perry all missed action with different injuries, but Perry returned to become the first player to record 1,000 yards rushing in consecutive seasons.

1955

With HB Hugh McElhenny hobbled by a foot injury, the 49ers had their second—worst season in history under Norman P. Strader, who succeeded Buck Shaw as head coach.

1956

In head coach Frankie Albert's first year at the helm, the 49ers were in last place at mid—season with a 1–6 record. They went 4–0–1 in their last five games for a brilliant stretch drive.

1957

This undoubtedly was one of the most emotional and dramatic seasons in 49ers history. Every game was a cliffhanger and the Alley Oop pass from QB Y.A. Tittle to rookie HB R.C. Owens became a house—hold byword. Emotions reached a peak when the beloved Tony Morabito collapsed and died of a heart attack at the Chicago Bears game on Oct. 27. Trail—ing 17–7, the 49ers fought back for a great victory, 21–17. The magnificent E Billy Wilson caught a pass from Tittle for the winning touchdown in the fourth quarter. Tied with Detroit at 8–4 when the season ended, the 49ers lost the playoff game, 31–27, after holding a 27–7 lead in the third quarter.

1958

An up-and-down season finished on a high note with victories over Green Bay and Baltimore. The 6-6 record, however, was blackened by the 33-3 and 56-7 lacings at the hands of the Los Angeles Rams. Head coach Frankie Albert resigned at the end of the year.

1959

With Howard W. "Red" Hickey in charge, the 49ers were in contention all the way and QB John Brodie came into his own at quarterback when he led the team to a 21–20 upset of Cleveland. HB J.D. Smith, a converted defensive back, became the second 49er to accumulate more than 1,000 yards rushing.

1960

Howard W. "Red" Hickey saved a seemingly hopeless season when he installed his shotgun attack and the club captured four of its last five games, including a 30–22 upset of Baltimore.

1961

The success of Howard W. Hickey's shotgun amazed the football world, especially in a 49–0 victory over Detroit. QB Billy Kilmer, a passing-running rookie from UCLA, was made to order for the new offense. When the shotgun stopped, QB John Brodie took over again in the T formation and had the finest season in 49ers QB annals. Indicating the evenness of NFL competition, the 49ers were playing for a second–place tie, plus a trip to the Runner–up Bowl at Miami, or a fifth–place position on the last day of the season. The Colts again won by three points, but 1961 will remain as one of the most exciting and interesting years in 49ers history.

1962

For the first time since 1956, the 49ers finished a frustrating season with more defeats than victories. In so doing, the honored adage of "it's easier to win at home than on the road," proved false—the 49ers won only one of seven at Kezar Stadium, but cap—tured five of seven road contests.

1963

A multitude of injuries to key personnel started the 49ers off to a disappointing 2–12 season. One of the victories, however, was a 20–14 upset of ultimate world champion Chicago, the only league defeat suffered by the Bears all season.

1964

Club Chief Executive Victor P. Morabito died of a heart attack in May. Injuries to key personnel prevented the 49ers from gaining enough offensive momentum to forge a winning season despite having one of the toughest defensive units in the league. Outstanding rookie performances by E Dave Parks, QB George Mira and LB Dave Wilcox also took some of the sting from the 4–10 record.

1965

Outstanding offensive performances enabled the 49ers to jump from the bottom to fourth place in the Western Division as the team led the NFL in both scoring and total offense. QB John Brodie was the most productive passer in the NFL, E Dave Parks led the league in receiving and rookie FB Ken Willard and veteran HB John David Crow, acquired in an offseason trade, led a strong ground game. The 7–6–1 record included a season–opening 52–24 victory over the Chicago Bears, marking the most points scored by the 49ers in NFL play.

After a somewhat slow start, the 49ers got in gear just before the midway point and became one of only two teams to beat the eventual world champion Green Bay Packers. After that, they finished with a respectable 6–6–2 record and were in the battle for second place in the Western Division until the final league game. G John Thomas and E Dave Parks were All–Pro, and they joined G Howard Mudd, C Bruce Bosley, FB Ken Willard and LB Dave Wilcox in the Pro Bowl.

1967

An auspicious start (5–1) disintegrated into disappointment for the 49ers as injuries took a heavy toll and a six–game losing streak took them out of the running. QB George Mira came off the bench to lead the squad to two season–ending victories and salvage a 7–7 record. There were bright spots, however, as QB John Brodie and the 49ers were the only team to beat the power–laden Rams in a league game. G Bruce Bosley played in the Pro Bowl for the second straight season.

Under new coach Dick Nolan, the 49ers posted a 7–6–1 record. The season turned on key wins over the New York Giants, 26–10, and Green Bay, 27–20. Brilliant performances by QB John Brodie, WR Clifton McNeil and RB Ken Willard led a prolific offense, while DT Charlie Krueger, LB Dave Wilcox and DB Kermit Alexander sparked a revitalized defense. McNeil and G Howard Mudd were chosen All–NFL and were joined by Wilcox, Willard and Alexander in the Pro Bowl.

1969

Beset by injuries that nearly decimated the defensive unit, the 49ers struggled through the early part of the season. They went winless in their first five games before beating Baltimore, the first time they had beaten the Colts in 13 previous games. The 49ers finished 4–8–2 and five players—CB Jimmy Johnson, LB Dave Wilcox, G Elmer Collett, FB Ken Willard and rookie WR Gene Washington—were selected to the Pro Bowl. Johnson was also All—Pro and winner of the Len Eshmont Award.

This was the greatest year since the club became a member of the NFL in 1950. The team recorded a 10–3 record and captured the Western Division (NFC) Championship. QB John Brodie was the NFL'S Player of the Year, CB Bruce Taylor was NFC Rookie of the Year and Coach Dick Nolan was a near—unan—imous choice as NFC Coach of the Year. Brodie, WR Gene Washington, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All—Pro and joined T Len Rohde in the Pro Bowl.

1971

The 49ers forged a 9–5–0 record and won their second consecutive NFC Western Division title, clinching the crown on the final day by beating Detroit, 31–27, the identical score by which the Lions had knocked the 49ers out of championship play in 1957. The season also was the club's first in its plush new home, Candlestick Park. C Forrest Blue, LB Dave Wilcox and CB Jimmy Johnson were All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington, RB Vic Washington, DE Cedrick Hard—man and CB Bruce Taylor.

1972

Early—season inconsistency, compounded by an injury to QB John Brodie in the fifth game of the season, cast appall on the 49ers prospects for a third—straight NFC Western Division title, but QB Steve Spurrier stepped in for Brodie and turned things around with a brilliant, poised performance. In the final quarter of the final game against Minnesota, the recovered Brodie relieved Spurrier and threw two TD passes in a 20–17 win over the Vikings. The victory clinched divisional title number three, but Spurrier's nine—game contribution was the key. C Forrest Blue, DB Jimmy Johnson, TE Ted Kwalick, WR Gene Washington and LB Dave Wilcox were All—Pro selections.

1973

In what was both a disappointing and significant year, the 49ers were 5–9 after tackling the NFL's toughest schedule, a rash of key injuries and an unsettled quarterback situation. It also marked the end of the brilliant careers of QB John Brodie and DT Charlie Krueger, both of whom retired at year's end. C Forrest Blue and LB Dave Wilcox were voted All–Pro and joined in the Pro Bowl by TE Ted Kwalick, G Woody Peoples and P Tom Wittum.

974

The 49ers used five different quarterbacks after an injury to starter QB Steve Spurrier, a week before the season opened, sidelined him for most of the year. After winning the first two games, the club lost a team—record seven straight and then closed with a rush, winning four of its last five to finish the season 6–8. RB Wilbur Jackson was named The Sporting News ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and was named to the NFL All—Rookie team along with QB Tom Owen and DB Mike Holmes. C Forrest Blue and P Tom Wittum were All—NFC and selected for the Pro Bowl along with CB Jimmy Johnson. A knee injury forced perennial All—Pro LB Dave Wilcox to retire after a brilliant 11—year career with the 49ers.

1975

A strong defensive performance throughout the season couldn't offset an erratic offense troubled by an unsettled quarterback situation and a rebuilding offensive line. The high point of the 5–9 season was a 24–23 win over Los Angeles to end a 10–game losing streak to the Rams. At season's end, CB Jimmy Johnson was the club's first ever two—time Len Eshmont Award winner.

1976

A turnaround year for the 49ers as the team, under coach Monte Clark, posted an 8-6 record, their first winning season since 1972. With new QB Jim Plunkett at the controls, the 49ers got off to their best start ever (6-1), before hitting a mid-season four-game losing streak knocking the club out of playoff contention. The season saw the emergence of a powerful defensive unit that led the league in quarterback sacks with 61. RB Delvin Williams set a 49ers single-season rushing record with 1,203 yards. DE Tommy Hart was named All-Pro and played in the Pro Bowl along with Williams, DE Cleveland Elam and LB Dave Washington. C Randy Cross was an All-Rookie team selection. Hart became a two-time winner of the Len Eshmont Award and CB Jimmy Johnson retired after a brilliant 16year career with the 49ers.

1977

In the 32nd year of their existence, the 49ers began a new era. On March 31, 1977, the club became the property of Edward J. DeBartolo Jr. and came under the guidance of Joe Thomas as general manager. The changeover was made more dramatic because the San Francisco 49ers were one of the few NFL franchises which had never previously changed ownership or location. On the field, under Coach Ken Meyer, the 49ers ran hot and cold. The club lost its first five games, then won five of the next six before dropping the final three contests to finish 5–9. SS Mel Phillips was named winner of the coveted Len Eshmont Award. DE Cleveland Elam was selected All—Pro and played for the NFC in the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers suffered through their longest season as the club fell to 2–14 and three coaches were hired and fired in less than 12 months. First Head Coach Pete McCulley departed after nine games with a 1–8 record, and his replacement, Fred O'Connor, was let go at the end of the year as the team won just one of its final seven contests. Bill Walsh was hired as the new coach and general manager. RB Paul Hofer, who replaced RB O.J. Simpson when the newly—acquired star went to the sidelines for the year with a shoulder injury, was named recipient of the Len Eshmont award.

The 49ers suffered through their second consecutive 2-14 season, but there were several indications of improvement. San Francisco went from virtually the worst-ranked offensive team in the league in '78 to one of the most productive in '79, ranking first in passing offense in the NFC and sixth in total offense in the NFL. RB Paul Hofer again was the Len Eshmont Award recipient and individual leader, racking up 615 yards rushing and an additional 662 yards receiving on 58 catches in only seven starts. QB Steve DeBerg broke Fran Tarkenton's NFL record for completions by connecting on 347 passes. K Ray Wersching set a club record with an 83.3 field goal percentage and also led the league with that mark. RB O.J. Simpson retired from the 49ers and the NFL, finishing as the second leading rusher of all time with 11,236 yards.

1980

In their second season of the Bill Walsh era, the 49ers showed gradual improvement in their rebuilding program. A three-game winning streak to open the season, combined with a three-game victory string from Week 12 through Week 14, enabled the Niners to post a 6-10 season, tripling the number of victories from each of the previous two 2-14 campaigns. Week 14 was a day when the 49ers made NFL history. That December 7 at Candlestick Park, the 49ers overcame a 35-7 halftime deficit against the New Orleans Saints to win in overtime, 38-35. The 28-point comeback was the biggest comeback in NFL history. E Jim Stuckey and P Jim Miller were named to All-Rookie teams, while another rookie, FB Earl Cooper, led the NFC in receptions with 83, the most catches ever by an NFL rookie. WR Dwight Clark caught 82 passes to break the team wide receiver mark, and QB Joe Montana set the club passing percentage record at 64.5 with 176 completions in 273 attempts.

It was a year of firsts and bests for the 49ers in 1981. In his third season as head coach and general manager, Bill Walsh guided San Francisco to a 16–3 record (best record in the league that year), the NFC Western Division title (first since '72), the NFC Championship crown (first ever for the 49ers) and the World Championship/Super Bowl XVI win (first ever for the 49ers). Walsh earned every possible NFC Coach of the Year award and all seven NFL Coach of the Year honors, while six 49ers were named to the Pro Bowl—WR Dwight Clark, C Randy Cross, QB Joe Montana, DE Fred Dean, S Ronnie Lott and S Dwight Hicks. Three San Francisco players were selected to All—Pro teams as recognized by the NFL—Cross, Lott and Dean. Montana, who led the NFC in pass—ing in '81, was named MVP of Super Bowl XVI (for leading his team to a 26-21 win over the Cincinnati Bengals of the AFC). Dean was picked UPI NFL Defensive Player of the Year, NFL Outstanding Defensive Lineman of the Year (NFL Players Association) and NFC Defensive Player of the Year (Kansas City Committee of the 101). San Francisco opened and closed the season in Pontiac, MI in drastically different styles. The 49ers lost two of their first three games of 1981, including the season opener on the road against Detroit, then ran off seven wins-before a loss to Cleveland 15-12-and ran off eight more wins (including playoffs, the NFC Championship and Super Bowl XVI). The 49ers won 15 of their last 16 games, beat five opponents twice-including all three postseason foes-and became the first team since Chicago in 1945-47 to go from the worst NFL record (2-14 in 1979) to the league's best (13-3 in '81) in just three seasons. All this happened with three rookies (S Carlton Williamson, CB Eric Wright and Lott) starting in the defensive secondary. Those three rookies, along with Montana, Clark, Cross, WR Freddie Solomon and Hicks, combined with "old veterans" Dean and LB Jack "Hacksaw" Reynolds, formed a nucleus of world championship vintage.

As defending world champions, the San Francisco 49ers did not enjoy the 1982 season, but then not many NFL fans, coaches and players throughout the league did either (except maybe in Washington, who were Super Bowl XVII champs). The Niners fell to 3-6 and missed out on the playoffs. In the strikeshortened season, San Francisco went winless at home (0-5) but did manage a 3-1 road record (the Niners were 0-2 prior to the 57-day players' strike and 3-4 following it). WR Dwight Clark had an outstanding season, leading the NFL with 60 receptions and being named consensus All-Pro and NFL Player of the Year by Sports Illustrated, LB Keena Turner (second-team All-Pro), S Ronnie Lott (Pro Bowl), C Randy Cross (Pro Bowl), S Dwight Hicks (Pro Bowl), T Keith Fahnhorst and QB Joe Montana (NFL record for five straight 300-yard passing games) were bright spots in an otherwise disappointing season.

For the second time in three seasons, San Francisco played in the NFC Championship Game. The '83 49ers were 10-6 (third best regular season victory total in club history) and NFC Western Division Champions (fifth time since 1970, second time since 1981). In the playoffs, San Francisco squeezed past Detroit, 24-23, but lost to Washington, 24-21, in the NFC Championship contest. Individual standouts included QB Joe Montana (the league's No. 1 all-time QB entering the 1984 season), S Ronnie Lott (making his third Pro Bowl appearance in as many years), DE Fred Dean (leading the NFC in sacks with 17.5), DE Dwaine Board (second in sacks with 13), CB Eric Wright (team leader in interceptions with seven, two for scores), WR Dwight Clark (team leader with 70 receptions and eight TDs), WR Freddie Solomon (club record 21.4 yards per catch), K Ray Wersching (team-record 126 points, including a perfect 51-of-51 PATs), offensive linemen C Randy Cross, T Keith Fahnhorst and G John Ayers, RB Roger Craig (752 yards rushing, 427 receiving), RB Wendell Tyler (856 rushing yards, 285 receiving) and NFL All-Rookie team pick LB Riki Ellison.

984

The 49ers experienced the most successful regular season in NFL history by winning a league record 15 games, including all eight road contestssetting yet another NFL standard. The Niners broke 14 team records in '84, while becoming the first NFC team to sweep all of its conference games, and the first NFC West unit to win all contests within the division. Led by RB Roger Craig and QB Joe Montana, San Francisco capped the year by routing the Miami Dolphins in Super Bowl XIX, 38-16. The win was the 18th victory of the '84 campaign, establishing an NFL standard for wins in a single season (including playoffs). San Francisco scored a then team-record 475 points. The 49ers defense was the stinglest in the NFL in '84, allowing a league-low 227 points scored. Honors were numerous, including Pro Bowl recognition for 10 of Bill Walsh's charges-Montana, RB Wendell Tyler, T Keith Fahnhorst, C Randy Cross and C Fred Quillan on offense and S Dwight Hicks, S Ronnie Lott, S Carlton Williamson and CB Eric Wright (the entire Niners secondary), and LB Keena Turner on defense.

1985

At 10–6, San Francisco qualified for postseason play for the fourth time since 1981. Offensively, RB Roger Craig and WR Jerry Rice emerged as potent weapons in the attack. Craig became the first NFL player to surpass 1,000 yards rushing and receiving in the same season. Rice was named NFC ROOKIE OF THE YEAR and set the team record for first—year players with 927 receiving yards. The defense experienced the influx of four new starters in '85 (NT Michael Carter, LB Todd Shell, LB Michael Walter and DE John Harty). Carter won a berth on the Pro Bowl team, as did DBs Eric Wright and Carlton Williamson.

The 49ers captured their fourth NFC Western Division title since 1981. Offensively, the team was led by All-Pro wide receiver WR Jerry Rice, who paced the NFL with 1,570 receiving yards and 15 touchdowns. Those marks established club standards in addition to Rice's team-record 16 total scores. The defense managed 49 takeaways, tying the Kansas City Chiefs for NFL leadership. San Francisco's 39 interceptions and 578 return yards set team records, while five scores on interceptions returns tied another club mark. S Ronnie Lott tied HB Dave Baker's 1960 team record with 10 interceptions. The output by young players was vital due to major injuries suffered by many starting veterans. San Francisco made 20 roster moves during the season, shuffling players in and out of action. QB Joe Montana missed Weeks 2-9 due to back surgery, while backup signal-caller Jeff Kemp did not play Weeks 8-11 due to a hip injury.

The San Francisco 49ers marched to an NFL regular season best 13–2 record. It marked a league—leading third time in the decade of the '80s that the team either tied or posted the best win—loss percentage during the regular season. San Francisco led the NFL with 5,987 total yards and was best among league defenders allowing 4,095 total yards. It was the first time in Niners history that the team led the league in fewest total yards allowed. WR Jerry Rice set NFL records with 22 receiving touchdowns and scoring receptions in 13 consecutive games. The durable wide out received postseason Most Valuable Player awards from nearly every news agency and sports publication. QB Joe Montana won the first NFL passing title of his nine—year career and set a team record with 31 touchdown passes. S Ronnie Lott, Montana and Rice were joined by NT Michael Carter and RB Roger Craig on the NFC squad in the 1988 Pro Bowl.

The 49ers climaxed their 1988 season in thrilling fashion with a dramatic touchdown drive in the waning seconds of Super Bowl XXIII. QB Joe Montana's 10-yard scoring toss to WR John Taylor with 34 seconds remaining in the contest gave the Niners their third Super Bowl win of the decade and the rights to the title "Team of the 1980s." The world championship game against the Cincinnati Bengals was a microcosm of the entire '88 campaign. San Francisco opened the year strong with a 5-2 record. but by Week 12 were 6-5, two games out of first place with only five contests to play. That week's victory over Washington launched a four-game winning streak that resulted in the Niners moving up from third to first place in the NFC West standings and earning a third consecutive NFC Western Division title. As the season ended RB Roger Craig broke the team's single season rushing record (finishing with 1,502 yards) and K Mike Cofer established new Niners single-season standards for field goals attempted (38) and made (27). WR Jerry Rice went on a playoff tear that included: an NFL postseason record-tying three touchdown receptions against Minnesota, the Montana-to-Rice battery hookedup on first half touchdowns of 61 and 27 yards at Chicago, and concluded with a Super Bowl XXIII MVP performance of 11 receptions for a Super Bowl record 215 vards and a touchdown. Defenders S Ronnie Lott, DE Charles Haley, NT Michael Carter, along with Rice, Taylor and Craig, were selected to the Pro Bowl.

George Seifert was named head coach of the San Francisco 49ers just four days after the team had won its third World Championship under retiring head man Bill Walsh. Seifert's guest for the title was tested early and often as the 49ers endured nail-biting wins at Indianapolis (30-24) and Tampa Bay (20-16) to open the season. QB Joe Montana threw for 428 yards and five touchdowns, including a team-record four TD tosses in the fourth quarter resulting in a 10-point victory (38-28) in Philadelphia. Under first-year offensive coordinator Mike Holmgren, the Niners accumulated more vardage than any other NFL team. WRs Jerry Rice and John Taylor, RB Roger Craig, G Guy McIntyre and QB Joe Montana were 1990 Pro Bowl participants. Rice's 1,483 receiving yards paced the league. Craig exceeded 1,000 yards rushing for the second consecutive season and running mate FB Tom Rathman led NFC running backs with 73 receptions. Montana had the best season of his career. A consensus Player of the Year, Montana's 112.4 quarterback rating set a then NFL single-season record. Montana was selected by his teammates as the '89 recipient of the Len Eshmont Award. Fueled by Rice's 72-yard first quarter catch-and-run for a score, the 49ers exploded for 27 first half points and cruised to a 41-13 victory against Minnesota in their opening '89 playoff contest. The 49ers faced Los Angeles in the NFC Championship Game. The Niners started slowly, however. Two long, second-quarter scoring drives and a touchdown set up by an interception gave San Francisco a 21-3 lead at intermission. Cofer's three field goals cushioned San Francisco's lead as the team advanced to Super Bowl XXIV with a satisfying 30-3 win. The 49ers displayed optimal performance at the highest level of competition while securing their second consecutive World Championship, The resounding 55-10 defeat of the Denver Broncos in Super Bowl XXIV was a convergence of talent and technique, planning and purpose. San Francisco tied or set nearly 40 Super Bowl records and Montana was honored with the game's MVP award for an unprecedented third time.

The Niners finished the season with an NFL—best 14–2 mark and came within four seconds (in a 15–13 loss to the NY Giants) of earning their third consecutive trip to the Super Bowl. In addition to recording the NFL's best win—loss mark for the second straight season, the 49ers captured the NFC Western Division title for the fifth consecutive year and the eighth time since 1981 ('81, 1983–84, 1986–90). San Francisco claimed its 11th Division crown since the NFL/AFL merger of 1970, more than any NFC Western Division opponent (the Rams were second with eight), and second most in NFL history (behind Miami's 13 AFC East titles).

San Francisco opened the 1990 season with a team-record 10 consecutive victories. The 49ers also posted an 8-0 mark on the road, giving them the longest road winning streak in league history (19 games, including postseason) heading into '91. QB Joe Montana and WR Jerry Rice again formed one of the most prolific aerial combinations in pro football. Montana, who was named 1990 Sportsman of the Year by Sports Illustrated, finished his 12th NFL season by throwing for a then team-record 3,944 yards. He also tossed 26 touchdown passes (second in the NFC) and finished as the third highest rated guarterback in the conference. On the receiving end of many of those Montana passes was Rice, who became only the fourth player in league history to reach the century mark in receptions for a single season. Rice hauled in 100 passes for 1,502 yards and 13 TDs, and earned his fifth consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

In one of the most memorable performances of the season (if not team history), Rice tied an NFL record with five TD receptions in a 45-35 victory at Atlanta, October 14. The defensive side of the ball was led by LB-DE Charles Haley's 58 tackles and an NFC-high 16 sacks. For his efforts, the fourthyear player from James Madison University was named as a starter in the 1991 Pro Bowl. LB Bill Romanowski led the team in tackles with 79, while CB Darryl Pollard registered 74, including a team-high 72 solo stops. A number of team career records fell by the wayside in '90. Montana slipped past QB John Brodie to take over the career passing lead (34,998 yards), while RB Roger Craig became the all-time team record holder in career receptions with 508. moving ahead of WR Dwight Clark's total of 506. The 49ers placed five players on the 1991 NFC Pro Bowl squad, four as starters. Representing the 49ers were Haley, Rice, S Ronnie Lott and G Guy McIntyre, while Montana, selected as a starter, was unable to participate because of a finger injury suffered in the NFC Championship Game.

It was a classic case of "too little...too late" for the San Francisco 49ers in 1991. After losing six of their first 10 games by a total of 26 points, the Nin– ers won their remaining six contests (by a total of 95 points) but missed the playoffs for the first time since 1982.

The 49ers finished the 1991 campaign in impressive fashion during that final six-game span, with a margin of victory that averaged almost 16 points. During that final six-game span, the Niners defeated three playoff teams (New Orleans, Kansas City and Chicago) while averaging 31.5 points per game in the process. WR Jerry Rice continued to register his place in club and league history taking over the club's career receiving record with 525 catches. Rice finished third in the NFC with 80 receptions and 1,206 yards, surpassing 1,000 receiving yards for a club-record sixth consecutive season, and he led the NFL with 14 TD receptions. QB Steve Young won the NFL passing title, despite missing six games due to a knee injury. Young, who passed for 2,517 yards and 17 TDs, finished with a 101.8 rating, besting Washington's Mark Rypien (97.9) for the title.

When Young was injured at Atlanta November 3, QB Steve Bono (1,617 yards, 11 TDs) came off the bench to rally the team to five consecutive victories. On the defensive side of the ball, S Dave Waymer finished as the leader in total tackles (86), solo tackles (77), interceptions (4), interception return yards (78) and passes defensed (16) and tied CB Kevin Lewis for the lead in forced fumbles (3). LB-DE Charles Haley and DE Larry Roberts each posted seven sacks, while CB Don Griffin's 99-yard fumble return against the Bears set a team record and was the third longest return in league history. San Francisco placed three players on the 1992 NFC Pro Bowl squad, two as starters, as Rice, Guy McIntyre and Haley were all selected (Rice and McIntyre as starters). It was the sixth time in Rice's seven-year career that he was selected to play on the islands. McIntyre and Haley were each selected for the third time.

The San Francisco 49ers continued their winning tradition as they once again posted the NFL's best regular season record (14–2), while winning their sixth NFC Western Division title in seven years, and advancing to the NFC Championship Game for the second time in three seasons. In the NFC Divisional Playoffs, the 49ers defeated defending Super Bowl Champion Washington (20–13). However, San Francisco fell to Dallas, 30–20, in the NFC Championship Game at Candlestick Park the following week.

WR Jerry Rice continued to etch his name in football history, becoming the NFL's all—time touchdown reception leader with 103. He tied Steve Largent's mark of 100 in Week 13 against the Philadelphia Eagles (11–29), then broke the record the following week vs. the Miami Dolphins (12–6). QB Steve Young, who harvested a total of 34 awards, including the NFL'S Most Valuable Player Award, won the NFL passing title for the second straight year, finishing an amazing 16.3 points ahead of his closest competitor. Young, who passed for 3,465 yards and 25 TDs, finished with a 107.0 rating, Following his 101.8 rating in 1991, it marked the first time in league history that anyone had posted back-to-back seasons with ratings higher than 100 each year. RB Ricky Watters gained 1,013 yards to establish a team rushing record for first-year backs. K Mike Cofer's 107 points led the 49ers in scoring for the fifth consecutive year.

On the defensive side of the ball, linebacking led the charge as LB Bill Romanowski finished as the leader in total tackles (80) and assists (15). LB Mike Walter (67 solo stops) and LB Tim Harris (17 sacks for 116 yards) also led defensive categories. CB Don Griffin paced the defensive backfield with five interceptions and 19 passes defensed.

Fans at Candlestick saw the Niners rewrite part of the team's record book in '92 as they set team marks for total offense (598 yards) vs. the Buffalo Bills (Sept. 13) and points (56) in their win over the Atlanta Falcons (56–17, 10–18). San Francisco placed seven players on the 1993 NFC Pro Bowl squad, including four starters and five first—time participants. Rice, G Guy McIntyre, DT Pierce Holt and Young were all named as starters. TE Brent Jones, Watters and T Steve Wallace were also selected. It was the seventh time in Rice's eight—year career that he was selected to play on the islands and McIntyre was named for the fourth time, while the others made their first visits.

The 1993 season was another in a long line of successes for the San Francisco 49ers. Among the team's accomplishments were: a 10–6 record, marking an NFL-record 11th consecutive season with 10 or more victories, the team's 10th NFC West title in 13 seasons and a third appearance in four years in the NFC title game. In addition, San Francisco led the National Football League in scoring and total offense and established or tied five of the team's nine major offensive records. The marks set included most net offensive yards (6,435), most TDs (61), most first downs (372) and highest average gain per play (6.3). The Niners also tied the team mark for net passing yards in a season with 4,302, equaling the record set in 1989.

Individually, QB Steve Young became the first player in NFL history to lead the NFL in passing three consecutive seasons, when he posted a 101.5 rating in 1993. In addition, it was his third consecutive season with a rating over 100, also a league first. Young completed 68 percent of his passes (second highest in team history) for a then club—record 4,023 yards. His 29 scoring passes in '93 ranked third on the team's single—season charts.

RB Ricky Watters led the ground game for the second consecutive season, narrowly missing the 1,000-yard mark with 950 yards. Watters posted 10 rushing TDs during the season and set an NFL single-game playoff record with a five-touchdown outburst vs. the New York Giants. WR Jerry Rice posted one of his best seasons, recording 98 receptions for 1,503 yards and 15 touchdowns on his way to being named NFL OFFENSIVE PLAYER OF THE YEAR by Associated Press. He also received the team's Len Eshmont Award. Defensively, DT Dana Stubblefield was named the NFL DEFENSIVE ROOKIE OF THE YEAR, capping a season in which he registered 10.5 sacks. LB Bill Romanowski (105) and S Tim McDonald (91) topped the team in tackles. Young, Rice and McDonald were selected to the Pro Bowl, joining T Harris Barton, G Guy McIntyre, TE Brent Jones and C Jesse Sapolu with that honor.

The 1994 San Francisco 49ers completed one of the most impressive seasons in NFL history by cap—turing their NFL—record fifth Super Bowl Champion—ship at Joe Robbie Stadium in Miami. San Francisco defeated the San Diego Chargers 49–26 in Super Bowl XXIX to put the finishing touches on a 16–3 season and win an unprecedented fifth Vince Lom—bardi Trophy.

The offseason started on a high note. Despite facing an NFL-imposed salary cap in 1994, the 49ers still managed to sign such veteran free agents as LB Ken Norton Jr., LB Gary Plummer, DE Tim Harris, DE Charles Mann, DE Richard Dent, LB Rickey Jackson, C Bart Oates, WR Ed McCaffrey and CB Toi Cook. Then, after some draft day maneuvering, San Francisco came away with two first-round picks in DT Bryant Young and FB William Floyd. Injuries, however, played a key factor early in the campaign. By the end of the second game in Kansas City, the 49ers had lost most of their starting offensive line, as well as the services of Dent, their top pass-rusher, to various injuries. Despite signing CB Deion Sanders prior to Week 3, the problems continued. Still playing with a decimated line, San Francisco suffered its worst loss in almost 14 years when it dropped a 40-8 decision to the Philadelphia Eagles in Week 5 at Candlestick Park. The season turned around the following Sunday at Detroit when the 49ers, trailing 14-0 at one point, rallied to defeat the Lions 27-21. That win started a winning streak that extended 10 games and saw the 49ers finish 13-3 and win the Super Bowl. Among the other highlights from the 1994 season, the 49ers offense was one of the most potent ever. During the 16-game regular season, the 49ers scored a team-record 505 points, a total that ranks as the fourth-highest total in NFL history. The 31.6 points per game average also established a team record. In addition, San Francisco scored 66 touchdowns, shattering the previous team mark of QB Steve Young recorded one of the finest seasons in NFL history. He set a league record with a QB rating of 112.8 and became the first player in NFL history to lead the league in passing four consecutive seasons. He also set team records for completion percentage (70.2) and touchdown passes (35). In Super Bowl XXIX, he passed for a record six touchdowns, while being named the game's MVP.

Rookie Floyd emerged as one of the league's brightest young stars, rushing for 305 yards and six TDs. The 49ers went 10-1 after he was named to the starting lineup in Week 6 at Detroit. Young finished third on the team in rushing with 293 yards and led the team with seven rushing touchdowns. WR Jerry Rice set a team record with 112 receptions for 1,499 yards and 13 touchdowns. However, his shining moment came in Week 1 vs. the Los Angeles Raiders when he eclipsed Jim Brown's all-time touchdown mark with 127. Norton Jr. led the 49ers with 92 total tackles and 79 solo stops. S Merton Hanks placed second with 79 tackles (66-13) while leading the team with seven interceptions. DT Dana Stubblefield's 8.5 sacks and 53.5 sack yards led the squad for the second consecutive season. And finally. Sanders, who joined the team in Week 3, shattered the team record with an NFL-high 303 interception return yards on six thefts. Among his three returns for touchdowns (tying a team mark) were efforts of 93, 90 and 74 yards. He was named the NFL Defensive Player of the Year as well as a starter in the Pro Bowl. Other Pro Bowl selections included Young, Rice, TE Brent Jones, Oates, G Jesse Sapolu, Hanks, Stubblefield, S Tim McDonald and RB Ricky Watters. CB Eric Davis had a team—leading 22 passes defensed during the regular season and four interceptions in the playoffs.

San Francisco once again captured the NFC West Championship, despite battling through a season in which injuries wreaked havoc time and again. Among the key contributors who were sidelined during the campaign were starting FB William Floyd, whose season ended with a severe knee injury in the October New Orleans game, and QB Steve Young, who missed five games with a shoulder injury. Those injuries, in addition to several others in the offensive line throughout the season, would have crippled most teams; however, the 1995 49ers established a reputation as one of the grittiest in team history.

The defensive unit created a new aggressive identity, finishing the season ranked number one in the NFL. Not only did it lead the league in scoring defense, it set team records for fewest rushing yards allowed (1,061) and fewest rushing yards per game (66.3). San Francisco's defense also excelled in takeaways, forcing a total of 34, including a team-record seven (five interceptions, two fumbles) that resulted in touchdowns.

Among the standout performers were Pro Bowl selections CB Eric Davis, FS Merton Hanks and SS Tim McDonald, marking the second consecutive season the 49ers secondary included three Pro Bowl picks. LB Ken Norton Jr. racked up 127 tackles and set a team single—game record by returning two interceptions for touchdowns at St. Louis. LB Lee Woodall and DT Dana Stubblefield rounded out the Niners Pro Bowl defensive players. Offensively, WR Jerry Rice posted the finest of his legendary 11 seasons with the 49ers. He became the NFL's career leader with 942 receptions and 15,123 yards, while also establishing the league's single—season standard with 1,848 yards. He was named as a starter in the Pro Bowl for the 10th consecutive season.

Young, who returned to quarterback the team for the final four regular season games, was also selected to the Pro Bowl, as was TE Brent Jones, who made the squad as an alternate. One of the highlights of the season was the emergence of QB Elvis Grbac. Playing in place of the injured Young, he directed the Niners to three of their biggest wins of the season at St. Louis, at eventual world champion Dallas and at Miami. Floyd was the recipient of the team's Len Eshmont Award.

One streak continued and another ended for San Francisco in 1996. With a 12–4 record, the 49ers reached double digits in the win column for the 14th consecutive season, the longest streak in the NFL. However, the upstart Carolina Panthers unseated the Niners as NFC West Champions, ending their four—year reign. San Francisco remained one of the league's most dangerous teams with an aggressive defense and a productive offense. Despite losing QB Steve Young for four full games and parts of four others with various injuries, the 49ers offense ranked second in the NFC with 398 points and sixth in the NFL in total offense.

WR Jerry Rice became the first player in NFL history to record four 100–catch seasons after making a league—high 108 receptions for 1,254 yards. The 12—year veteran earned his NFL record—tying 11th Pro Bowl invitation and was a first—team All—Pro se—lection. Young won his fifth NFL passing title with a QB rating of 97.2 and was named to the Pro Bowl for the fifth consecutive season.

Defensively, the 49ers had the league's most imposing pass rushing trio in DE Roy Barker, DT Bryant Young and DE Chris Doleman. Barker finished fourth in the NFC with 12.5 sacks, while Doleman's 11 sacks moved him into seventh on the NFL's career list with 115.5. Young was named a starter on the NFC Pro Bowl team and earned first-team All-Pro honors after posting 11.5 sacks and 85 tackles. He also claimed the 49ers Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational and courageous player. The third-vear veteran was joined on the Pro Bowl team by FS Merton Hanks, who was invited for the third consecutive season. As usual, Rice's assault on the record books continued. He became the first player in NFL history to register 1.000 career receptions and 16,000 receiving yards. Rice also surpassed K Ray Wersching as the team's all-time leading scorer with 982 points.

Although they appeared vulnerable after first week injuries to QB Steve Young and WR Jerry Rice, the San Francisco 49ers rallied under the direction of rookie head coach Steve Mariucci, reclaimed the NFC West title and advanced to the NFC Champion—ship Game. The 49ers finished with a 13–3 mark, including an 11–game winning streak, despite losing Rice for all but two games. They did it behind a new–found running attack and the league's top–ranked defense.

Mariucci became one of 13 head coaches since the NFL-AFL merger in 1970 to lead his team to a division title in his rookie season, and he was the fourth to do it directly out of the college ranks. The former University of California skipper established an NFL record for consecutive wins by a rookie head coach with an 11-game streak (games 2-12). The 49ers claimed their 13th NFC West title in 17 years and posted 10-or-more wins for the 15th consecutive season. Young suffered a concussion against Tampa Bay on opening day, but remained healthy throughout the season and claimed his NFL recordtying (Sammy Baugh) sixth league passing title with a rating of 104.7. The 13-year veteran showed consistency while getting adjusted to a new coach, new running back and two young receivers.

The 49ers made a commitment to a power rushing attack by signing G Kevin Gogan during the offseason. The additional size up front allowed the 49ers to finish fourth in the NFC in rushing yards. RB Garrison Hearst (1.019 vards) became the first 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards since 1992. With Rice out, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes became the primary receiving targets. Owens led the team with 63 receptions for 936 yards and eight touchdowns, while Stokes posted 58 receptions for 733 yards and four touchdowns. Rice returned for one game against Denver (12-15) and helped the 49ers clinch home field advantage throughout the playoffs with a 34-17 win. Rice became the first non-kicker in league history to reach 1,000 points with a 14yard touchdown catch in the second quarter of the Broncos contest.

The 49ers defense led the league in total yards allowed (250.8), finished second in takeaways (41) and was tied for third in sacks (54). They helped carry the burden as the offense adjusted to new personnel. For the second consecutive season, the 49ers had three players reach double figures in sacks. DT Dana Stubblefield (15.0), DE Chris Doleman (12.0) and LB Kevin Greene (10.5) led the sack attack. Stubblefield finished second in the league in sacks and was named NFL Defensive Player of the Year by Associated Press and earned the Len Eshmont Award as the team's most inspirational player. Of the seven 49ers named to the Pro Bowl, five were from the defense. Stubblefield was joined by Doleman, FS Merton Hanks, LB Lee Woodall and LB Ken Norton Jr. Gogan and Young were San Francisco's offensive selections.

Led by one of the most productive offenses in team and league history, San Francisco posted its 16th consecutive winning season and remained one of the NFL's elite teams. Behind the strong arm of QB Steve Young, the powerful legs of RB Garrison Hearst and the triple-threat receiving corps of WR Jerry Rice, WR Terrell Owens and WR J.J. Stokes, the 49ers rolled to a 12-4 regular season mark and an appearance in the NFC Divisional Playoff Game. Young opened the season in sizzling fashion. The 14-year veteran established an NFL record by throwing for over 300 yards in six consecutive games, breaking the previous record of five held by former 49ers QB Joe Montana. Young finished the season completing 322-of-517 (62.3) passes for 4,170 yards and 36 touchdowns. His final passing rating of 101.1 marked the seventh consecutive season he has surpassed the 100-point barrier and earned him his seventh consecutive trip to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers offensive line, led by Pro Bowl G Kevin Gogan, paved the way for Hearst's record—setting season. Hearst, and his team—record and career—high 1,570 yards rushing, were a major reason the 49ers led the NFL in rushing. His 198—yard per—formance against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football also set a then team—record and was a personal—best. His four plays of 70 yards or more led the league and helped earn him his first career Pro Bowl selection.

The 49ers receiving corps was in the capable hands of Rice, Owens and Stokes. Rice, returning from a serious knee injury in 1997, earned his 12th career Pro Bowl nomination and finished with a team-high 82 receptions for 1,157 yards and nine touchdowns. The athletic Owens asserted himself among the league's best receivers and brightest young stars by catching 67 passes for 1,097 yards and 14 touchdowns. Stokes caught a career-best 63 passes for 770 yards and eight touchdowns.

The 49ers defense was paced by the inspiring play of DT Bryant Young. Young was having an exceptional season with 54 tackles and 9.5 sacks before suffering a season—ending leg injury against the New York Giants on Monday Night Football. Young was still named Eshmont Award winner although missing the final four regular season games. LB Winfred Tubbs, in his first season with the 49ers, earned his first career Pro Bowl nomination after finishing with 112 tackles. CB Darnell Walker, FS Merton Hanks, S Zack Bronson and S Tim McDonald led the team with four interceptions each.

San Francisco had a streak of 16 consecutive winning seasons snapped, after finishing the 1999 season with a 4-12 record. A season-ending injury to QB Steve Young in Week 3 sent the 49ers into a tailspin from which they did not recover. Replacing Young proved to be quite a task for QBs Jeff Garcia and Steve Stenstrom. Garcia received the first try at the job and responded admirably, posting a 24-22 victory, with a QB rating of 106.0, over the Tennessee Titans in his first NFL start. Garcia would start the next four games, but was replaced by Stenstrom in Week 10 at New Orleans. With Stenstrom struggling in starts against the Saints, Rams and Packers, the 49ers coaching staff returned Garcia to the starting lineup for a December 5 game at Cincinnati. And what a return it was. Garcia threw for a career-high 437 yards against the Bengals, including throwing two touchdown passes to WR Jerry Rice. The game proved to be an impetus for Garcia, who over the final five games of the season completed 121-of-182 passes for 1,441 yards, eight touchdowns and three interceptions for a quarterback rating of 98.3.

During that stint, Garcia completed 66.5 percent of his passes and was sacked just three times for 25 yards. San Francisco also was faced with the task of replacing 1998 Pro Bowl RB Garrison Hearst and his team—record 1,570 yards rushing. A key off—season acquisition of RB Charlie Garner proved more than an adequate replacement. Garner rushed for a career—high 1,229 yards, caught a career—high 56 passes for 535 yards and finished third in the NFL with 1,764 total yards.

The San Francisco running attack also was given a boost by second—year FB Fred Beasley's 276 yards rushing and 282 yards receiving, both marks were career—high's. Overall the 49ers led the NFL with 2,095 yards on the ground, becoming the first team to lead the league for consecutive seasons since Buffalo did it in 1991—92. The 49ers also led the league with a per—rush average of 5.0 yards.

The San Francisco receiving corps was once again paced by Rice. He finished the year with 67 receptions for 830 yards and five touchdowns. Certainly not the kind of numbers that Rice is accustomed to, but over the final five games of the season, Rice caught 24 passes for 420 yards (17.5) and three touchdowns. In that span he posted two 100–yard games, including a six–reception, 143–yard effort at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale. WR Terrell Owens added 60 receptions for 754 yards and four touchdowns while J.J. Stokes totaled 34 grabs for 429 yards and two touchdowns, including a five–reception, 130–yard performance at Atlanta (1–3) in the season finale.

The 49ers defense struggled for much of the season, but was highlighted by several individual performances. DT Bryant Young was named the Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and earned a Pro Bowl selection. After overcoming a devastating leg fracture that ended his 1998 season and left his future clouded in doubt, Young answered all questions by earning a Pro Bowl nomination with his 11.0 sacks on the season. S Lance Schulters, in his first season as a starter, responded by finishing second in the NFC with six interceptions, including a game—winning 64—yard return against New Orleans (9–19) in the second week of the season. Schulters was named as the starting free safety for the NFC squad in the 2000 Pro Bowl.

San Francisco opened its sixth decade in the NFL under new leadership. The transfer of ownership from Edward J. DeBartolo, Jr. to his sister Denise DeBartolo York was approved by the NFL May 23, 2000. DeBartolo, Jr. ended his tenure after guiding the 49ers to five Super Bowl Championships and 16 postseason appearances. A young San Francisco team, which at one point started five rookies on defense, showed marked improvement throughout the season, winning four of the last six games, to finish 6–10.

The offense again was one of the best in the league, which led to three starters being named to their first Pro Bowl - QB Jeff Garcia, RB Charlie Garner and WR Terrell Owens, Garcia, who was in his first season as the full-time starter, set the pace for the offense all season long. He set career-highs in every category, completing 355-of-561 passes for a team-record 4,278 yards, with 31 touchdowns and only 10 interceptions. He finished the year ranked fifth in the NFL with a 97.6 quarterback rating. Garcia started all 16 games and had six 300-yard passing games, including a 402-yard effort against Chicago in December, which was his third straight 300-yard passing performance and his sixth of the season. His productivity not only led to his first Pro Bowl appearance, but Football Digest also named him the NFL'S Most Improved Player.

WR Terrell Owens was one of the many benefactors of Garcia's success. Owens posted his second career 1,000-yard season, catching a career-high 97 passes for 1,451 yards, which ranked him fourth in the NFL. Owens, who only played in 14 games during the season, also had five 100-yard games and scored a team-high 13 touchdowns. Owens had his best performance of his career against Chicago in December, breaking a 50-year old NFL record with 20 receptions for 283 yards and one touchdown. Owens broke Tom Fears' NFL record of 18 receptions in a game, which he set back in 1950 with the Rams. The 49ers backfield was again in the capable hands of Garner and FB Fred Beasley. Garner earned his first Pro Bowl appearance and became the fourth 49ers running back to rush for 1,000 yards in backto-back seasons. Garner, behind the stellar play of the 49ers offensive line, ran for 1,142 yards on 258 carries and seven touchdowns. Also a receiving threat, Garner set career-highs with 68 receptions for 647 yards and three touchdowns. In addition, he established a team record with 201 yards rushing vs. Dallas. Beasley also had a solid year, rushing for 147 yards on 50 carries and three touchdowns, while catching 31 passes for 233 yards and three touch-

The 49ers defense was young, but got better over the last half of the season. The defense was again paced by the efforts of DT Bryant Young, who posted 51 tackles and led the team in sacks with 9.5. LB Ken Norton Jr. was one of only three players to start all 16 games, extending his consecutive games streak to 160. The 49ers defense started five rookies in the final game at Denver and had seven different rookies start throughout the 2000 campaign. Rookies CB Ahmed Plummer, DE John Engelberger and CB Jason Webster all started at least 10 games. Six rookies—Plummer, Webster, Engelberger, LB Julian Peterson, DT Cedric Killings and S Ronnie Heard—participated in more than 20—percent of the total 1,096 plays.

The San Francisco 49ers made their return to the playoffs after a two-year absence, as the young and improving team posted a 12-4 record. The year marked the return of RB Garrison Hearst, who came back from a devastating ankle injury that kept him out of football for two seasons. Hearst rushed for 1,206 yards, was named Associated Press Comeback Player of the Year and also earned his second career Pro Bowl nomination. In total, the 49ers had six players travel to the islands for the annual allstar game. In addition to Hearst on offense, QB Jeff Garcia and WR Terrell Owens made their second straight appearances, C Jeremy Newberry played in his first Pro Bowl, G Ray Brown made the first Pro Bowl appearance in his 16-year career, and on defense DT Bryant Young made his third Pro Bowl appearance, anchoring the 49ers defense that improved from ranking 29th in 2000 to 13th in 2001.

The offense was again in the capable hands of Garcia. The Gilroy native proved that 2000 wasn't a fluke. He completed 316–of–504 passes for 3,538 yards. The third—year veteran also threw 32 touchdowns, becoming the first 49ers quarterback to throw for 30 or more touchdowns in consecutive seasons. Owens was one of Garcia's favorite targets, especially when it came to the endzone. Owens caught 93 balls for 1,412 yards and a career—high and NFL leading 16 touchdowns. While Hearst was the big story, the offensive line, which returned all five starters from the 2000 season, proved to be vital to the team's success. For the fifth consecutive season, San Francisco produced a 1,000—yard rusher, which set a new team record.

The defense was still young, but improved as the season progressed. The defensive line added two new starters to the mix, although one of them was not so new. DT Dana Stubblefield returned to the 49ers after spending three seasons with Washington and rookie DE Andre Carter made an impression, especially in the last four weeks of the season when he was named NFC Rookie of the Month. Carter led the team in sacks with 6.5, adding 4.5 of those in the last five games. The unit as a whole improved over the last half of the season, posting a team-record three shutouts in the last month of the campaign. Another big addition was LB Derek Smith, who came over from Washington as well. Smith brought with him four consecutive seasons of 100 tackles or more. Smith kept that streak alive as he led the defense with 126 total tackles. Also helping the defense with its improvement was S Zack Bronson and CB Ahmed Plummer. Both players recorded career-highs with seven interceptions each. Bronson also returned two for touchdowns, including a career-high and team record 97-yard return at Chicago.

The San Francisco 49ers entered 2002 with hopes of advancing past the first round of the NFC play—offs. The team accomplished the mission finishing the season with 10 wins and advancing to the NFC Divisional Playoffs in grand fashion with the second largest playoff comeback in NFL history. The 49ers finished the season with a 5–1 division record and won their first division title since 1997. The team's success came from its ability to minimize turnovers, along with a strong running game. The 49ers gained 2,244 yards on the ground for the second consecutive season and RB Garrison Hearst established a career—high with eight rushing touchdowns. Helping Hearst were Pro Bowlers G Ron Stone and C Jeremy Newberry, who anchored an offensive line that was third in the NFL in fewest sacks allowed.

San Francisco had the least amount of turnovers in the NFC with 17. In his third season as director of the 49ers offense, QB Jeff Garcia earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl berth. He completed 62 percent of his passes and tied a team record by directing five fourth-quarter comebacks. WR Terrell Owens continued his dominance with a career-high 100 receptions and led the NFL with 13 receiving touchdowns. Owens surpassed 1,000 receiving yards for the third consecutive season and earned his third consecutive Pro Bowl bid.

Defensively, LB Julian Peterson had a breakout season with a career—high 104 tackles. He shut down several of the league's top tight ends and made history by playing four positions in a single game against Dallas (12–8). His effort earned him his first career Pro Bowl appearance. DT Bryant Young added an interior presence with his fourth career Pro Bowl nomination and S Tony Parrish proved to be an invaluable pickup with a career—high seven interceptions. He won the Len Eshmont and the Ed Block Courage Award, both firsts for a player in his inaugural season.

Head Coach Steve Mariucci was released from the final year of his contract on January 15, 2003. The 49ers conducted an extensive search for Mariucci's successor and in the end hired Dennis Erickson. Erickson was introduced as the 14th head coach in 49ers team history on February 12, 2003. The Erickson era started with a 7–9 record for the 49ers in 2003.

The team struggled on the road, winning only one game, but was impressive at home, scoring more than 45 points in two separate home games. The team was represented in the Pro Bowl, the 23rd consecutive year the 49ers had at least one team representative in the islands. In 2003, WR Terrell Owens made his fourth consecutive Pro Bowl, LB Julian Peterson made his second consecutive trip and FB Fred Beasley made his first career appearance in Hawaii. On offense, QB Jeff Garcia missed three games due to injury, but threw for 2,704 yards and 18 touchdowns. In his place, QB Tim Rattay responded admirably, throwing for 856 yards and seven touchdowns while posting a 2-1 record in those three games. RB Kevan Barlow recorded his first career 1,000-yard rushing season after becoming the main tailback after RB Garrison Hearst went down with a knee injury and missed the final four games. Owens recorded his fourth consecutive 1,000-yard season, amassing 1,102 yards despite missing the final game of the year.

The 49ers defense finished the year ranked 13th overall in the NFL and ninth against the run. The unit was led by Pro Bowler Peterson, who led the team in sacks with seven, and S Tony Parrish, who tied for the league lead with nine interceptions. The group as a whole recorded 42 sacks on the year, the highest total since 1998, which was good for second in the NFC and tied for fourth in the NFL. In addition, the 49ers defensive unit allowed only 268 yards per game, the lowest total since 1997. San Francisco also caused turnovers as evidence by its 13 fumble recoveries, its highest total since 1997.

The San Francisco 49ers continued to build depth with a young squad of versatile and talented athletes in 2004. Despite a 2-14 overall record, the group was able to gain significant experience while individuals on both sides of the ball notched career milestones over the 16-game span. The 49ers also swept NFC West rival Arizona in two thrilling overtime battles in the confines of both Monster Park and on the road in Sun Devil Stadium. The team was also represented in the Pro Bowl for the 24th consecutive year as LS/ TE Brian Jennings made his first trip to the Pro Bowl. Jennings was chosen to serve as a "need" player in Hawaii by the NFC coaching staff. On offense, TE Eric Johnson returned to the lineup after missing 2003 with a broken collarbone and paced the team with 82 receptions for 825 yards and two touchdowns. His performance was the best-ever by a 49ers' tight

WR Brandon Lloyd led the scoring attack with six touchdown receptions while RB Kevan Barlow steadied the ground game with 244 carries for 822 yards and seven touchdowns. Under center, QB Tim Rattay battled shoulder, forearm and foot injuries to play in nine games, including a career–best 417–yard performance in the 49ers first of two bouts against Arizona. Rattay rallied the offense from a 16–point fourth–quarter deficit to win 31–28 in overtime. In the process, he completed a team–re–cord 38 passes en route to his first 400–yard game.

DT Bryant Young's 11 years of NFL experience served as the veteran voice behind the defensive unit. Young led the line with 79 tackles and three sacks and enjoyed a career game against Chicago after notching 10 tackles and two sacks, his 17th career multi-sack game. For his efforts, Young was presented the team's Len Eshmont and Bill Walsh Awards, It was an unprecedented fifth Len Eshmont award win for Young. DE John Engelberger responded with a career year, with a career-high 64 tackles. He led team with 6.0 sacks. Also a steady rock on defense was SS Tony Parrish, who started all 16 games to give him 112 consecutive career starts, the third-longest active streak at his position. LB Derek Smith also chipped in at the linebacker post, reaching the 100-tackle plateau for the eighth straight year. Smith and fellow LB Jeff Ulbrich led the team with 167 tackles. After a season-ending Achilles injury to LB Julian Peterson, LB Jamie Winborn stepped up with 104 tackles, 4.5 sacks and three forced fumbles.

The 49ers also saw much promise from a handful of young participants. Second-year T Kwame Harris played in 14 contests and did not allow a sack in the last five games after returning to the starting lineup on the left side. Also gaining experience on the line was rookie G Justin Smiley who played in all 16 games with nine starts. On the opposite side of the ball, rookie RCB Shawntae Spencer finished third in the league with 12 starts as a rookie. He also led the defensive unit with 12 passes defensed. Second-year DT Anthony Adams continued to flourish in his role, registering a career-high nine stops against Washington. The special teams unit remained staunch, led by the efforts of rookie P Andy Lee. Lee finished the season with a 41.6-yard average, the highest since P Reggie Roby during the 1998 campaign. He led all rookies in the NFC in gross average and boomed an 81-yard punt against Tampa Bay (11-21-04) which was the longest of 2004 and the fourth-longest in team history. Another rookie, S Keith Lewis, also made his presence felt as he became the first player in 49er history to block a punt, force a fumble and recover a fumble in the same season. Lewis was able to accomplish this trifecta on only special teams plays.

The San Francisco 49ers faced a tremendous amount of adversity during the 2005 campaign under new Head Coach Mike Nolan, but utilized both the highs and lows as opportunities to grow and improve. With a mix of veteran experience and young talent, the team doubled their win total from 2004 with a 4–12 record, including a series sweep over NFC West division rival St. Louis, a home win against playoff contender Tampa Bay, and a nail-biting overtime victory in the 2005 season finale against Houston.

The 49ers also made a historic trip to Mexico City to play NFC West division rival Arizona in front of an NFL-record 103,467 fans. Even though the 49ers lost a league-high 101 games by starters, including three of the four starters in the secondary, there were many individual and team bright spots, including strong showings from five players who started every game in 2005 (LB Derek Smith, NT Anthony Adams, G Justin Smiley, T Kwame Harris and C/G Eric Heitmann). Of the 11 original 2005 draft selections, 10 went on to spend the 2005 season on the 49ers roster and contributed on offense, defense and special teams. Six of the 10 started in some capacity throughout the season (RB Frank Gore, QB Alex Smith, G David Baas, T Adam Snyder, TE Billy Bajema and CB Derrick Johnson).

On offense, four different quarterbacks saw time under center. The most experienced of the four in the quarterback rotation, Tim Rattay, took the initial starting reins and led the 49ers to a 28–25 opening day victory against St. Louis. Shortly after, first overall draft pick Alex Smith made his professional debut, stepping in to relieve Rattay at Arizona in Mexico City. With the eventual trade of Rattay in Week 7 to Tampa Bay, and a knee injury to Smith, both Ken Dorsey and Cody Pickett also stepped in to call plays in the pocket. Smith returned to the starting lineup and gained valuable playing experience, seeing action in nine games with seven starts while showing outstanding poise and maturity in the pocket.

WR Brandon Llovd led the aerial attack with 48 catches for 733 yards including five touchdowns from four different quarterbacks. WR Arnaz Battle also gained ground after rebounding from a knee injury, averaging 11.3 yards per catch while snagging three touchdowns. On the ground, RB's Kevan Barlow, Frank Gore and Maurice Hicks all chipped in 100-yard single-game performances and three touchdowns each. Gore had a stellar first season while pacing all 49ers rushers with 127 carries for 608 yards. After losing C Jeremy Newberry and LT Jonas Jennings to injuries, the offensive line was able to develop some consistency in the second half of the season with rookie LT Adam Sndyer and rookie G David Baas making significant strides as starters. Eric Heitmann also held strong as both a guard and

Defensively, veteran leader DE Bryant Young led the team with eight sacks (including three multi–sack contests), his most since 2000. His 77.5 sacks put him into third place on the 49ers all–time sack leader list. For his stellar performance, Young was voted by his teammates as the 49ers recipient of the Len Eshmont and Ed Block Courage Awards. Also paving the way was LB Derek Smith, whose 163 tackles led the 49ers, his fifth straight time to pace the unit. The team's co-MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner also notched his ninth straight 100-yard campaign. In the absence of an injured Jeff Ulbrich, LB Brandon Moore responded by finishing second on defense with career highs in tackles (93), sacks (5), interceptions (1) and fumble recoveries (1). Before he was lost for the season with a fractured fibula, S Tony Parrish posted two interceptions, returning one for a touchdown. His teammates, CBs Mike Adams and Shawntae Spencer led the team with four interceptions and a touchdown return each.

The special teams unit played a big part in the team's scoring efforts as co-MVP Bill Walsh Award winner K Joe Nedney accounted for 97 49ers points off of 28 field goals (including a 56-yard career long) and 19 extra points. P Andy Lee's three touchbacks in 107 punts placed him with the third-best ratio of touchbacks-to-punts among punters with 30 or more kicks in 2005. Special teams ace Terry Jackson stayed true to his form by leading the coverage unit with 21 tackles. And rookie return man Otis Amey got the season off to an electrifying start after returning a 75-yard punt for a touchdown in the season opener against St. Louis. Amey became the fifth 49ers rookie to return a punt for a touchdown and the first to do so on his first-ever return. He also became the second 49ers player (behind WR Nate Singleton) to score a touchdown on his first touch.

Under the direction of second-year Head Coach Mike Nolan, the 49ers continued to build a framework for success - that included utilizing young talent sprinkled with enough veteran leadership to mentor and keep the group heading in the right direction. After a 4-12 campaign in 2005, the 49ers significantly increased their win total to seven and closed the year with two, morale-boosting road wins in Seattle and Denver to finish 7-9. The organization picked up some key free agents prior to the start of the 2006 season, including All-Pro and future Hall of Fame G Larry Allen, speedy playmaker CB Walt Harris and 13-year NFL veteran and proven Super Bowl winner QB Trent Dilfer. Their acquisitions paid immediate dividends. Allen and Harris joined secondvear RB Frank Gore at the Pro Bowl to mark the 25th time in club history the team has been represented, and Dilfer served as a sturdy mentor to second-year starting QB Alex Smith.

The 49ers also added talent through the draft, picking up nine immediate contributors. Eight of the nine draft picks (TE Vernon Davis, LB Manny Lawson, WR Brandon Williams, RB Michael Robinson, DE/LB Parys Haralson, TE Delanie Walker, S Marcus Hudson and DE Melvin Oliver) saw action during the season while three (Davis, Lawson and Oliver) were starters.

Offensively, the 49ers grew by leaps and bounds, largely in part to the schemes and game plans run by new Offensive Coordinator Norv Turner. QB Alex Smith began to flourish under Turner's guidance and became the first-ever 49ers quarterback to take every snap for the entire regular season while showing dramatic improvement in year two. He set career highs in every offensive category and led the 49ers to a fourth-quarter comeback win (24-14) in Seattle in his first career primetime game. C Eric Heitmann held strong under center, serving as the line's vocal and emotional leader and Bobb McKittrick Award winner. Leading the offensive production was RB Frank Gore, who plowed behind the line and new free agent FB Moran Norris en route to setting a franchise–record 1,695 rushing yards, tops in the NFC, and another record 2,180 combined yards. His 212–yard performance against Seattle was the highest single–game rushing total in 49ers history and was one of nine 100–yard rushing performance es on the season. Gore was voted the team's co–MVP/Bill Walsh Award winner and Ed Block Courage Award recipient. Also chipping in was rookie TE Vernon Davis, who scored on his first NFL touch, a 31–yard touchdown catch in the season opener at Arizona.

The defensive unit overcame some early struggles and improved significantly during the second half of the season. LB Brandon Moore led the unit in tackles (114) and sacks (6.5) in his first year as a full-time starter. Consummate veterans LB Derek Smith (93 tackles), DT Marques Douglas (75 tackles, three sacks) and seven-time Len Eshmont Award winner DE Bryant Young (60 tackles, 5.5 sacks) led the group up front while CB Walt Harris and S Keith Lewis (72 tackles, two interceptions, one sack) proved to be new, impact presences in the secondary. Harris finished with one sack and a career-high eight interceptions including a 28-yard touchdown return at Denver. Rookie LB Manny Lawson wrapped his inaugural campaign with 65 tackles, 2.5 sacks, one interception and a blocked punt while rookie DE Melvin Oliver had 50 stops, one sack and a 12-yard fumble return for a touchdown. On special teams, K Joe Nedney amassed 116 points, the secondhighest total of his career and eighth most in team history. Nedney was also successful on three onsides kicks, RB Maurice Hicks continued to play a key role in the special teams effort. He led the unit with 20 tackles, one fumble recovery and also returned 57 kickoffs for a franchise record 1,428 yards, third best in the NFC. Also making a difference on the special teams unit was rookie RB Michael Robinson, who finished with 16 stops and a 33-yard return for a first down on a fake punt at Seattle.

Head coach Mike Nolan and his team entered the 2007 season believing that anything less than the playoffs would be a disappointment. Unfortunately, the team fell far short of that mark with an overall 5-11 record as four different quarterbacks took the helm of the 49ers offense. 49ers fans did experience some highlights in 2007, including another 1,000yard rushing season for RB Frank Gore and a stellar season by LB Patrick Willis. The 49ers top pick out of Ole Miss won Defensive Rookie of the Year and Pro Bowl honors. Willis was also the only NFL rookie to be named All-Pro in 2007, becoming the first 49ers defensive rookie to earn the honor since CB Ronnie Lott in 1981. His 226 tackles was an unofficial NFL record and Willis earned numerous additional accolades. P Andy Lee joined Willis at the Pro Bowl as he put together one of the greatest punting season in NFL history. Lee set an NFL record for punts downed inside the 20-yard line with 42, while ranking second in gross punting average (47.3) and net punting average (41.0) behind Oakland's P Shane Lechler.

The 49ers went 2–1 in primetime games in 2007, winning the season opener on Monday Night Football against the Arizona Cardinals and defeating the Cincinnati Bengals on a Saturday night game in December. QB Alex Smith started the season with a

2–1 record before experiencing a shoulder injury in the fourth game of the season against Seattle. He eventually was placed on Injured Reserve in December and underwent surgery. QB Trent Dilfer stepped in for Smith and led the team with 1,166 passing yards on 113–of–219 passing. Dilfer eventually would suffer a concussion vs. Minnesota (12–9), and QB Shaun Hill replaced the veteran in Week 13 of the season. Hill was sharp during his three games of action, completing 54–of–79 passes for 501 yards with five touchdowns and one interception. However, Hill would also succumb to injury, being sidelined with a back injury for the season finale. QB Chris Weinke saw action in the final game of the season.

Despite inconsistency on offense, the 49ers special teams unit was among the league's most elite in 2007. K Joe Nedney connected on 17-of-19 field goal attempts, while Lee booted 49 punts of 50 or more yards (16 more than any other punter). At the conclusion of the season, one of the all-time great 49ers, DT Bryant Young, retired from the NFL after 14 seasons with San Francisco. Young led the 49ers with 6.5 sacks and finished with 89.5 sacks for his career, which is third on the 49ers all-time sack list behind Cedrick Hardman and Tommy Hart. He earned his eighth Len Eshmont Award, given to the player who best exemplifies the inspirational and courageous play of Len Eshmont.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2008 sea—son following a simple mantra, 'One game at a time.' Throughout the year, 49ers players and coaches experienced several transitions and tribulations, but did not allow their minds to linger in the past, nor venture too far into the future. The focused approach proved effective as the team won five of its final seven games to close out the season.

After a promising 2-1 start to the year, San Francisco dropped four straight contests before making a change at head coach. In his fourth season at the helm of the 49ers, Mike Nolan was replaced by assistant head coach/linebackers coach Mike Singletary. Upon accepting the position. Singletary said the foundation was in place to take the team to the 'next level.' The response by his players and staff proved positive as the 49ers finished with a 5-4 record under Singletary's direction. Immediately following the conclusion of the season finale against Washington, team President Jed York announced to onlooking players and coaches in the locker room that Singletary would remain the 49ers head coach moving forward. The quarterback position was one of the first areas that Singletary addressed when taking over midway through the 2008 season. QB J.T. O'Sullivan started the first eight games of the year and showed an ability to make big plays, but costly turnovers proved to be problematic for the signal caller. O'Sullivan was replaced at the end of the first half of Singletary's first game as head coach against Seattle. Singletary later announced QB Shaun Hill would take over the starting role for the remainder of the season. The move appeared to be the right one as Hill went on to post a 5-3 record and a 87.5 overall passer rating. While Hill made his season debut midway through the year, RB Frank Gore was once again the centerpiece of the 49ers offense.

Despite missing two games with an ankle injury, Gore became the first 49ers player to rush for over 1,000 yards in three consecutive seasons, finishing the year with 1,036 rushing yards and 1,409 total yards from scrimmage. WR Isaac Bruce, who earned the team's coveted Len Eshmont Award in his first season in a 49ers uniform after spending 14 years with the Rams, recorded team—highs in receptions (61), receiving yards (835) and touchdown catches (7). TE Vernon Davis, who was named as an alternate for the Pro Bowl, finished the season ranked fourth on the team in receptions (31) and receiving yards (358).

On defense, Singletary consulted with defensive coordinator Greg Manusky and transitioned the unit into a more simplified, yet productive 3-4 alignment midway through the season. Over the final nine games of the year, the 49ers improved from 23rd in total defense to finish 13th (326.0) in the NFL. LB Patrick Willis earned his second consecutive Pro Bowl nod after totaling a team-high 185 tackles, while LB Takeo Spikes ranked second on the team with 122 tackles to go along with three interceptions in his first year with San Francisco. LB Parys Haralson had a breakout season with eight sacks. the most by a 49ers linebacker since Kevin Greene posted 10.5 in 1997. The 49ers defensive line got a boost with the offseason signing of DE Justin Smith, who ranked second on the team with seven sacks and fourth on the squad with 104 tackles.

As one of the most experienced units in the NFL, the 49ers secondary finished the season strong, allowing an average of 177.4 passing yards per game over the final five contests, which ranked third among NFL teams during that time span.

For the second year in a row, the 49ers special teams unit ranked among the best in the NFL. Led by special teams coordinator Al Everest, P Andy Lee, KR/PR Allen Rossum and RB Michael Robinson were all named alternates for the Pro Bowl. Lee finished the season ranked third in the NFL with a career—high and team—record 47.8 gross average.

The 49ers took a step forward in 2009, recording their best finish since 2002 with an 8-8 record in head coach Mike Singletary's first full season. which included a 5-1 record against the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season with a bang against the defending NFC Champion Arizona Cardinals. LB Patrick Willis, who was named to his 3rd consecutive Pro Bowl as a starter at year's end, recorded the first of his career-high 3 INTs on the year to propel his team to a 20-16 road victory. RB Frank Gore also played a large role in the win, scoring the go-ahead TD in the 4th qtr. as part of a 2-score performance. On the season, he went on to set personal bests with 10 rushing TDs and 13 total TDs, while becoming the only 49er ever to post four 1,000-yd. rushing seasons, despite missing two games to an ankle injury. Gore repeated his 2-TD performance the following week in a 23-10 victory at home against Seattle, running for scores of 79 and 80 yds. to join RB Barry Sanders as the only players in NFL history to register 2 TD runs of 75+ yds. in a single game.

With the momentum of a spotless division record, San Fran traveled to Minnesota for what would be an action—packed matchup. In a game where an ankle injury felled Gore on his first attempt, TE Vernon Davis rose to the occasion and recorded 2 TDs, one of which gave the 49ers a 4—point lead in the 4th qtr., which they held until Minnesota's last drive. Vikings QB Brett Favre milked every last second as he fired a 32-yd. TD pass with 2 seconds remaining, stabbing the hearts of 49ers fans. The 49ers bounced back the next week against St. Louis, defeating the Rams 35-0 to mark the first shutout by the team since 2002

Following a crushing 45-10 loss to Atlanta at Candlestick Park, San Fran added another weapon to its arsenal as rookie WR Michael Crabtree joined the team over the bye weekend after missing the first 5 games of the season because of a contract impasse. Crabtree hit the ground running and went on to lead all NFL rookies with a 56.8 yds./game avg. over the final 11 contests. In his debut at Houston, the rookie dazzled the crowd with some acrobatic catches, but the show would eventually turn to two 49er veterans. After falling behind 21 points at halftime, Singletary made a change at quarterback, inserting Alex Smith into the lineup for Shaun Hill, Smith, who hadn't seen any action in nearly two years, responded by throwing a career-high 3 TDs in the final 2 qtrs., all of which were caught by Davis. Following the Texans game. Smith would go on to start the remainder of the season and register career-highs in passing TDs (18), completion pct. (60.5) and quarterback rating (81.5), while Davis proceeded to put up historic numbers on his way to being named a starter in his first Pro Bowl. The talented tight end finished the year with 965 yds. and tied the NFL single-season record for TD receptions (13) by a tight end. The next week at Indianapolis, the team lost starting LT Joe Staley on the first offensive play to a knee injury.

Behind the crafty play—calling of defensive coordinator Greg Manusky, the 49ers became the only team to hold NFL MVP QB Peyton Manning without a TD on the season. Despite the unit's valiant effort, the 49ers fell 18–14. A 34–27 loss to the Titans at home inspired the squad for a prime—time, Thursday Night Football showdown against Chicago. In what was a microcosm of the defense's season, the unit recorded 5 INTs, including SS Michael Lewis' victo—ry—sealing pick in the end zone. After digging them—selves a 23–3 hole at Green Bay, San Fran valiantly battled back in the final 2 qtrs., only to come up short by less than a TD in the 30–24 defeat.

The defense exacted revenge at home against Jacksonville the following week, allowing just 3 points as Davis and Gore each scored in the 20-9 victory. Despite a career-high 310 yds. passing from Smith, the 49ers lost in Seattle, 20-17, before returning home for a prime time, MNF rematch against Arizona. A statement game for the defense, the 49ers forced 7 turnovers (5 FRs, 2 INTs), including a franchise record 7 FFs, as the 24-9 win sealed the season sweep of the Cardinals. The Niners penchant for forcing turnovers allowed them to post the NFL's 5th-best turnover ratio in 2009 (33 takeaways; 24 giveaways). In the blizzard-beaten city of Philadelphia the following Sunday, the Niners struggled with turnovers in a 27-13 loss to the Eagles. Facing Detroit a week later, TDs from Davis and Gore led the way as the 49ers outgunned the Lions 20-6.

San Fran would move toward its final game in St. Louis with a chance to secure its first non-losing season since 2002. Overcoming a slow 1st half, Alex Smith and Co. put up 28 points in the final half, including a 73-yd. TD catch by Davis to register his record-tying total. Gore capped off the day with 2 TDs and his 5th 100-yd. performance of the year, giving him 20 such career games and tying him with Joe Perry for the franchise record.

The San Francisco 49ers entered the 2010 sea—son with high hopes, having finished the previous season with their best record since 2002 and having five players named to the Pro Bowl. The 49ers dug themselves an insurmountable deficit with a 0–5 start that they ultimately could not overcome. San Francisco finished the year with a 6–10 record and a third place finish in the NFC West. The 49ers opened the season on the road against the Seattle Seahawks. With the arrival of former USC head coach Pete Carroll, the 49ers were not completely certain about what to expect and were stunned by a 31–6 loss.

The Niners opened their home slate on Monday Night Football against the Super Bowl Champion New Orleans Saints to Candlestick Park. RB Frank Gore rushed for 112 yds., and 1 TD on the ground and 1 through the air. 49ers QB Alex Smith passed for 275 yards, but his heroics were not enough as New Orleans posted a late FG giving the Saints a 25–22 victory. A dismal offensive performance in a 31–10 loss in Kansas City influenced head coach Mike Singletary to let offensive coordinator Jimmy Raye go and promote QBs coach Mike Johnson to the role of play–caller. In week 4 the Niners traveled to Atlanta. The 49ers started fast but their inability to finish, however, ultimately cost them a win as the Falcons edged them,16–14.

San Francisco returned home for its 2nd prime—time matchup in as many home games. NBC's Sun—day Night Football pitted them against the Philadel—phia Eagles. Again, San Francisco showed up under the brightest of lights, posting 309 yds. through the air including 3 TDs, but a late game INT gave the 49ers their 5th straight loss of the season, 27–24. The 49ers added some rays of hope against the vis—iting Oakland Raiders. Gore accounted for 149 yds. rushing, leading the 49ers offense to 349 yds. of total offense and earning the Niners their first win of the season, 17–9.

The 49ers next test would be at Carolina. The Niners failed to capitalize on a late—game lead and allowed the Panthers to mount a 20–23 comeback victory on a game—winning FG as time expired. Starting QB Alex Smith suffered an injured shoulder during the 4th qtr. At 1–6, the team boarded a plane and traveled to London for a week—long road trip to square off with the Denver Broncos in the 2010 International Series game. With QB Troy Smith at the helm due to the injury to Alex Smith a week earlier, the "home team" defeated Denver, 24–16. After the bye week, the 49ers returned home to defeat division foe St. Louis 23–20 in OT, behind the big—play arm of Troy Smith and the Frank Gore run game.

The ensuing 21–0 shutout by Tampa Bay at Candlestick, the first home shutout since 1977, in—spired the squad for a prime—time, MNF showdown at Arizona. The defense held the Cardinals to just 13 yds. rushing and forced 2 turnovers. Unfortunately, perennial Pro Bowl RB Frank Gore suffered a frac—tured hip during the contest ending his season. After a forgettable 34–16 loss to Green Bay at Lambeau Field, San Fran erupted for a season—high 40 points against the visiting Seahawks. Mike Singletary had handed the started QB role back to Alex Smith after the GB loss, and he went on to throw for 255 yds. and 3 TDs in the 40–21 win. Despite the momentum the Niners seemed to gain they lost, 34–7, at San Diego in a Thurday night matchup.

Despite a 5-9 record. San Francisco was still in NFC West hunt. Looking for a spark Singletary once again switched QBs, this time to Troy Smith. The spark that was expected never came to be and the 49ers suffered a devastating, 25–17, loss at St. Louis. With the division title and all playoff hopes out of reach, team President and CEO Jed York relieved head coach Mike Singletary of his duties that evening. Defensive line coach Jim Tomsula was later promoted to interim head coach for the final week of the season. The 49ers battled to finish the season with a favorable taste in their mouths vs. Arizona. RB Brian Westbrook notched 2 TDs while Alex Smith threw for 276 yds., 2 TDs and a QB rtg. of 107.8, in a 38–7 win.

The San Francisco 49ers 2011 season began with great hope surrounded by as much, if not more, uncertainty, due in large to the arrival of head coach Jim Harbaugh and the lack of an offseason for the new coaching staff to gel with its players. By season's end, Harbaugh had led his team to a 14–4 record, a NFC West Division Title and a berth in the NFC Championship Game.

Although the 49ers became a blue collar unit focused solely on wins, individual honors were plentiful for the team in 2011. Harbaugh was named AP Coach of the Year at season's end and the team boasted a league—high five First Team AP All—Pros—DT Justin Smith, LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, K David Akers and P Andy Lee (LT Joe Staley and CB Carlos Rogers were named to the Second Team). San Francisco also posted a NFL—high nine Pro Bowl selections—Smith, Willis, Akers, Lee, Rog—ers, Staley, S Dashon Goldson, RB Frank Gore, and LS Brian Jennings.

Led by Willis and Smith, both finalists for Defensive Player of the Year, the 49ers defense possessed the most dominant front seven in the game, a unit that produced 40 of the team's 42 sacks and a Defensive Rookie of the Year finalist, LB Aldon Smith, who set the franchise's rookie sack record (14). The unit began the year without allowing a rushing TD in its first 14 games, a feat never before achieved in league history. The defense's NFL—high 38 take—aways allowed the 49ers to lead the league with a team—record turnover differential (plus—28). By the end of the year, the defense ranked 1st in the NFL against the run, 2nd in points allowed, and 4th in total defense.

The San Francisco offense played a physical brand that controlled the tempo of games, rarely made mistakes and made plays when it was ultimately needed. Six times in 2011. QB Alex Smith. RB Frank Gore and the Niners offense mounted come-from-behind wins. The offense tied NFL single-season records for fewest turnovers (10) and interceptions (5). Gore became the franchise's all-time leading rusher surpassing Joe "The Jet" Perry. Smith put together his finest year as a pro, finishing the season with a 90.7 QB rating, a 61.4 completion percentage and the NFL's lowest interception percentage (1.1). The quarterback also tied the franchise record with four, 4th quarter comefrom-behind wins on the road (QB Joe Montana - 4 in 1989).

Special teams lived up to its name for the 49ers in 2011, as the unit finished the season ranked atop the NFL. The team featured two record–setting specialists in Akers and Lee. Akers set the NFL record for most field goals made (44) and most points in single-season, no touchdowns (166), while Lee registered a 44.0 net punt average, also setting a new NFL record. KR Ted Ginn Jr. became the first player in franchise history to record a punt return for a touchdown and a kickoff return for a touchdown in the same game in the season opener versus Seattle.

Inside the friendly confines of Candlestick Park, San Francisco posted a 7–1 record. The Niners never trailed by more than 3 points at home all season and averaged 27.6 points per game, ranking 6th in the NFL. The 49ers also boasted a 6–2 record away from home. The 6 wins on the road were the most by the team since 1996 (6–2).

In the 49ers first postseason game since 2002, they defeated the New Orleans Saints, 36–32. TE Vernon Davis shined as he registered 7 receptions for 180 yards and 2 touchdowns, including the game-winning 14 yarder from Alex Smith with :09 remaining.

A magical season came to an end in the NFC Championship game, as the 49ers fell to the even—tual Super Bowl Champion New York Giants in over—time, 17–20.

Carrying the heavy expectations from a trip to the NFC Championship in 2011, the 2012 San Francisco 49ers took a step further and won the NFC for the first time since the 1994 season. Head coach Jim Harbaugh led his team to a 11–4–1 regular season record, a second straight NFC West Title, and the sixth Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

For the second consecutive season, accolades accompanied team achievement. The 49ers led the NFL with six First—Team AP All—Pro selections — LB Patrick Willis, LB NaVorro Bowman, LB Aldon Smith, G Mike lupati, S Dashon Goldson, P Andy Lee and three Second—Teamers DT Justin Smith, LB Ahmad Brooks and T Joe Staley. In addition to the All—Pros, the 49ers also had nine players selected to the NFC Pro Bowl team — Bowman, Goldson, RB Frank Gore, lupati, Aldon Smith, Justin Smith, Staley, S Donte Whitner and Willis. The Niners offensive line was also awarded the 2012 Madden Most Valuable Protectors Award, which recognizes the best offensive line in the National Football League.

The 49ers defense picked up where they left off in 2011, dominant. The unit, which returned 10 of 11 starters from 2011, finished 2nd in the NFL in total points allowed (17.1 pts. per game) and 3rd in total defense (294.4 yds. per game). Aldon Smith broke Hall of Fame DE Fred Dean's franchise sack record (17.5 in 1983), with 19.5. That mark was 2nd in the NFL in 2012 and t–10th in NFL history. A stone—wall rush defense held opponents to an average of just 94.2 yds. per game, which ranked 4th in the NFL and a pass defense that allowed 200.2 yds. per game that also ranked 4th. The defensive unit was one of two teams in the NFL to rank in the top five in all four categories (Denver).

A dynamic and physical rushing attack complimented the Niners defense in 2012. Gore surpassed RB Roger Craig and RB Joe Perry's franchise record of 50 career rushing TDs by punching in his 51st TD vs. Arz. (12/30). Entering the starting lineup in Week 11 due to an injured QB Alex Smith, QB Colin Kaepernick left opposing defenses in a daze with his versatility. In the Divisional Round of the playoffs vs. GB (1/12/13), Kaepernick set the NFL single—game rushing record by a quaterback with 181 yds. rushing and 2 TDs on 16 carries, as well as completing 17 of 31 atts. for 263 yds., and 2 TDs. Big plays from Kaepernick not only came on the ground, but through the air as he completed 21, 25+ yds. completions, which was good for 2nd in the NFL since taking over the starting job.

Special teams started the season off with K David Akers tying a NFL record long FG when he nailed a 63–yd. kick at GB (9/9). Andy Lee sat atop the NFL with a 43.2 net punting average and landed 36 punts inside the 20–yd. line, 3rd most in the NFL in 2012 and the second highest single season total of his career.

The 49ers were 6-1-1 at Candlestick Park this season, with the defense allowing just 9 TDs, the best in the NFL.

In addition to Kaepernick's record—breaking performance in the 49ers 45–31 Divisional Round victory vs. the Packers, San Francisco also became the first team in NFL history to ever have two, 100–yd. rushers [QB Colin Kaepernick (181 yds. rushing), RB Frank Gore (119 yds. rushing)] and one, 100–yd. receiver [WR Michael Crabtree (119 yds. receving)] in a playoff game. The following week, the Atlanta Falcons jumped out to a 17–0 lead in the NFC Championship Game at the Georgia Dome and Kaepernick led the charge by hitting 16 of 21 passes for 233 yds. and 1 TD with a QB rating of 127.7 as the 49ers came back to win 28–24. It was the 2nd largest deficit overcome to win a conference championship in NFL history.

The curtains closed on the biggest stage for the 2012 49ers as they fell to the Baltimore Ravens 34–31 in Super Bowl XLVII. The 49ers became the first team in Super Bowl history to have a 300–yd. passer, a 100–yd. rusher and two, 100–yd. receivers in a single game. Kaepernick threw for 302 yds., RB Frank Gore added 110 yds. rushing, WR Michael Crabtree tallied 109 rec. yds. and TE Vernon Davis recorded 104 rec. yds.

Following a trip to Super Bowl XLVII in 2012, the San Francisco 49ers battled through adversity and high expectations to reach the NFC Championship Game for the third year in a row. Head coach Jim Harbaugh led his team to a 12–4 regular season record as the team closed out historic Candlestick Park and moves to its new home in 2014, Levi's® Stadium.

Possessing a deep, talented roster, the 49ers had nine players selected to the 2014 Pro Bowl, the second most in the NFL – LB NaVorro Bowman, LB Ahmad Brooks, TE Vernon Davis, RB Frank Gore, G Mike lupati, S Eric Reid, DT Justin Smith, T Joe Staley and LB Patrick Willis. San Francisco also had one First—Team AP All—Pro selection — Bowman, and four Second—Teamers — Brooks, V. Davis, J. Smith and Staley.

The 49ers defense continued its dominance under defensive coordinator Vic Fangio. The unit finished 3rd in the NFL in scoring defense (17.0 pts. per game), 4th in rushing defense (95.9 yds. per game), 5th in total defense (316.9 yds. per game) and 7th in passing defense (221 yds. per game). They were also the only team to not allow a 100-yd. rusher during the regular season.

In 2013, the Niners featured a balanced offen—sive attack. Frank Gore rushed for 1,128 yds. and 9 TDs, which ranked t—6th in the NFL, and WR Anquan Boldin registered team—highs in recepts. (85) and rec. yds. (1,179). It marked the first time since 2003 that the 49ers have had a 3,000-yd. passer, 1,000-yd. rusher and 1,000-yd. receiver in the same season. QB Colin Kaepernick passed for 3,197 yds., the most for a 49ers QB since 2002 (Jeff Garcia - 3,344). He also rushed for 524 yds. during the regular season, which is the 2nd highest single–season rushing total by a quarterback in franchise history (Steve Young, 1992 - 537). During the postseason, Kaepernick rushed for 98 yds. at GB (1/5/14 - NFC–WC) and 130 yds. at Sea. (1/19/14 - NFC–C). He now owns three of the top five rushing performances by a QB in NFL postseason history.

The 49ers special teams unit was spectacular all season long. Veteran K Phil Dawson made 32 of 36 FG atts., including a franchise–record 27 in a row, en route to recording the 2nd–most made FGs in franchise history. He made two game–winning FGs [vs. Sea. (12/8) and at Arz. (12/29)] and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week in Weeks 14 and 17 for both performances. Andy Lee finished the season with the 3rd–highest gross avg. (48.2 yds.) and 4th–highest net avg. (41.7 yds.) in the NFL.

San Francisco took part in the NFL International Series, defeating the Jacksonville Jaguars, 42–10, at Wembley Stadium in London. With the win, the 49ers became the second team to win multiple games at Wembley Stadium (New England).

The 49ers hosted the final regular season game at Candlestick Park against the Atlanta Falcons on Dec. 23. The game marked the 350th played by the 49ers in their longtime home, "It's an iconic venue," said Harbaugh when asked to sum up his feelings before the farewell game. "It'd be an honor to be on that sideline for the last game at Candlestick, and we want to win it." The 49ers would go on to win the game, 34-24, in epic fashion. In the 4th quarter, after closing the gap to 3 points and recovering a crucial onside kick, the Falcons seemed poised to score a go-ahead touchdown and threaten the festivities of the final game at Candlestick. However, The 'Stick had one last moment left when CB Tramaine Brock broke up a Matt Ryan pass and NaVorro Bowman made the interception and returned it 89-yds. for the score, sealing the legacy of the historic venue and sending the 49ers into the playoffs.

The season came to an end after dropping a back—and—forth contest with the division—rival Se—attle Seahawks, 23–17, in the NFC Championship Game at CenturyLink Field. Jim Harbaugh became the first head coach in NFL history to lead his team to a conference title game in each of his first three seasons.

The San Francisco 49ers inaugurated Levi's® Stadium as their new home in 2014, a season that saw key legends RB Frank Gore and WR Anquan Boldin reach career milestones. With an 8–8 record, the 49ers overcame a slew of injuries to register their fourth–consecutive season with a .500–or–better record for the first time since 1998.

In the final game of 2014, Gore rushed for 144 yds. on 25 carries to become just the 20th running back in NFL history to eclipse the 11,000—yd. mark for his career. He finished the 2014 season with 1,106 rushing yds., becoming the 11th player in league history to rush for 1,000 yds. or more in eight seasons. Boldin also joined the NFL's elite ranks, becoming just the 17th player in league history to reach 900 career recepts. and the 24th player to record 12,000 receiving yds. He is now one of only four players to record 500-or-more rec. yds. in 12 consecutive seasons, joining the likes of Jerry Rice, Terrell Owens and Randy Moss. Boldin finished the season with 83 catches for 1,106 yds. and five touchdowns.

San Francisco was represented again at the 2015 Pro Bowl as T Joe Staley and G Mike lupati were selected. Five other players — S Antoine Bethea, G Alex Boone, LB Chris Borland, RB Frank Gore and DT Justin Smith — were named as Pro Bowl alternates.

Defensively, no other team worked through adversity as efficiently as the San Francisco 49ers. Under the direction of defensive coordinator Vic Fangio, the 49ers defense ranked near the top in several categories for the fourth–consecutive season despite injuries to many key players, including All–Pro linebackers Patrick Willis and NaVorro Bowman. San Francisco finished with the league's 5th best unit overall (321.4 YPG), allowing the 7th fewest rushing yds. per game (100.8) and the 5th fewest passing yds. per game (220.7), and finished the season with a league–leading 23 INTs.

On the other side of the ball, San Francisco relied on bell cow running back Frank Gore to be the focal point of the NFL's 4th—best rushing attack, which averaged 136.0 yds. per game. The 49ers managed 62 plays of 10—or—more rushing yds. — 4th—most in the league — as Gore pieced together his eighth season of 1,000—or—more yds. QB Colin Kaeper—nick threw for a career—high 3,369 yds., 19 TDs and 10 INTs. He tied the franchise record for the most consecutive games with a TD pass (18) following a Week 12 victory over Washington [Steve Young — 18 (10/9/94 — 11/26/95)]. He also rushed for a QB franchise record 639 yds.

Led by K Phil Dawson and P Andy Lee, the 49ers special teams unit maintained its reputation as one of the league's finest. Dawson connected on 25–of–31 FG attempts, including the 2nd most made FGs of 50–or–more yds. among all kickers en route to becoming one of 19 players in NFL history to sur–pass 1,500 pts. scored. Lee finished the season with the 6th highest punting average (46.8).

San Francisco bid an end to the 2014 sea—son with back—to—back home games. Against the Chargers in Week 16, the 49ers rushed for a fran—chise record 355 yds., with Gore and Kaepernick both registering150—or—more yds. on the ground. The duo became just the fourth pair of teammates to accomplish that feat in a single game in NFL history.

In the team's final home game, the 49ers topped the Cardinals, 20–17, in a tightly contested match—up. Gore eclipsed the century mark for the fourth time in 2014 and for the 39th time in his career, which is the second—most among all active players.

The 2014 season was full of highs and lows, ultimately resulting in the team missing the playoffs for the first time since 2010.

The 2015 season for the San Francisco 49ers was full of ups and downs, but ended on a high note as the team earned an overtime victory over division—rival St. Louis. LB NaVorro Bowman returned to the field after missing all of the 2014 season due to injury and started all 16 games as he led the NFL in tackles with 154 and earned First—Team All—Pro honors. Along with T Joe Staley, Bowman was one of two 49ers selected to the Pro Bowl.

The 49ers opened the season with a 20–3 win on Monday Night Football over the Minnesota Vikings led by RB Carlos Hyde, who rushed for a career–high 168 yards and two touchdowns. After a win at home over the Baltimore Ravens in Week 6, the 49ers dropped two division games to fall to 2–6 at the midway point in the season. Heading into Week 9, head coach Jim Tomsula tabbed QB Blaine Gab–bert as the starter, as he promptly led the team to a 17–16 victory over the Atlanta Falcons who were 6–2 prior to the matchup at Levi's® Stadium. Two weeks later, San Francisco earned their fourth win of the season in dramatic fashion, as Gabbert con–nected with WR Torrey Smith for a 71–yard touch–down pass in overtime to beat the Chicago Bears on the road.

On offense, WR Anquan Boldin continued his Hall of Fame career by becoming the first player in NFL history to register 50-or-more receptions and 600-or-more yards in each of his first 13 seasons in the NFL. As the team's leading receiver for the third consecutive season, Boldin became just the 13th player in NFL history to record 1,000-or-more receptions in their career (1,009) and moved into 12th place all-time in receptions and 17th in NFL history in receiving yards (13,195).

Gabbert started the final eight games of the season for the team and threw for 10 touchdowns with a career-high completion percentage of 63.1%. In his first year with the 49ers, WR Torrey Smith showed off his speed and big play potential in becoming the first player in franchise history to register three receiving touchdowns of 70-or-more yards in the same season since WR John Taylor accomplished the feat in 1989. In hauling in 33 receptions for 663 yards and four touchdowns, he averaged 20.1 yards-per-catch, the highest in the NFL.

Under the guidance of running backs coach Tom Rathman, the team did not miss a beat in the rushing game throughout the season. Following an injury to Hyde, RB Shaun Draughn was brought in and registered career—bests in both rushing yards (273) and receiving yards (176) during his six games with San Francisco.

Defensively, NT lan Williams, who suffered a season ending injury in 2014, returned to set a career-high in tackles while being named a team captain. DT Quinton Dial set a new career-high in tackles and 2015 first-round pick DL Arik Armstead registered two sacks while appearing in every game during his rookie season.

Second-year players made their mark on the defense in 2015 as LB Aaron Lynch built off his rookie season to post a career-high 6.5 sacks coming off the edge. DB Jimmie Ward also stood out, setting a career high with 65 tackles and recording the first pick-six of his career, playing all over the field.

On special teams, the ever-reliable K Phil Dawson continued his impressive career and led the team in points scored with 92. From Week 1 through Week 15, Dawson knocked through 19 consecutive FGs, the second longest streak in 49ers history. In Week 17, he became the 16th player all-time to reach the 1,600 career points mark and now made 386 career field goals, ranking t-9th in NFL history.

The 2016 San Francisco 49ers were a team that had some highs and lows throughout the year, but the team's young talent showed bright spots, including setting individual milestones.

Under the guidance of head coach Chip Kelly, the 49ers defeated the Los Angeles Rams 28–0 on ESPN's Monday Night Football at Levi's Stadium to open the season, marking the first shutout in franchise history on opening weekend.

Offensively, the 49ers finished with the fourth ranked rushing offense, averaging 126.2 yards per game on the ground. RB Carlos Hyde led the team with 217 carries for 988 yards and six touchdowns. In Week 14 vs. NYJ, Hyde put himself into the 49ers record books with 193 rushing yards, the sixth—highest total in a single game in franchise history. WR Jeremy Kerley, who joined the team via trade late in training camp, quickly found his groove in Kelly's offense and posted a career—high 64 re—ceptions. T Joe Staley, who started 13 games and moved into the top ten for most games played by an offensive lineman in franchise history, earned the Bill Walsh Award as the team's MVP.

Defensively, DL DeForest Buckner, whom the 49ers selected seventh overall in the 2016 NFL Draft, quickly established himself as a rising start in the NFL. Buckner led all rookie defensive linemen with 73 tackles and tied for the team lead with 6.0 sacks. LB Ahmad Brooks registered 6.0 sacks as well, his eighth consecutive season with 5.0-ormore sacks as a member of the 49ers, and moved into sole possession of third place on the team's all-time sack list.

On special teams, K Phil Dawson became the 10th kicker in NFL history to record 400-or-more made field goals in his career and the 10th player in 49ers history to surpass 400 total points scored with the franchise.

The San Francisco 49ers began a new era in 2017 as the team welcomed the leadership of John Lynch as general manager and Kyle Shanahan as head coach to the organization. The 49ers completed the season on a five—game win streak to finish with a 6–10 record. The season got off to a rough start as the team lost five of their first six games by three points or less in each of the games, but finished as the hottest team in the NFL as winners of six of their final seven games and were the only team in the NFL to post a perfect 5–0 record in December.

The 49ers used both free agency and the NFL Draft to add key contributors in 2017. LB Brock Covle, LB Elvis Dumervil, OL Brandon Fusco, WR Pierre Garçon, WR Marquise Goodwin, K Robbie Gould, FB Kyle Juszczyk and CB K'Waun Williams were some of many free agents that helped the team immediately, with Juszczyk earning Pro Bowl honors in his first year with the team. San Francisco selected DL Solomon Thomas with the 3rd overall pick in the 2017 NFL Draft after making a draft-day trade with the Chicago Bears. The 49ers then moved back into the first round to select LB Reuben Foster at 31st overall. The team's late-round picks in CB Ahkello Witherspoon, QB C.J. Beathard, TE George Kittle, WR Trent Taylor and DB Adrian Colbert, along with undrafted rookie free agents in RB Matt Breida and WR Kendrick Bourne, also made several starts throughout the year and were among the team's statistical leaders.

On October 31, 2017, the 49ers completed a trade with the New England Patriots to acquire QB Jimmy Garoppolo. Following the team's first win of the season against the New York Giants, Garoppolo made his Niner debut in the final drive versus the Seattle Seahawks. On the final play from scrimmage, Garoppolo tossed his first touchdown with the 49ers, a 10-yard pass to WR Louis Murphy. The following week, he made his first start with San Francisco in the team's Week 13 matchup against the Chicago Bears near his hometown of Rolling Meadows, IL. He would go on to lead the 49ers to five consecutive victories in the month of December after becoming the full-time starter. The 49ers won five consecutive games for the first time since 2013, and became the first team with 10-or-more losses prior to December to go undefeated from December 1st until end of season since the 1986 Indianapolis Colts. Garoppolo's 1,542 passing yards through his first five starts with the 49ers were the most by a quarterback in franchise history in their first five starts with the team and ranks fourth among all quarterbacks in their first five starts with a new team since the merger in 1970.

Defensively, San Francisco excelled under first—year defensive coordinator Robert Saleh. After battling through multiple injuries that left several key 49ers on the Injured Reserve List early in the season, the 49ers defense got bet—ter as the season progressed. Over the final six weeks of the season, San Francisco held op—ponents to an average of 87.7 rushing yards per game while giving up 100 rushing yards just once in that span. LB Elvis Dumervil registered a team—high 6.5 sacks on the season, becoming the 32nd player to register 100—or—more sacks and joined John Abraham as the only players to register at least 0.5 sack against all 32 teams in the NFL.

In his first season with the 49ers, K Robbie Gould had arguably the best season of his 13year NFL career, and got better as the season went on. Registering a single-season careerhigh 145 points on the season, Gould connected on a career-high 39 field goals, which led the NFL. He joined K David Akers (44 FGs in 2011) as the only players in franchise history to lead the NFL in made field goals while his 39 made field goals tied for the 3rd-most in a single season in NFL history. In the month of December, Gould connected on each of his 18 field goal attempts and had a three-game stretch in December which he made 15 field goals, becoming the first player in NFL history to make 15 field goals in a three-game span, according to the Elias Sports Bureau. Against the Bears and in his first trip back to Chicago, Gould accounted for each of the team's 15 points, including the 24-yard game-winning field goal with four seconds left in the game. Two weeks later against the Titans, he set a single-game career high with six made field goals which tied the franchise record for most made field goals in a single game. Gould won NFC Special Teams Player of the Week for both Week 13 and Week 15 and was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Month for December.

The San Francisco 49ers finished the 2018 season with a third-place finish in the NFC West, improving from fourth the previous season. Despite the team's 4-12 record, the 2018 season produced NFL records and franchise milestones from both the team and individual performances. The organization welcomed back the duo of general manager John Lynch and head coach Kyle Shanahan for their second season, as well as newly re-signed QB Jimmy Garoppolo, who led the team to wins in each of the final five games at the conclusion of the 2017 season. In an injury plagued season that included losing starting QB Jimmy Garoppolo and newly signed RB Jerick McKinnon to ACL injuries, the young core of the team stepped up to win two of their final four games in the month of December to close out the season. Over the past two seasons, the 49ers are tied for the second—most victories in the month of December with seven wins.

The 49ers were able to find several contributing members of the 2018 team through both free agency and the draft. The team acquired key pieces such as C Weston Richburg, RB Alfred Morris and CB Richard Sherman, a four-time All-Pro defensive back that helped provide veteran leadership and productivity to the team. With the ninth-overall pick in the 2018 NFL Draft, the team selected T Mike McGlinchey, who started all 16 games for the team at right tackle. The 49ers then selected WR Dante Pettis in the second round (44th overall), who hauled in 27 receptions for 467 yards and five touchdowns. Pettis' five touchdowns are tied for the second-most in franchise history by a rookie. With their thirdround pick (70th overall), San Francisco selected LB Fred Warner, who started all 16 games and logged the third-most tackles (122) among all rookies. The team's late-round picks of DB Tarvarius Moore, DB D.J. Reed Jr., S Marcell Harris, DT Jullian Taylor and WR Richie James Jr., along with undrafted rookies RB Jeff Wilson Jr. and TE Ross Dwelley, also made several starts and provided substantial contributions throughout the Following injuries to both Garoppolo and QB C.J. Beathard, undrafted QB Nick Mullens was able to fill the void and excel for San Francisco's offense after being promoted to the active roster from the team's practice squad on September 26. Mullens started all eight games he appeared in and accumulated the fourth-most passing vards by a quarterback in their first eight career games since 1970 (Patrick Mahomes, KC; Andrew Luck, Ind.; Cam Newton, Car.). In his NFL debut versus the Oakland Raiders on Thursday Night Football in primetime, Mullens threw for 262 yards and the second-best quarterback rating (151.9) by a passer in their NFL debut since 1973. The offense received an abundance of firepower from second-year TE George Kittle, who exploded onto the national scene and set an NFL record for most receiving yards by a tight end in a single season (1,377). Kittle also proved himself as a weapon in the open field, recording the most yards after catch by any player in the NFL since 2010 (870). Kittle earned Second-Team All-Pro honors, as well as his first Pro Bowl selection, after his historic season. On the ground, the 49ers were led by second-year undrafted RB Matt Breida who carried the ball 153 times for 814 yards and three touchdowns, while adding 27 receptions for 261 yards and two touchdowns. Breida finished the season with a 5.3 rushing average, which was fourth-best in the NFL.

On the defensive side of the ball, the 49ers fought through an assortment of injuries that included a different starting lineup in all 16 games, but came together as a unit towards the end of the season as they began to find continuity and success. DL DeForest Buckner led the pass rushing unit by collecting a career-high 12.0 sacks, which was the second-most among NFL DTs behind Los Angeles Rams DT Aaron Donald and the fourth-most by a member of the 49ers since 2000. Ronald Blair III (5.5) Cassius Marsh (5.5) and Arik Armstead (3.0) also provided support in the pass rush and set career highs in sacks on the season. Robert Saleh's unit also proved themselves to be a force against the run, ranking seventh in the NFL on the season with just 4.1 yards per carry allowed.

K Robbie Gould continued to shine in his second season with the 49ers both on and off the field as he was nominated the 49ers' Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year. Gould expanded on his streak from the previous season and set the franchise record with 33 consecutive field goals made 10/29/17 to 10/7/18. Gould finished the season leading the NFL with a 97.1 field goal percentage (33–34), which also set a franchise record. Over the past two seasons, Gould leads the entire league in field goals made (72) and field goal percentage (96.0).

The San Francisco 49ers finished the 2019 season with a 13–3 regular season record (2–1 in the postseason), a NFC West title and the number one seed throughout the NFC Playoffs as head coach Kyle Shanahan led his team to Super Bowl LIV, the seventh Super Bowl appearance in franchise history.

The 2019 49ers featured three AP All-Pro selections in TE George Kittle (First-Team), DL DeForest Buckner (Second-Team) and CB Richard Sherman (Second-Team) and four players named to the Pro Bowl (DL Nick Bosa, Kittle, FB Kyle Juszczyk and Sherman). The second overall pick in the 2019 NFL Draft, Bosa was also named AP Defensive Rookie of the Year, PFWA Rookie of the Year, PFWA Defensive Rookie of the Year, Sporting News Rookie of the Year and Pepsi Rookie of the Year. General Manager John Lynch was named Executive of the Year by the PFWA, while Shanahan was named Coach of the Year by Sporting News and NFC Coach of the Year by the Committee of 101.

The 49ers defense was a dominant force throughout the season. San Francisco finished the regular season second in the NFL in yards allowed per game (281.8) and yards per play (4.66), first in forced fumbles (21), third in fumble recoveries (13) and fifth in sacks (48). Defensive linemen Arik Armstead (10.0), Bosa (9.0), Buckner (7.5) and DL Dee Ford (6.5) combined to make the 49ers the only team in the NFL to have fouror-more players with 6.5-or-more sacks in the 2019 regular season. The 49ers linebackers were led by second-year LB Fred Warner, who was named NFC Defensive Player of the Month (November) and NFC Defensive Player of the Week (Week 12). The linebacking corps was also bolstered by LB Kwon Alexander, who was the recipient of the team's Matt Hazeltine Iron Man Award, and LB Dre Greenlaw, who was named to the PFWA All–Rookie Team. The pass defense, led by 49ers Walter Payton NFL Man of the Year nominee CB Richard Sherman, ranked first in the NFL with 169.2 yards allowed per game. The 169.2 passing yards allowed per game was the fewest allowed in the NFL since the 2009 New York Jets (153.7).

On offense, the 49ers excelled on the ground, as the 49ers led the NFL in rushing touchdowns (23), with the trio of RB Raheem Mostert (772), RB Matt Breida (623) and RB Tevin Coleman (544) running behind an experienced and tough offensive line. It marked the first time the 49ers had three players rush for over 500 yards in a single season since 1954. Through the air, QB Jimmy Garoppolo finished the regular season with 3,978 passing yards, the fourth-most by a guarterback in franchise history. Kittle finished the year with 1,053 receiving yards and five touchdowns, becoming the first tight end in franchise history to register back-to-back 1.000-vard seasons (1,377 receiving yards in 2018). He also set the NFL record for the most receiving yards by a tight end in their first three NFL seasons (2,945 receiving yards). The 49ers were given a boost by mid-season acquisition WR Emmanuel Sanders who complemented a young core composed of WR Deebo Samuel and WR Kendrick Bourne. Samuel tallied 57 receptions for 802 yards, the second-most receptions and receiving yards in a season by a 49ers rookie.

On special teams, K Robbie Gould delivered consistently in critical games down the stretch. He was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 16) and, for the third-consecutive year since joining the 49ers in 2017, captured NFC Special Teams Player of the Month in December. Additionally, rookie P Mitch Wishnowsky was named NFC Special Teams Player of the Week (Week 9).

The 49ers shut down the Minnesota Vikings in the NFC Divisional round, as San Francisco's defense held the Vikings to 147 total net yards (21 rushing and 126 passing). The defense registered 6.0 sacks of Vikings QB Kirk Cousins, tied for the second-most in a game in postseason franchise history. San Francisco then defeated the Green Bay Packers in the NFC Championship to advance to Super Bowl LIV. The 49ers offense rushed for 285 vards and four touchdowns on 42 attempts as Mostert finished the game with 220 rushing yards and four touchdowns, setting the franchise record for most rushing yards in a game, regular season or postseason, with his rushing total being the second-most in a postseason game in the Super Bowl era.

The 49ers season ended as they fell to the Kansas City Chiefs, 20–31, in Super Bowl LIV. Samuel finished the game with five receptions for 39 yards to go along with three carries for 53 yards. His 53 rushing yards were the most by a WR in a Super Bowl while his 32–yard run was the longest run by a WR in a Super Bowl. The 49ers defense registered 4.0 sacks while Warner and DB Tarvarius Moore both recorded an interception of Chiefs QB Patrick Mahomes in the loss.

Throughout 2020, the world faced an unprecedented Coronavirus pandemic that completely altered every facet of everyday life, including sports. The 49ers faced many challenges, including a record number of injuries and relocation to go along with COVID-19. The team finished the season 6–10 with a 3–3 record in the division and an impressive 5–3 record on the road.

The 2020 San Francisco 49ers were led by AP First—Team All—Pro and Pro Bowl selection LB Fred Warner, who registered a team—high 125 tackles to go along with 1.0 sack, two intercep—tions, two fumble recoveries, one forced fumble and six passes defensed. San Francisco had two additional players selected to the Pro Bowl in FB Kyle Juszczyk, who set career highs in car—ries (17), rushing yards (64) and rushing touch—downs (two) while adding 19 receptions for 202 yards and tied his career high with four receiving touchdowns, and T Trent Williams, who started all 14 games in which he appeared after the team acquired him in a trade with The Washington Football Team in the offseason.

San Francisco's offense also featured rookie WR Brandon Aiyuk, who led the team with 60 receptions for 748 yards and five touchdowns to go along with six carries for 77 yards and two touchdowns on the ground. Aiyuk became the first rookie to lead the team in receptions and receiving yards since WR Gene Washington in 1969. His 60 receptions were the second-most by a rookie in franchise history and his 748 receiving yards were the third-most by a rookie in franchise history. WR Kendrick Bourne set career highs in receptions (49) and receiving yards (667), while TE George Kittle added 48 receptions for 634 yards and two touchdowns. RB Jeff Wilson Jr. led the team with career highs in rushing attempts (126), rushing yards (600) and rushing touchdowns (seven), while also adding 13 receptions for 133 yards and three touchdowns. RB Raheem Mostert also notched 104 carries for 521 vards and two touchdowns on the season.

The 49ers defense allowed 314.4 yards per game, ranking fifth in the NFL, while allowing just 207.9 passing yards per game, which ranked fourth in the league. On the ground, the defense allowed 12 rushing touchdowns on the season, which was tied for the fourth–fewest in the NFL. San Francisco's defense also ranked fourth in the NFL in 3rd–down defense (35.5 percent allowed) and three–and–out drives forced (41).

Along with Warner, the 49ers defense featured DL Kerry Hyder Jr., who led the team with a career-high 8.5 sacks while also adding 49 tackles, 10 tackles for loss and one fumble recovery. Rookie DT Javon Kinlaw tallied 33 tackles, 1.5 sacks, three tackles for loss, one interception (returned for a touchdown) and four passes defensed. LB Dre Greenlaw notched 83 tackles, seven tackles for loss, 1.0 sack and one pass defensed. The secondary was led by DB Jimmie Ward, who registered 71 tackles, two forced fumbles and four passes defensed, and CB Jason Verrett, who tallied 60 tackles, two tackles for loss, two interceptions and seven passes defensed.

On special teams, P Mitch Wishnowsky ranked ninth in the NFL in gross punting average (46.9) and 12th in net punting average (41.6), while downing 25 punts inside the 20. K Robbie Gould surpassed 1,700 career points while connecting on 19 of 23 field goal attempts and 36 of 38 PATs. Gould became just the 11th kicker in NFL history to reach 400 career made field goals.
